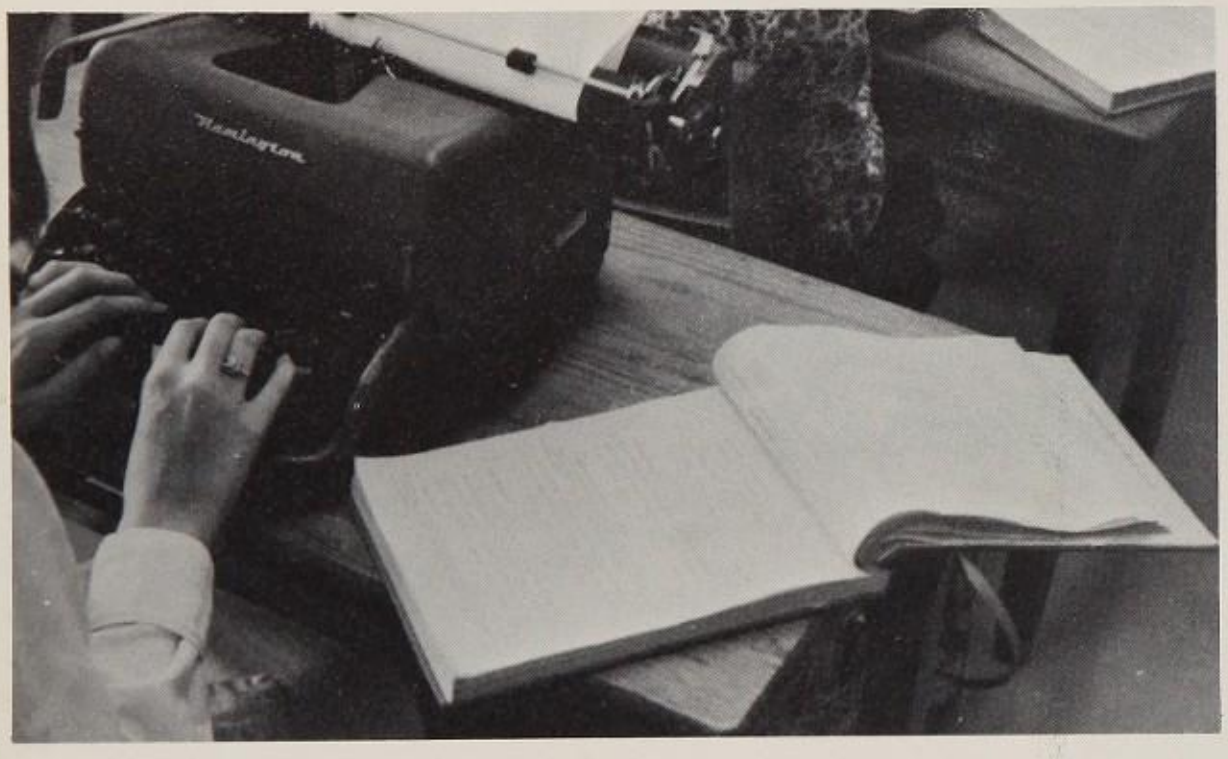
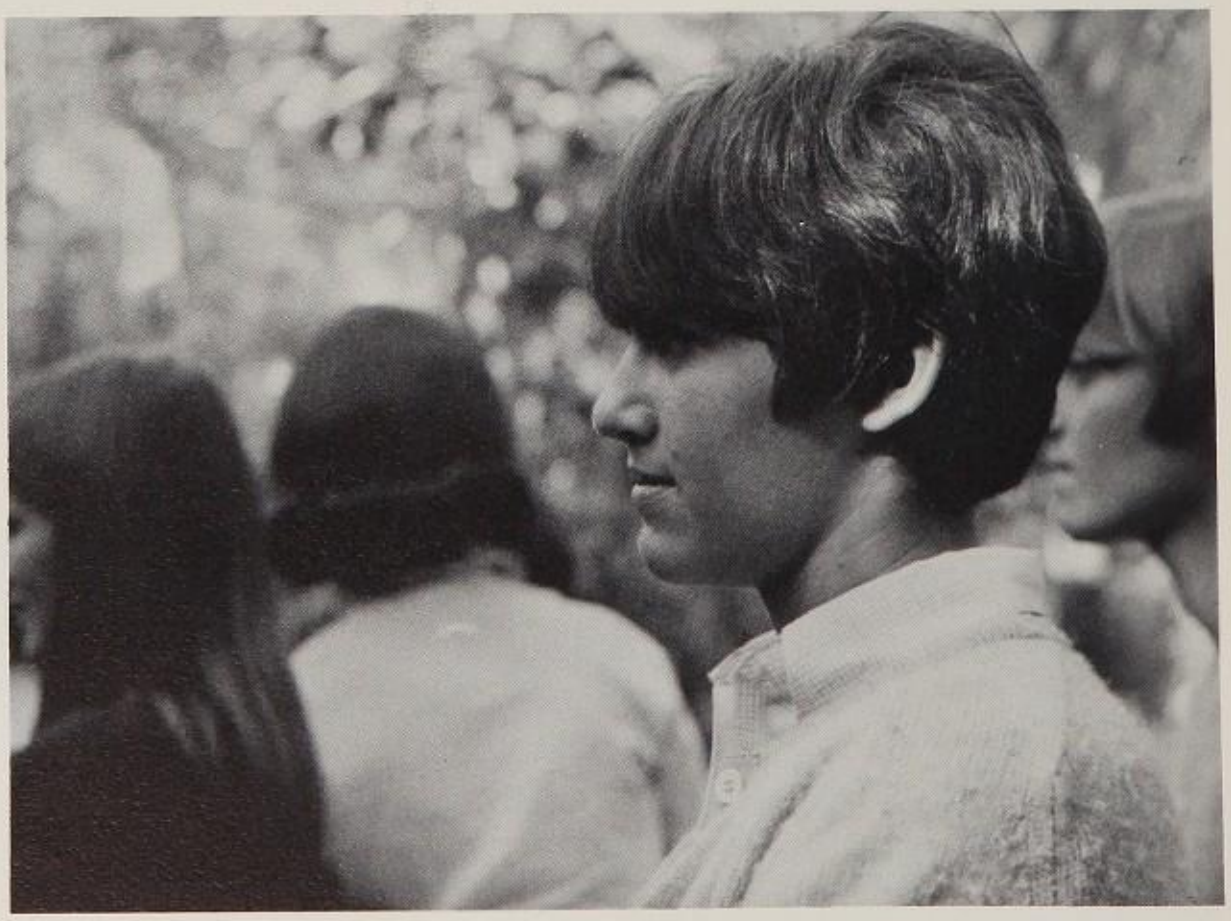
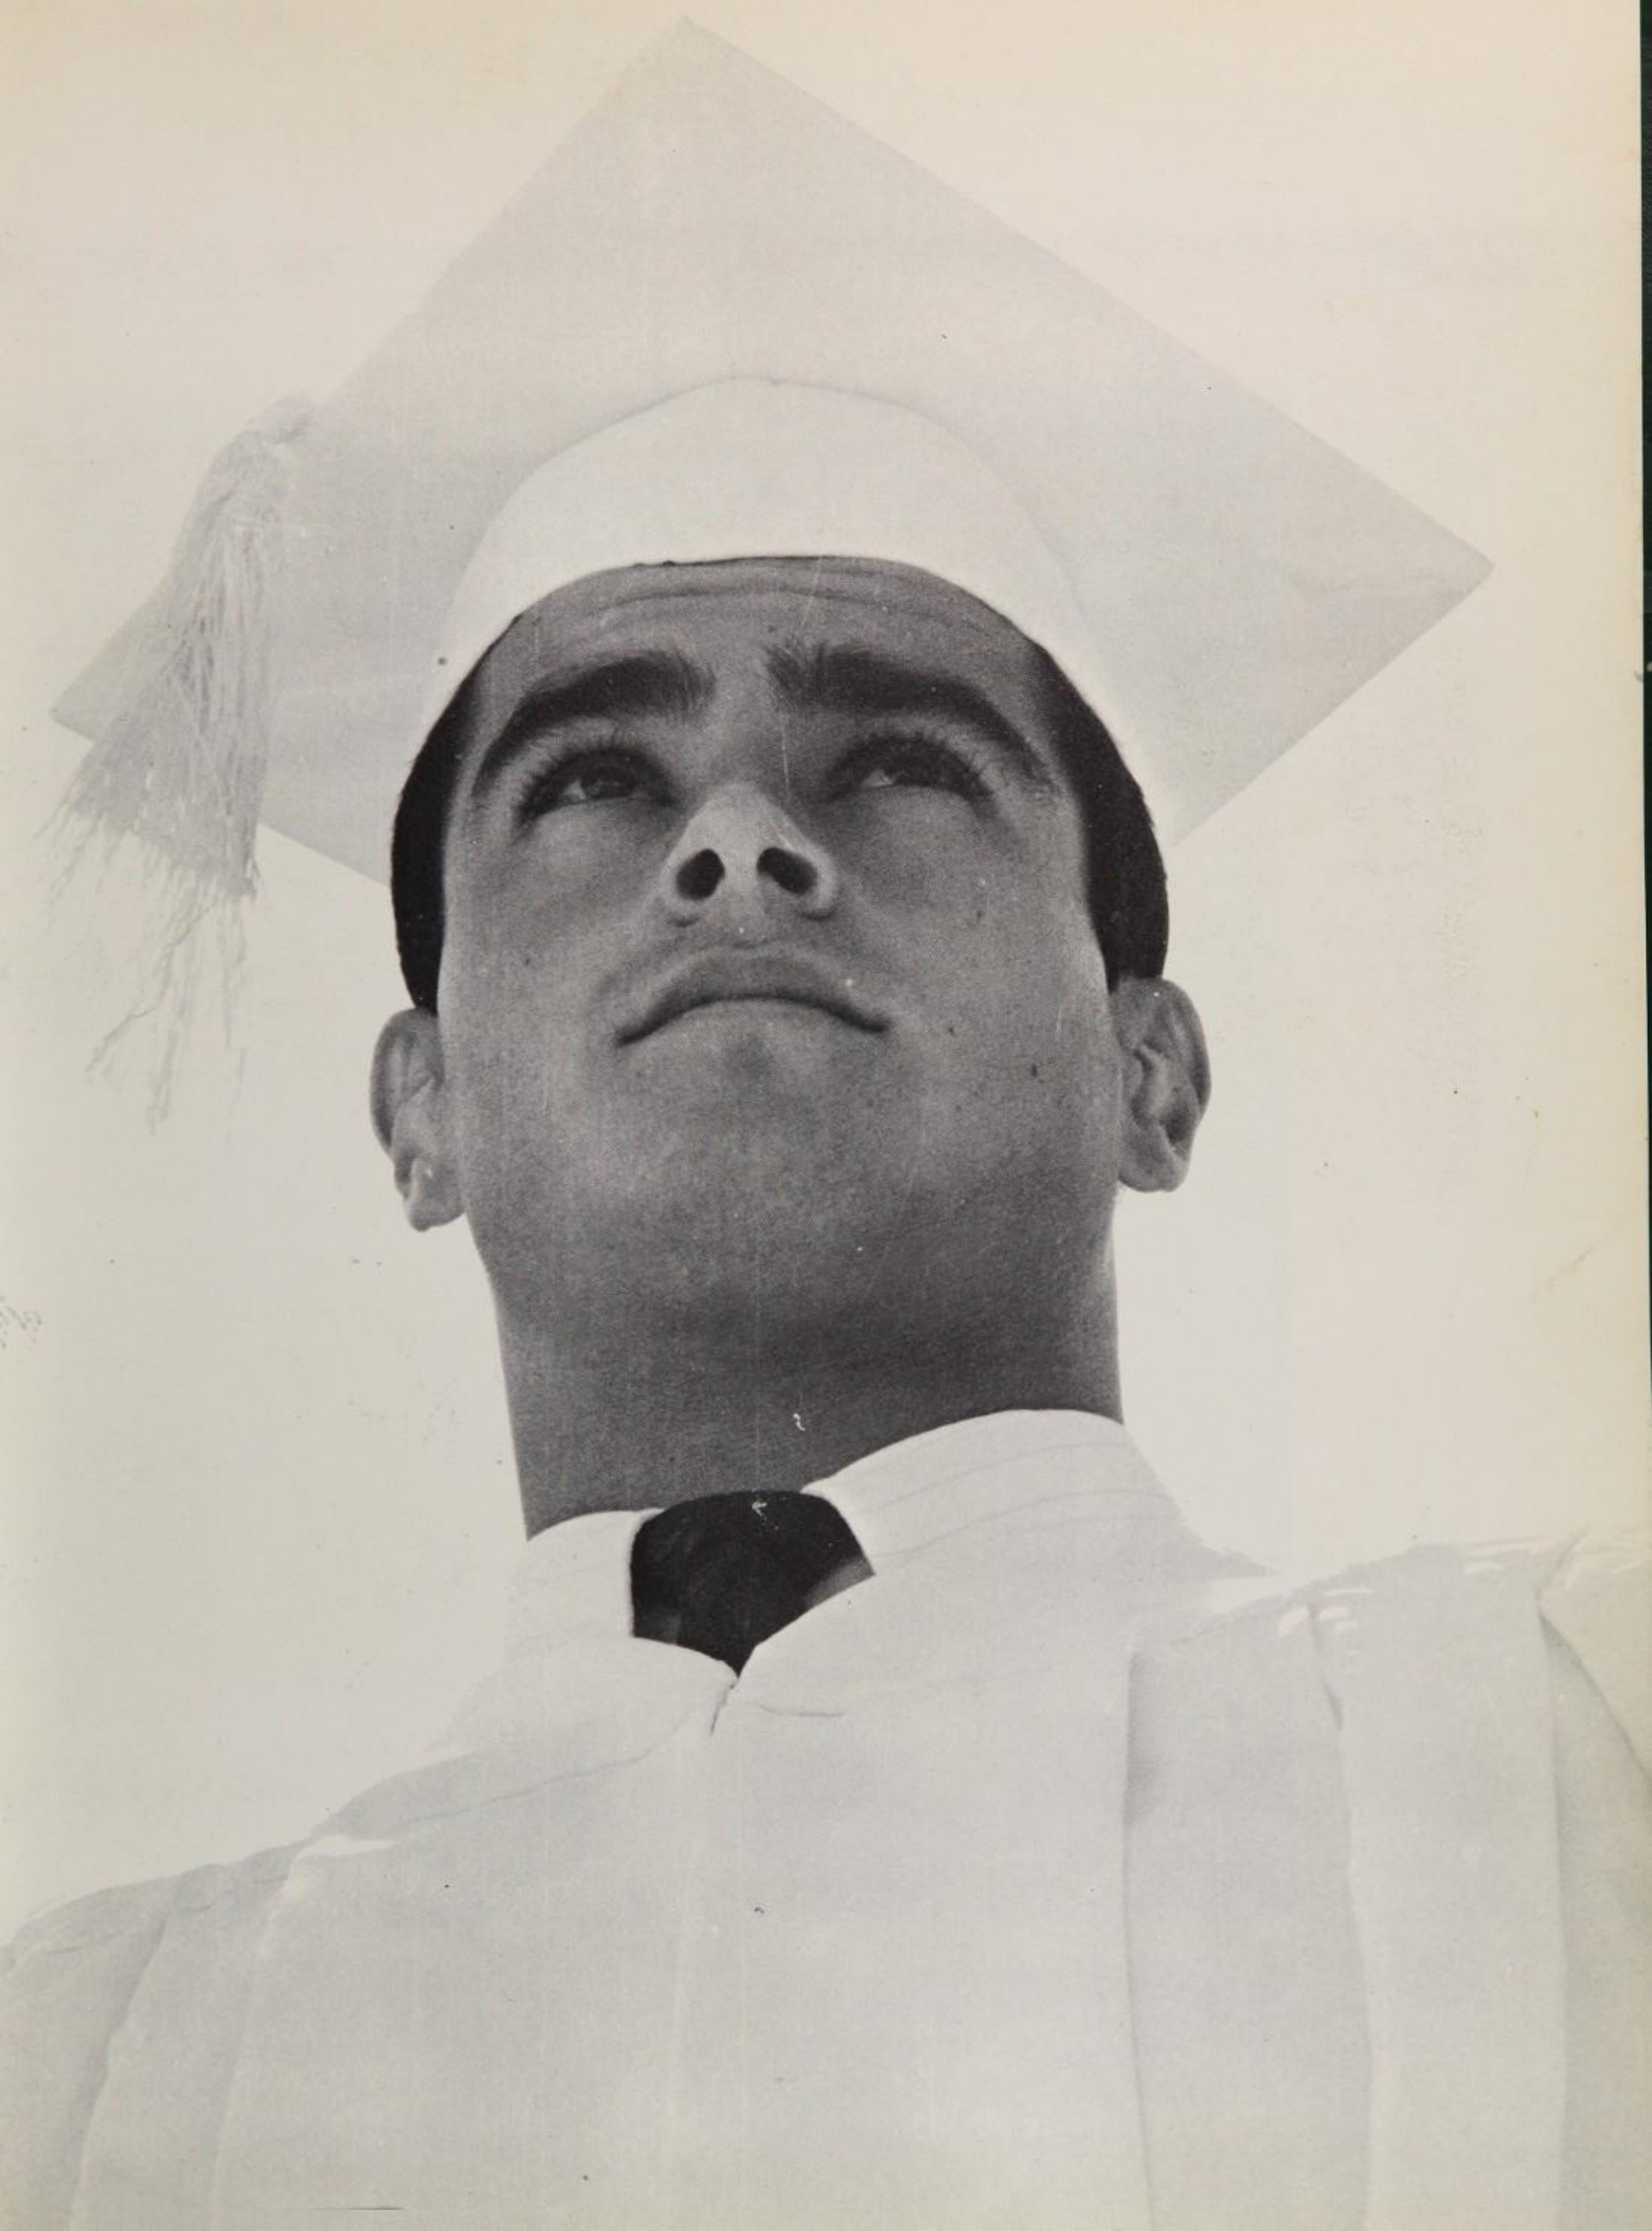
Senior Class Motto 1967







I have observed with wonder so many intellectual and literary fashions that I have come at last to rely positively upon one conviction alone. No idea is so antiquated that it was not once modern. No idea is so modern that it will not some day be antiquated.
. . . To seize the flying thought before it escapes us is our only touch with reality.

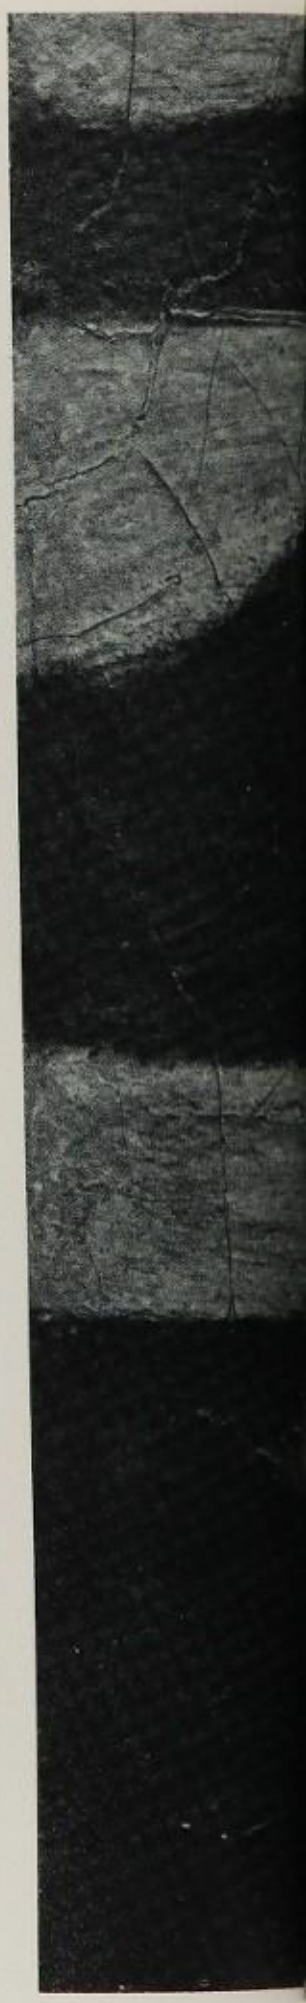
Ellen Glasgow
(1874-1945)



The nowness of today was an awesome sensation. It was an age of rapid progress and never-ending discovery. The background of learning was necessarily stable, but individual concepts and explications were steadily changing.
Southwest emphasized the values of judgment and understanding in preparation for a successful tomorrow. The curriculum ranged from vocational to college preparatory courses while activities provided a variety of learning experiences. The graduating class of 1967 looked back upon three exciting years filled with countless remembrances and momentos. Ahead lay a multitude of destinies, each determined in its own way by the years at Southwest.
For the large classes which would return, Southwest maintained her up-to-date outlook in preparation for the future.
Each student, challenged by a multitude of ideas and ideals, began the journey through often uncertain but invariable diversified and challenging life.

HOMECOMING RIVALRY BROUGHT OUT SPIRIT

Along with the traditional events of Homecoming, this year's revival of the Parade sparked new life into the jam-filled week of activities. Queen Beverly Davis was crowned at the Annual Eagles Fling.

Bev, attended by Naida Katz and Vickie Madsen, and four princesses from each class, was the honored guest as a variety of acts, performed by members of the student body, were presented.

Ronni Raymond won the talent award with an original monologue, judged by Deejays Dick Starr and Lee Sherwood.

The Court reigned over the dance, held at the Everglades Hotel. Couples danced to the sounds of the Jagged Edge.

Homecoming activities ended with the heartbreaking finale to the tenth annual Turkey Day rivalry.

The 1966-67 Homecoming Court surrounded Queen Beverly Davis.

Cheerleaders expressed the emotions felt by the Southwest fans at the annual turkey Day football game.

The dance floor at Homecoming was the center of activity.

Latin Honor's homecoming Froggy went a courtin' in the colorful parade.

SENIORS SELECTED SUPERLATIVES

Throughout their three years at Southwest many students became well known because of their outstanding personality traits. From the 800 members of the 1967 graduating class 16 were selected as Senior Superlatives. Election for this honor was conducted in the Senior homerooms by the Aquila staff. Dressed in their senior best, the winners were named at one of the last Senior assemblies which was closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

SNOOPY ABANDONED MISSION TO JUDGE BEAUTY

Snoopy, famous aviator of the comic strips, took time out from his battles with the evil Red Baron, to judge the girls nominated for the 1967 Aquila Court. Charles Schulz, his creator, announced the results in a letter to the Southwest yearbook staff and a Senior Queen and two princesses from each class were named. Following his success in the Aquila mission, Snoopy returned to man his deadly Sopwith Camel.

Students in the drama classes were involved with several productions as well as learning techniques and production methods. Under the direction of Mr. James Randolph, the Eagles Fling, sponsored by the PTSA, took on a new aura of excitement.

The major production of the year, Sabrina Fair, a romantic comedy by Sammuel Taylor, featured outstanding performances by Ronni Raymond, Sonny Rodkin, Sandy Blackman, and Mike Lax. Assistant director was Mr. Jerald Pinkus, an intern from the University of Miami. The Sound of Music, produced in cooperation with the Choral Department concluded activities for the year.

Brenda and Greg enjoyed the party.

The fair Sabrina was indignant at Linus' childhood recollections.

Hours of practice produced a good actress.

Sandy Blackman put emotion into her acting.

SABRINA WAS A SUCCESS

Mr. Randolph was the new drama teacher.

Gay Harris and Dennis Tomason auditioned for The Sound of Music.

Sabrina's suitors decided the prognosis was favorable.

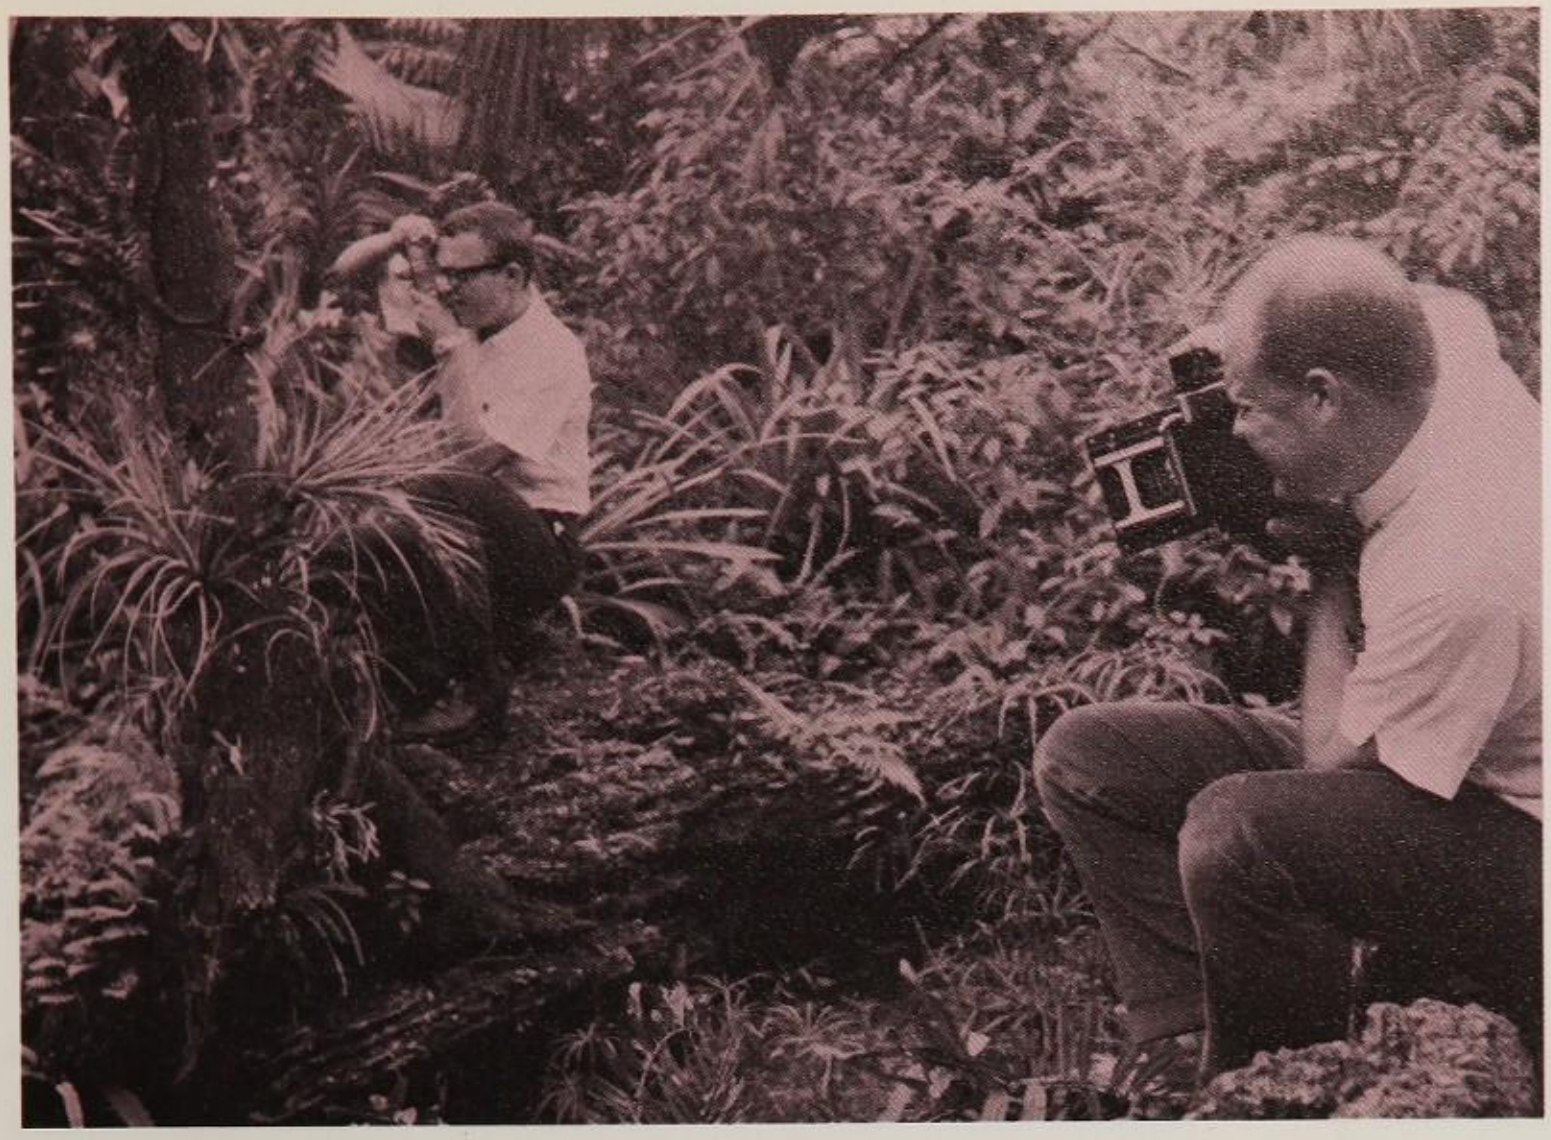
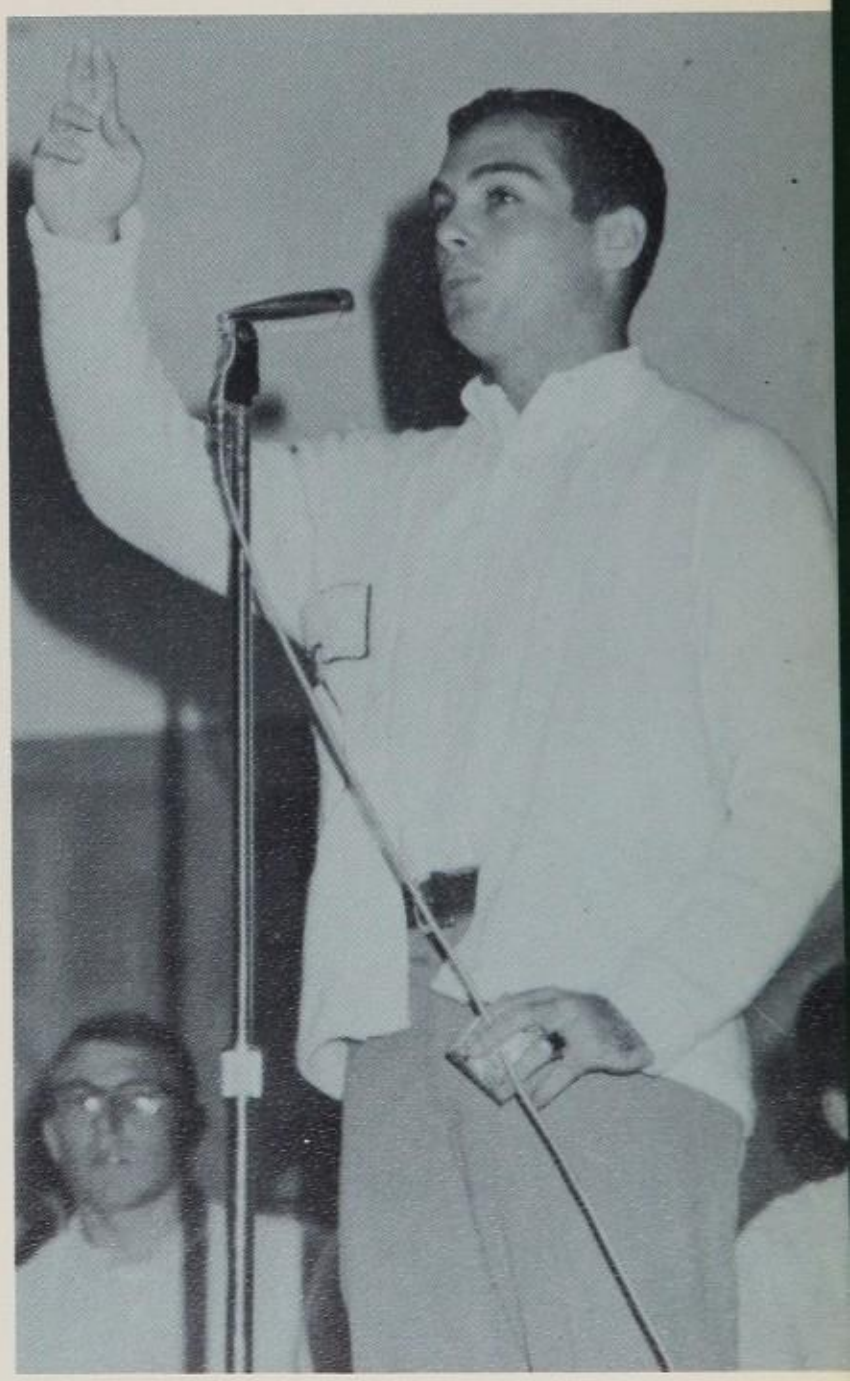
A SUNDAY AFTERNOON ON THE ISLAND OF LA GRANDE JATTE Seurat





MR. ALLSWORTH WAS PRESIDENT OF S. A. A.

President of the Dade County School Administration Association was Southwest Principal E. Hugh Allsworth. Along with this honor came many responsibilities which included attending all School Board meetings. He also served on the Board of Directors for the Federal Education Association and had to attend meetings once a month in Orlando or Tallahassee. Mr. Allsworth had to attend various other committee meetings for the School Board as well as faculty meetings.

Meeting with assistant principals and department heads, issuing memorandums to faculty, making important and final decisions—these were but a few of the duties which our principal assumed.

Mr. Allsworth met with Florida Congressman Dante Fascell and other teachers.

Mr. Allsworth enjoyed a pep rally.

A part of the principals' job was listening.

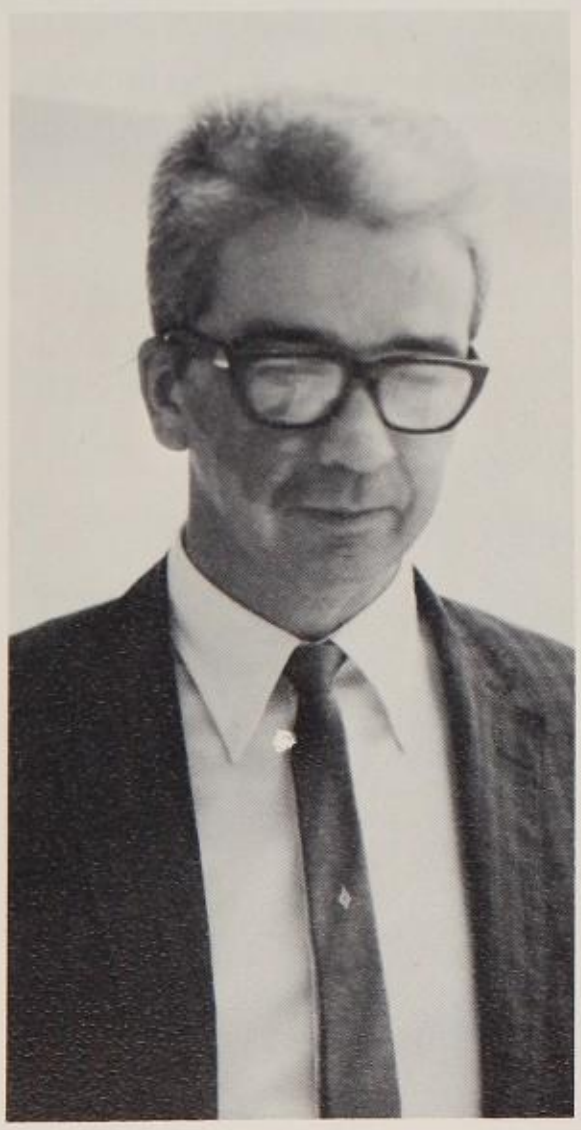
Mr. Allsworth's job involved paperwork.

Congratulations were in store for Sue Wager.

Mr. Allsworth hurried to an important appointment.

The principal was always ready with advice.

Mr. Jones enjoyed a Southwest soc hop.



Mr. Maggard was the assistant principal for Industrial Education.

Mrs. Lephew looked forward to the end of a hard day.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS KEPT SOUTHWEST WORKING

The job of assisting the principal involved long hours, careful attention, and detailed organization of school activities. Those people known as assistant principals worked under the supervision of Principal Hugh Allsworth.

Each of the assistant principals regulated one facet of Southwest. Mrs. Helene Lephew was in charge of the Guidance Department. Curriculum was under the direction of Mrs. Del Barret. Mr. Arvin Maggard supervised the Industrial Education Department. Each of the assistant principals and department heads met with Mr. Allsworth weekly to keep Southwest working smoothly.

Mrs. Barrett was the assistant principal for Curriculum.

Mr. Stewart, Mr. Maggard, and Mr. Stark attended one of their many conferences.

GUIDANCE AIDED IN EDUCATION

The compassion and understanding of Southwest's counselors was a saving grace in the occasional hard times of students. College plans and personal problems faced the guidance personnel under the direction of Mrs. Helene Lephew.

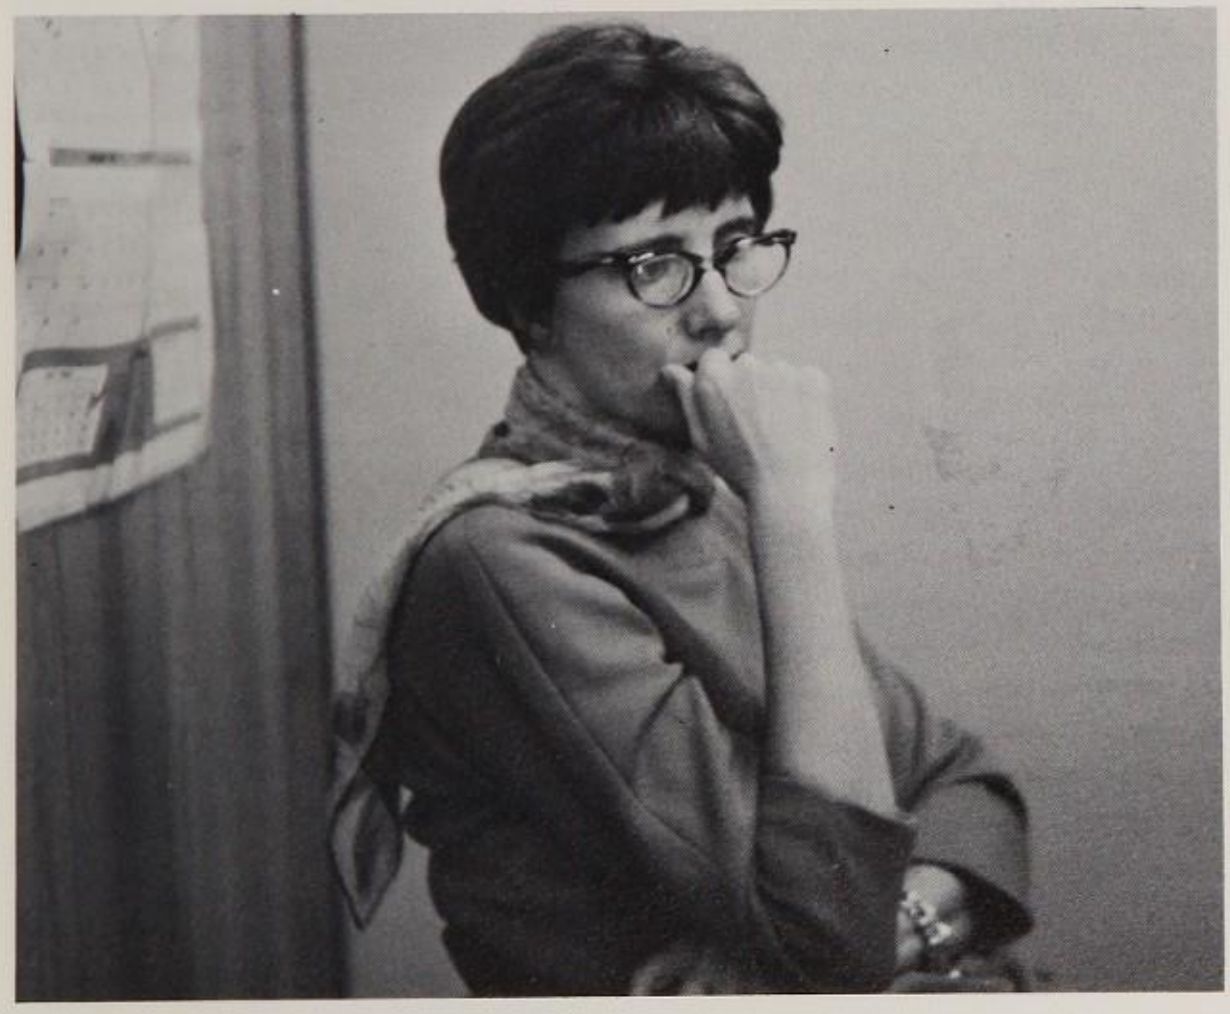
The intangible qualities necessary for counseling coupled with training in guidance skills to help in planning, for individual and personal success. Testing, schedule planning, and general advice were only a part of the counselors' heavy workload.

The guidance personnel were there to help.

Telephoning was only a small part of Mrs. Banks' job.

Mrs. Sussman gave animated advice.

Mrs. Peggy Slayden, guidance secretary, was forever busy with paperwork.



Mrs. Barbara Kolosna puzzled over a student's problem.

SCHOOL ASSISTANTS WERE DEVOTED TO S. W.

The dedicated people that kept Southwest running were formally known as School Assistants. Specifically this includes the secretaries, the bus drivers, the custodians, the nurse, and the P.T.S.A. officers. With the little details, that do not always effect the student body directly, Southwest was ably taken care of.

The people that prepared the report cards for the IBM machine, that took care of the attendance sheets, and that supervised the collection of fees and other financial endeavors; those who kept our school clean and beautiful, prepared our food, and provided transportation and communications to the outside world —these are the people that Southwest owed much gratitude to.

The custodians kept our school clean and pleasant for S. W. students.

A lot of preparation went into the meals for Southwest's students.

Mr. Samorisky sponsored our school store.

Mrs. Williams handled school funds.

The money just didn't add up right.

Vital help was given in the completion of schedules for confused students.

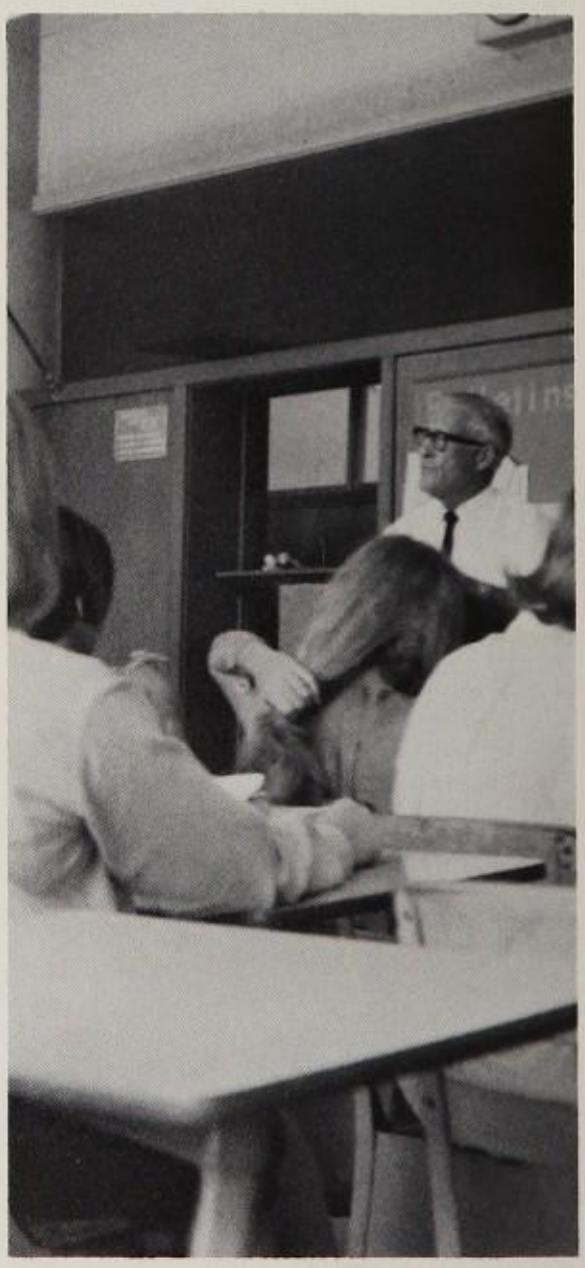
Mr. Blinn showed the techniques of demonstrations in a social studies class.

Senior English classes studied Macbeth and other works of England's Bard.

Miss Blumenthal returned to Southwest after interning here last year.

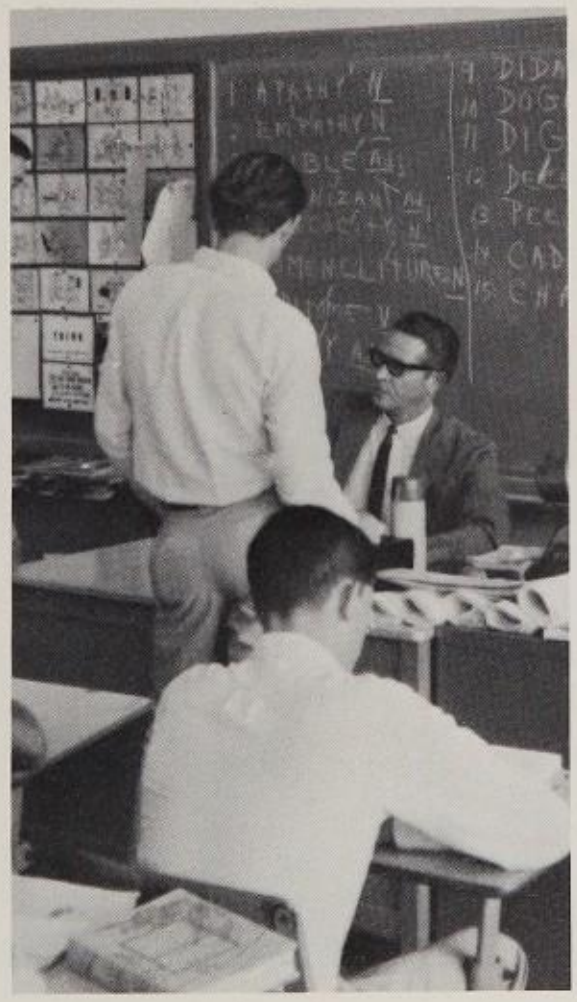


Mr. Cobb lectured on Shakespeare.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT STRESSED HUMANITIES

Literature was discussed by Mrs. Rosenstein and the students of her class.

An excellent English staff met the challenge of producing an enthusiastic and dynamic classroom atmosphere. New materials, techniques, and experimental programs were effectively used. Emphasis was placed on humanistic attitudes, development of an understanding through a wide selection of reading, as well as the use of instructional television and team teaching. The important skills of communication combined with the study of grammar and literature were stressed to develop the appreciation and insight of students. As head of the department, Mrs. Gretchen Hankins stated, "This age is an exciting time to be an English student and an English teacher."



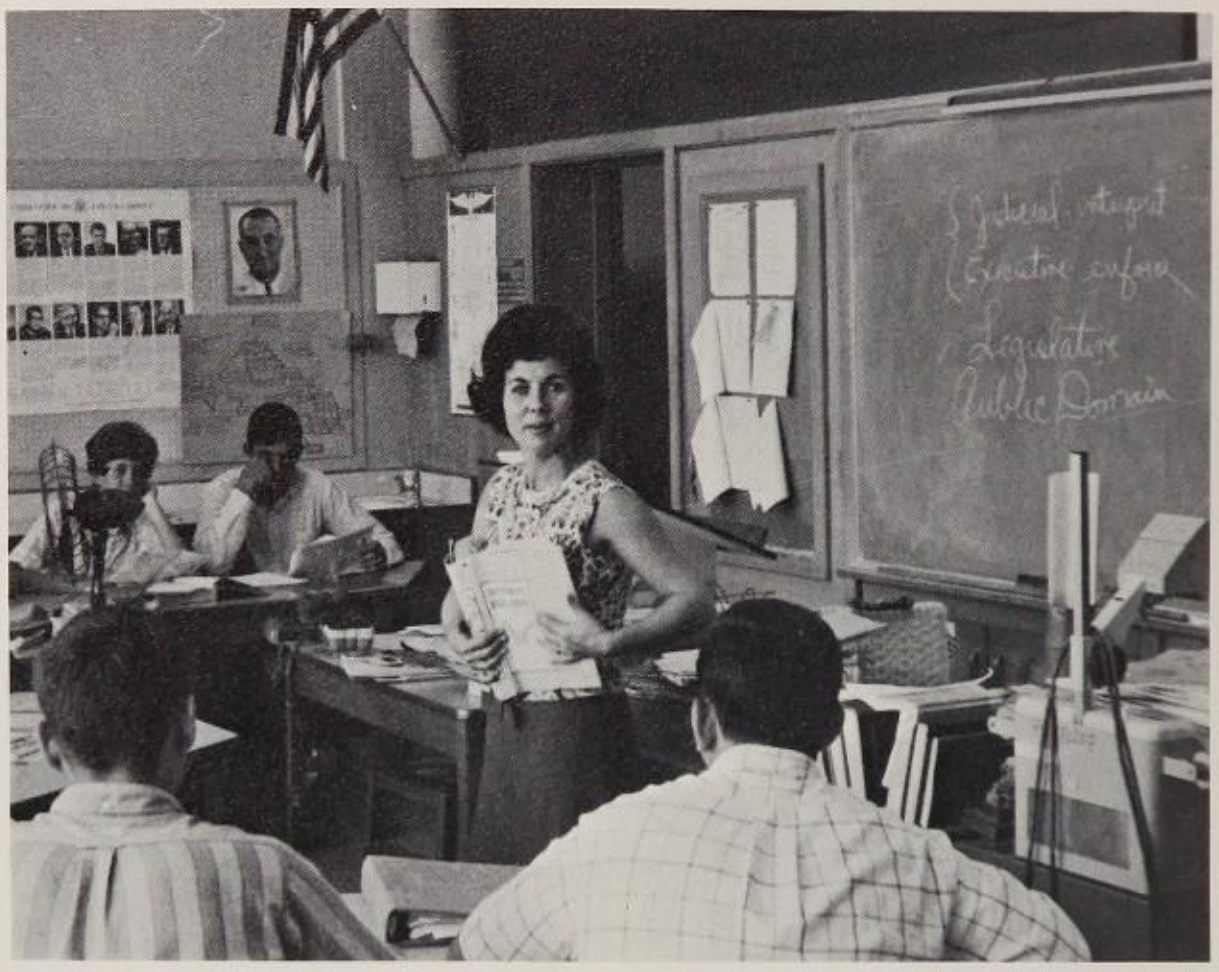
Mr. Lawrence solved problems with students.

Mrs. Hankins — English Department Head

TOP STUDENTS GOT SOCIAL STUDIES HONORS

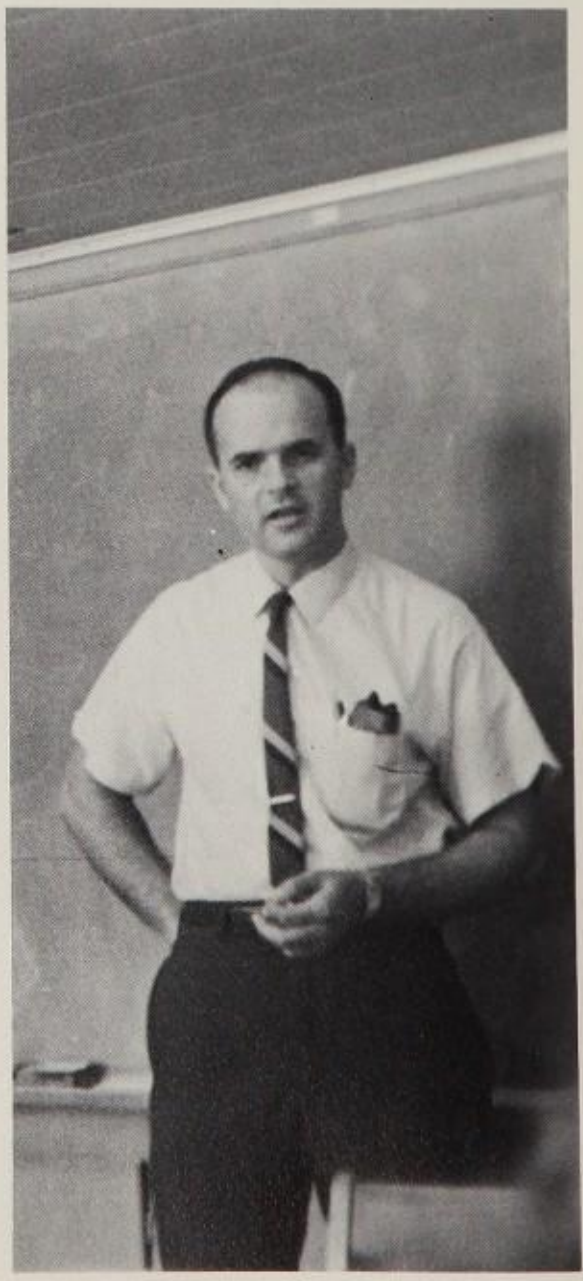
Through courses in social studies, students were given a better understanding of their world. Subjects ranged from government to psychology. Team teaching was used to give the students a varied view of the problems of history. Those students who showed outstanding ability and interest were honored with Certificates of Merit at the Social Studies Honors Night.

Department Head, Mr. Beck, stated that the primary aim of the Social Studies Department was to help young people to perpetuate the free society they have inherited, to make whatever alterations that modern conditions demand which are consistent with society's principles and values, and to pass these precepts on to future generations.



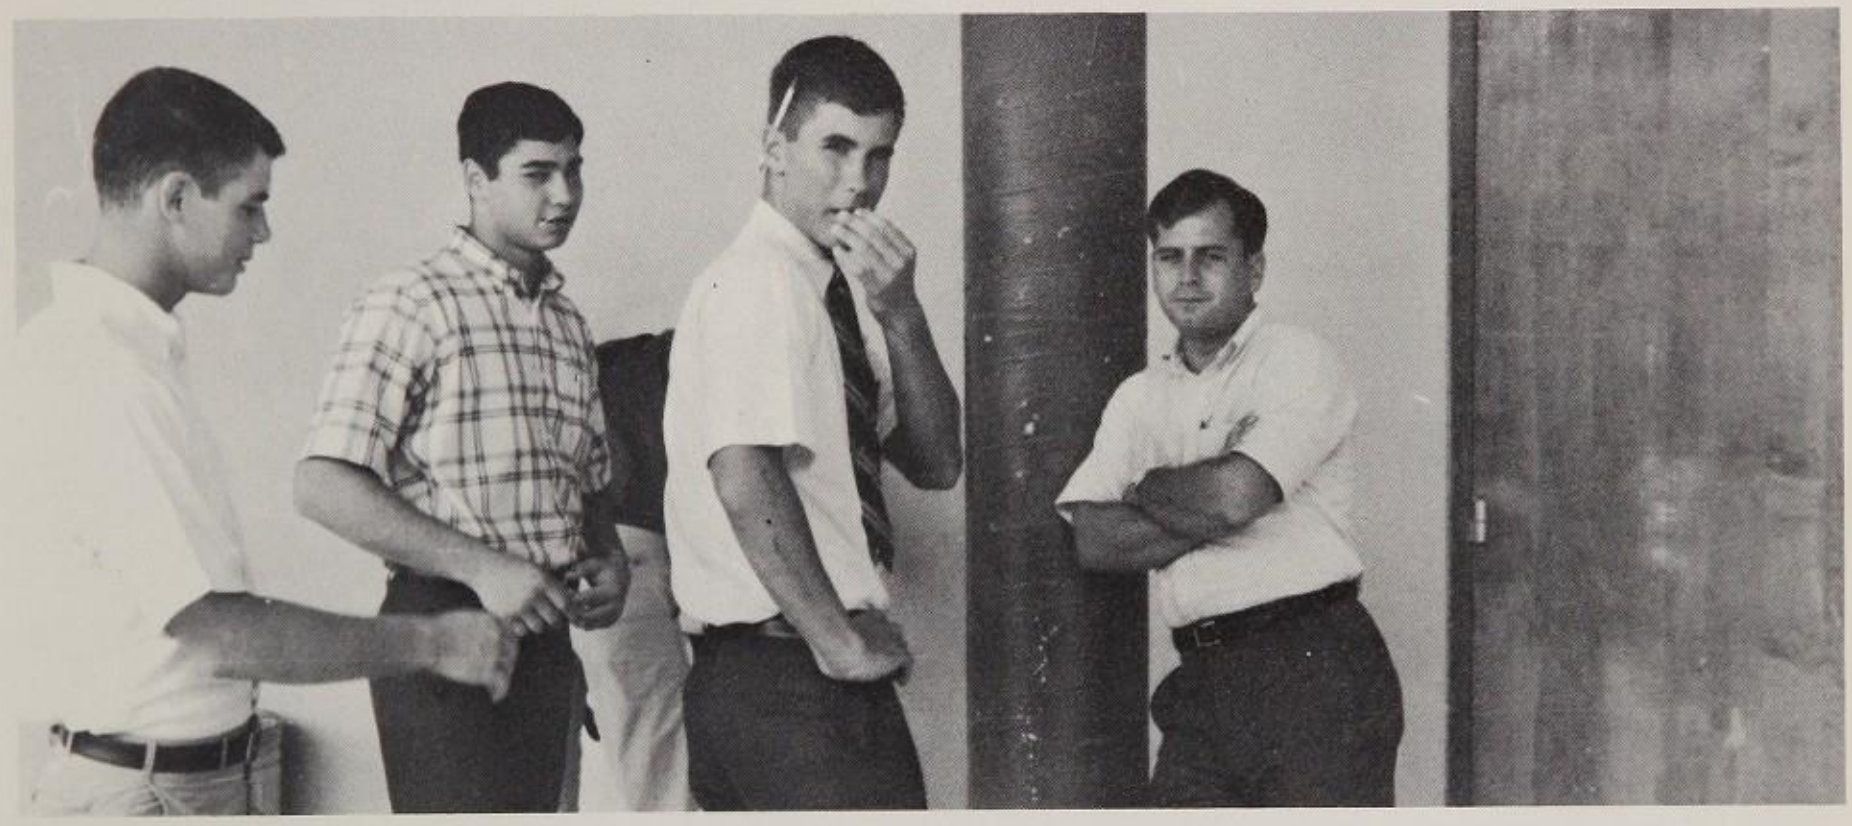
Mrs. Weintraub dramatized U. S. History.

Mr. Blinn contemplated a student's view of Social Studies.



Mr. Smith commanded his pupils' attention.

Relaxation was enjoyed by Mrs. Galton.



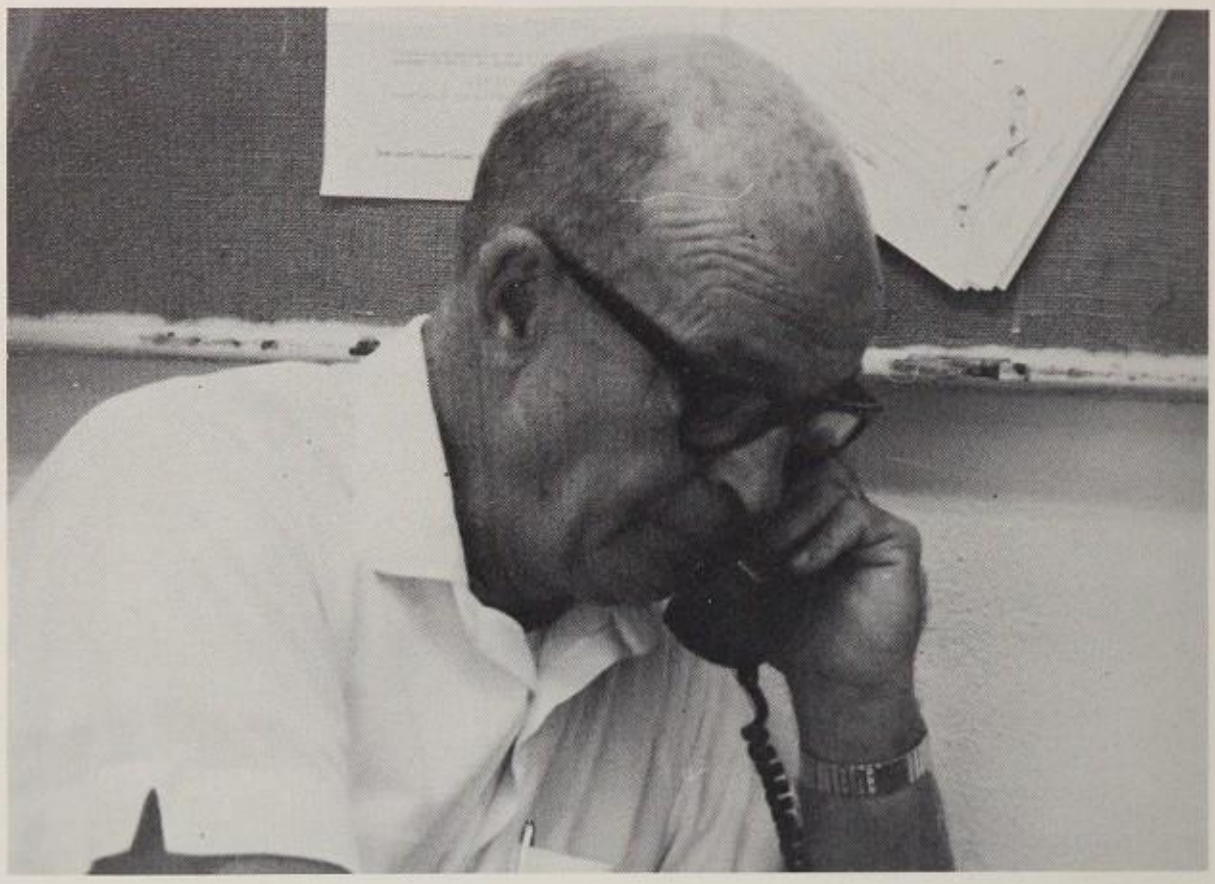
Mr. Mullens and students gave our cameraman apprehensive looks.

Teachers had classes, too.

INCREASED LABS OFFERED IN PHYSICS

An energetic staff gave students a highly effective science program. Department head, Mr. Schmeisser, stressed that the learning of science is acquired through an extensive amount of outside reading. To further the interest in science, the Science Club, affiliated with the National Science Clubs of America, was started this year.

In addition to the regular courses offered in the department, Advanced Biology was offered for the first time to those who had completed Biology, Chemistry, and preferably Physics. By the end of the year, students had furthered their knowledge on a subject that knows no bounds.

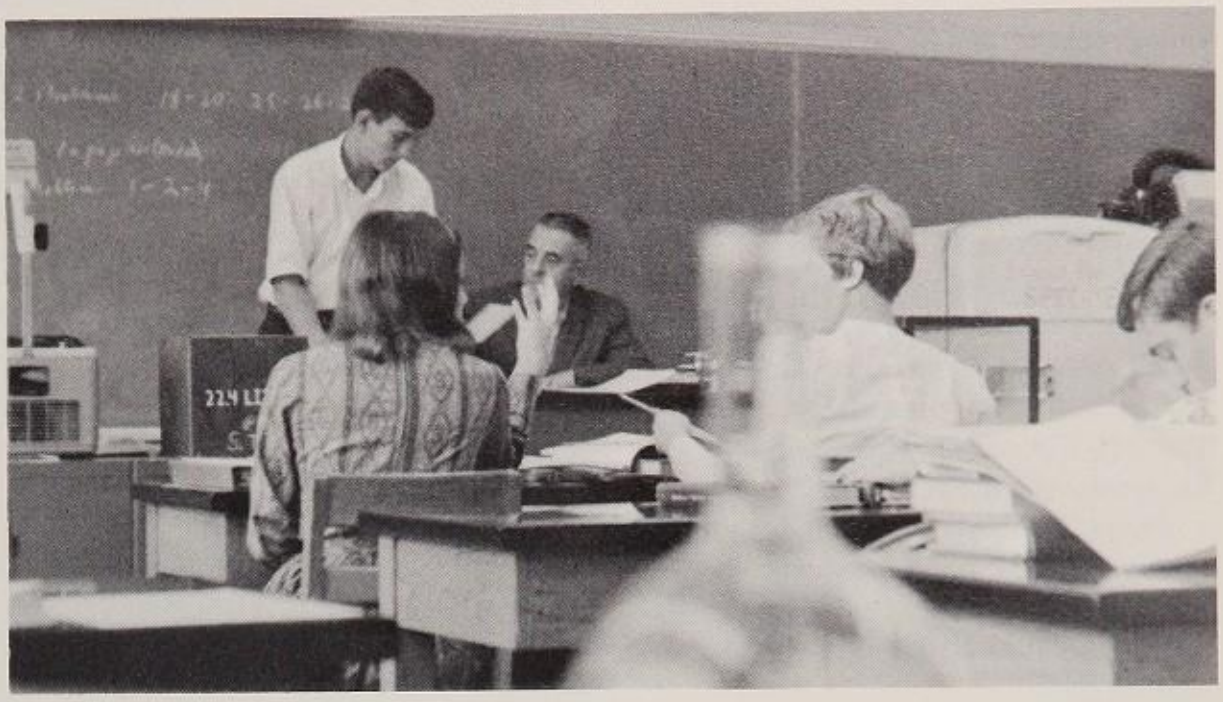


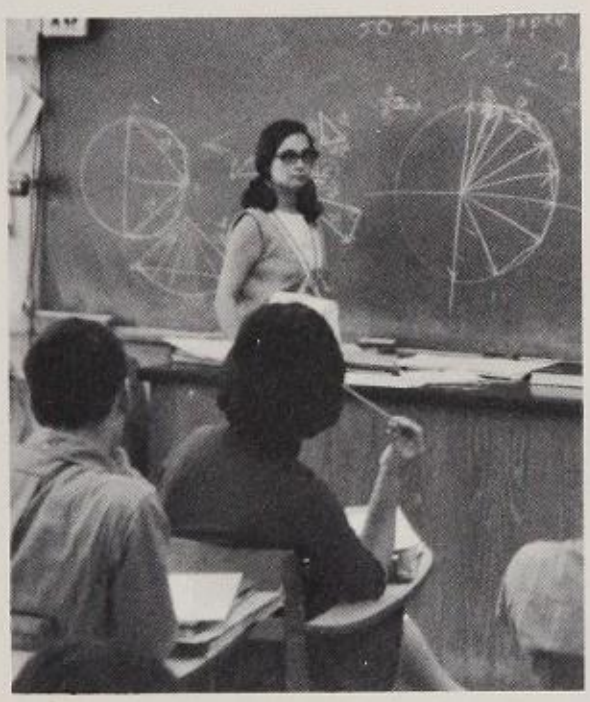
"Mr. Mac" calmed down an irate parent, or perhaps an irate student.

BSCS Biology students bring a smile to Mrs. Gunsallus' face. Was it an amusing question or answer?

Miss Wade was a welcome addition to the science staff at Southwest.

Chem-Study tests were perplexing to Mr. Barnes as well as students.





Mrs. Busby explained vector acceleration.

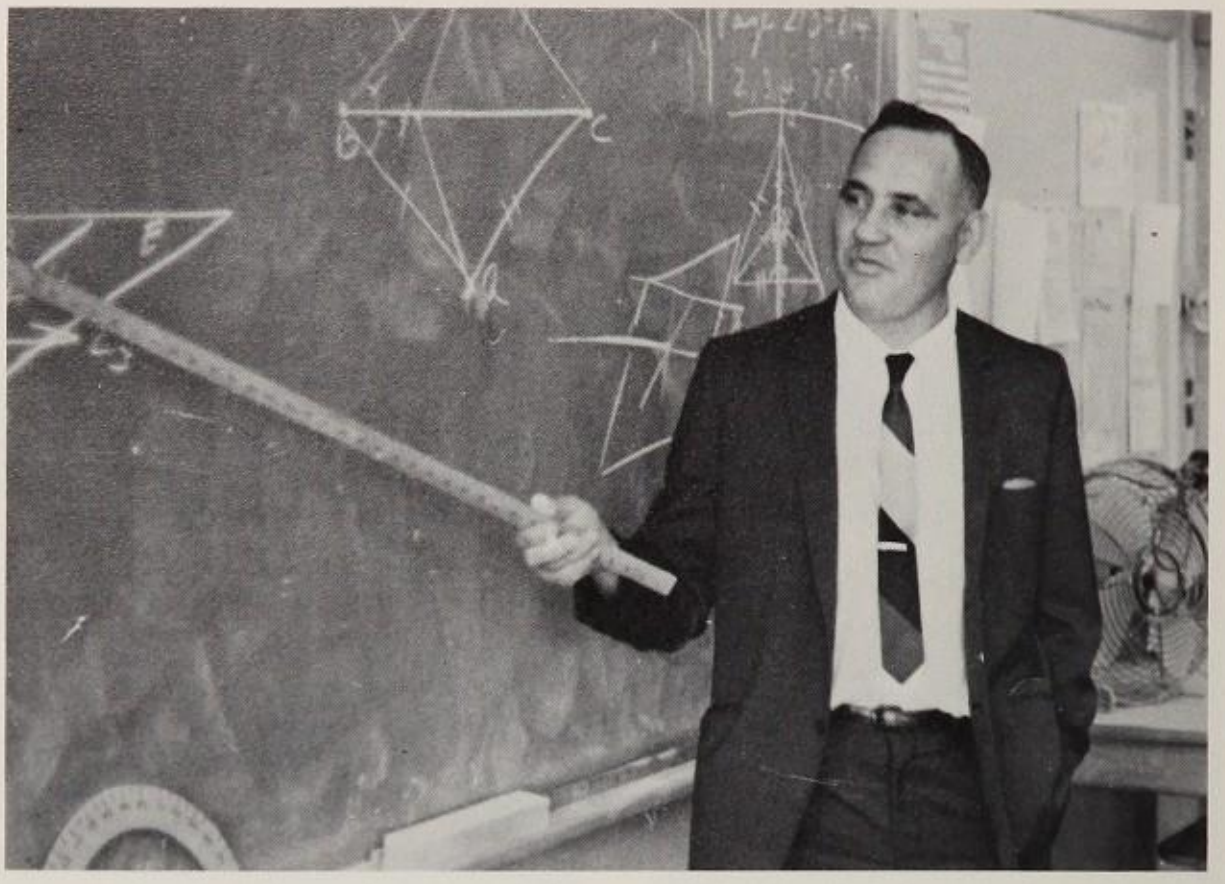
Colonel Barnes chaperoned a soc hop.

MATH STUDENTS SOUGHT ADVANCED PLACEMENT

The math program was designed to give students an understanding of the number system and an appreciation of clear, logical thinking. Through the direction of Mr. Donald Stark, the staff worked hard at this involved task. Subjects ranged from General Math and Algebra I to Math Five and Calculus.

The National Math Test, sponsored by The Society of Actuaries and The Math Association of America, was administered to interested students through the efforts of Mu Alpha Theta, Math Honor Society.

Those students wishing to obtain college credit for advanced classes, particularly Calculus, prepared for the Advanced Placement tests of the College Board.



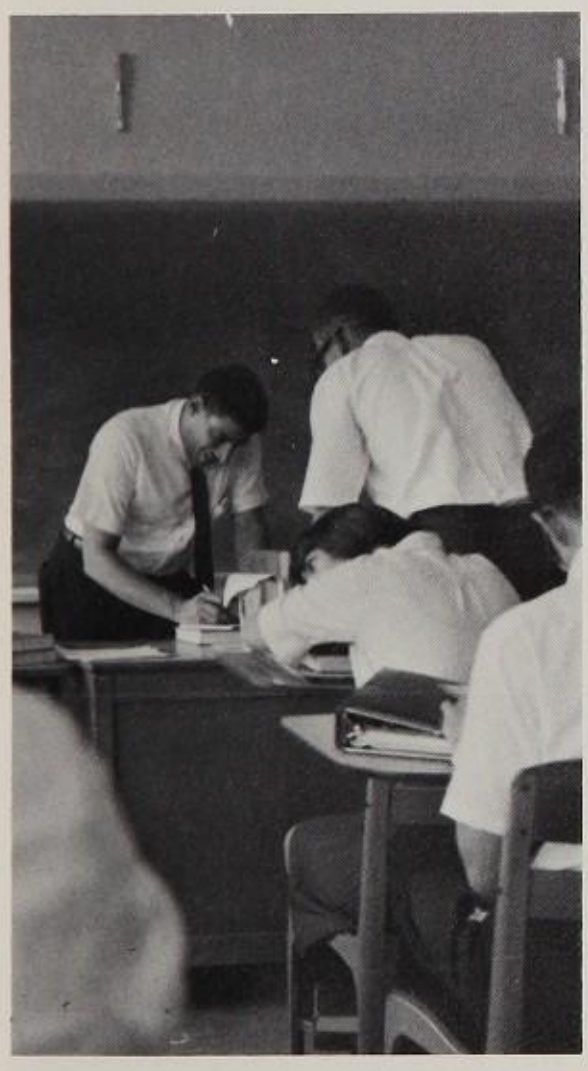
Demonstrations were important in math.

Mr. Hawley, an important part of the Math Department, enjoyed a light moment.

Mrs. Robertson demonstrated a difficult problem for her class.

Mrz. Gazzuolo gave the basics of Algebra.

Math was a very serious subject.



Mr. Stark headed the Math Department.

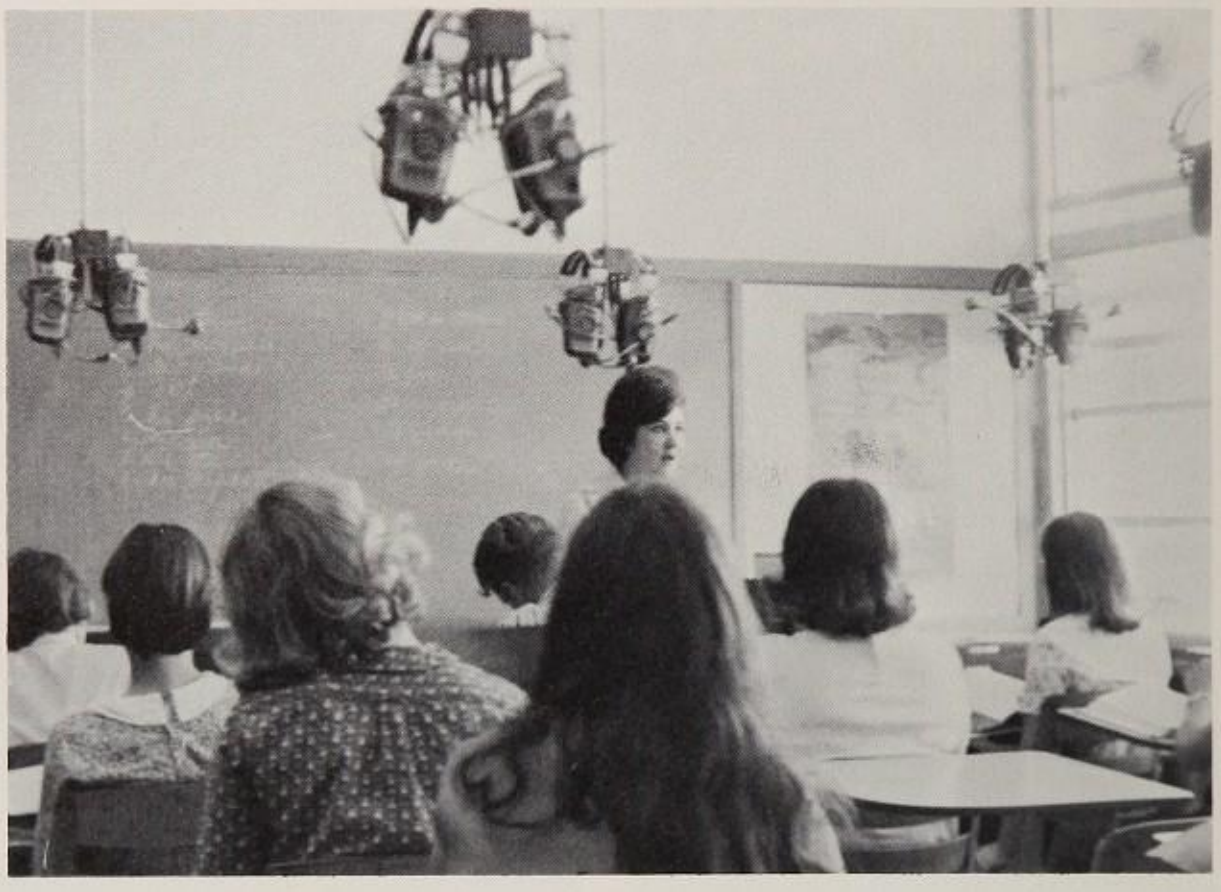
Miss Schaefer offered some visual demonstrations for her pupils.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT ADDED LABORATORY

Throughout the year, emphasis was placed on the importance of communicating in various languages. Department head, Mrs. Ramirez, stated that in such a small world one must be able to communicate and have an understanding of people and their cultures.

Staff members taught pupils to write, speak and understand German, French, and Spanish by the ALM method. In higher levels students studied foreign literature and cultures. A new language laboratory, which enabled teachers to listen and record as students recited, was added. During their studies, students learned the value of expressing themselves in a foreign language.

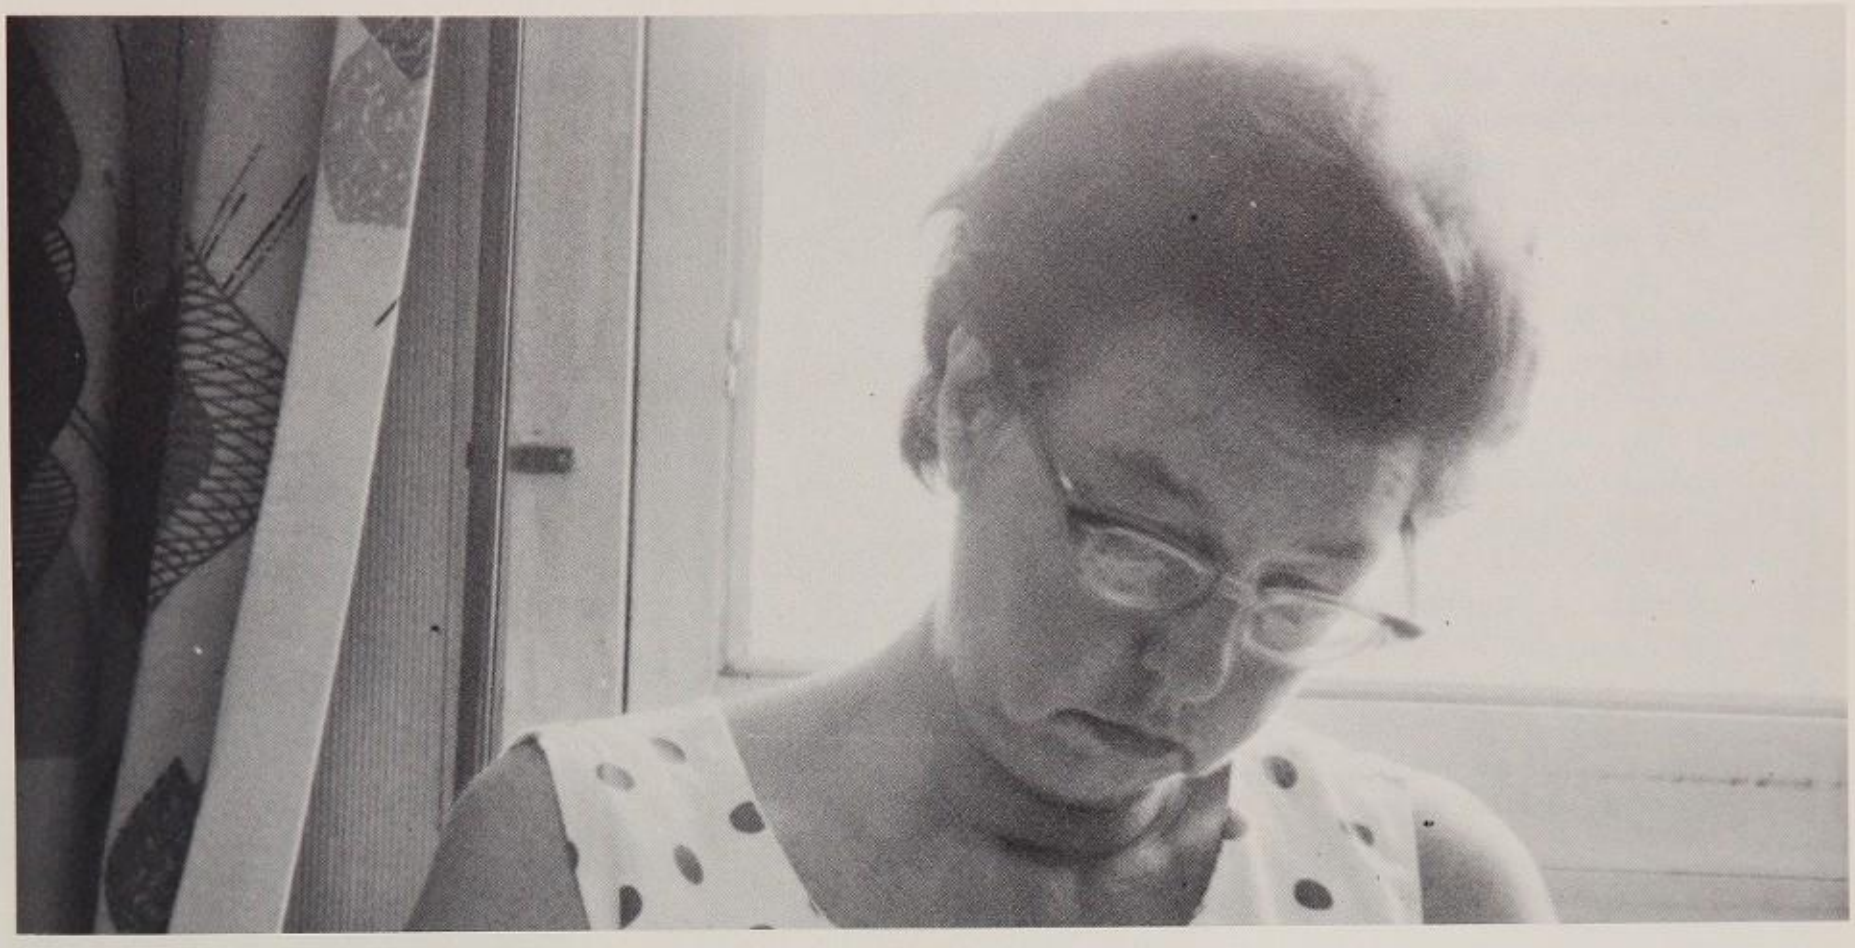
Spanish classes welcomed newly installed earphones as an aid to learning.



In addition to her other duties, Mrs. Ramirez directed traffic in the halls.

Miss Smith was a new instructor in the Language department.

Madame Jarry, who taught French, was resigned to grading the papers of her various students.



Miss Hornbake reviewed future lessons.

Mrs. Alexander got a head start with students' Latin translations.

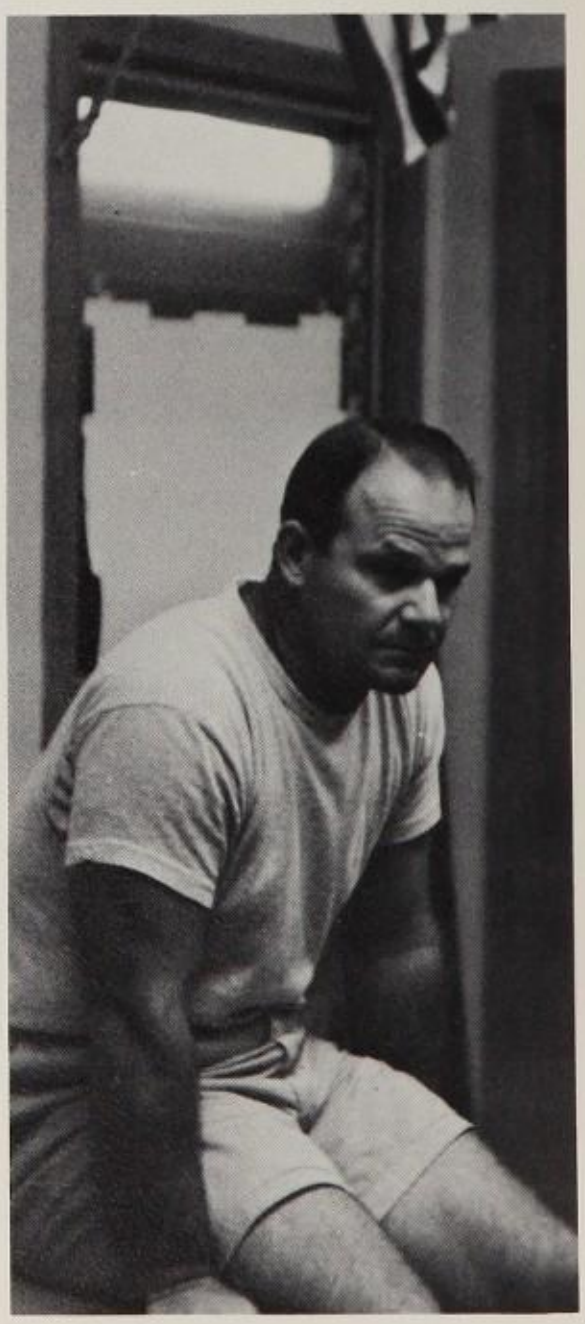
INTRAMURALS FEATURED IN NEWS LETTER

Tennis, baseball, volleyball, football, golf and archery—all were sports that students were instructed in and participated in throughout the year. Through a joint effort both the boys and girls physical education department offered the co-ed program to students. Martin Levin, department head, stated that the goal of the physical education program was to keep students physically fit and emphasize those activities which will carry over into later life.

The intramural program at Southwest was sponsored by the athletic department. Because of its qualities it was featured in an International News Letter as a good example of the operation of such activities.

Miss Lee enjoyed the antics of her class.

Coach Levin encouraged student spirit.



Our roving photographer caught Coach Mallios in a pensive mood.

Coach Lepore directed boys' sports.

Miss Bassett and Mrs. Kynn were as busy on their way to class as they were in their classes.

CERTIFICATES AWARDED TO ABLE STUDENTS

Students wishing for preparation in office work had an ideal opportunity under the program at Southwest. Through courses offered in Business Education, students were able to learn the basic fundamentals of filing, typing and salesmanship. Secretarial and clerical jobs were made possible through the efficient training given interested students. College-bound students also benefited from classes such as personal typing and shorthand.

Awards were presented to students who excelled in various subjects. Certificates of credit and proficiency were given in shorthand, typewriting, and bookkeeping. Through the efforts of Mrs. Eleanor Jack, department head, and her staff, students were provided with the best possible training.

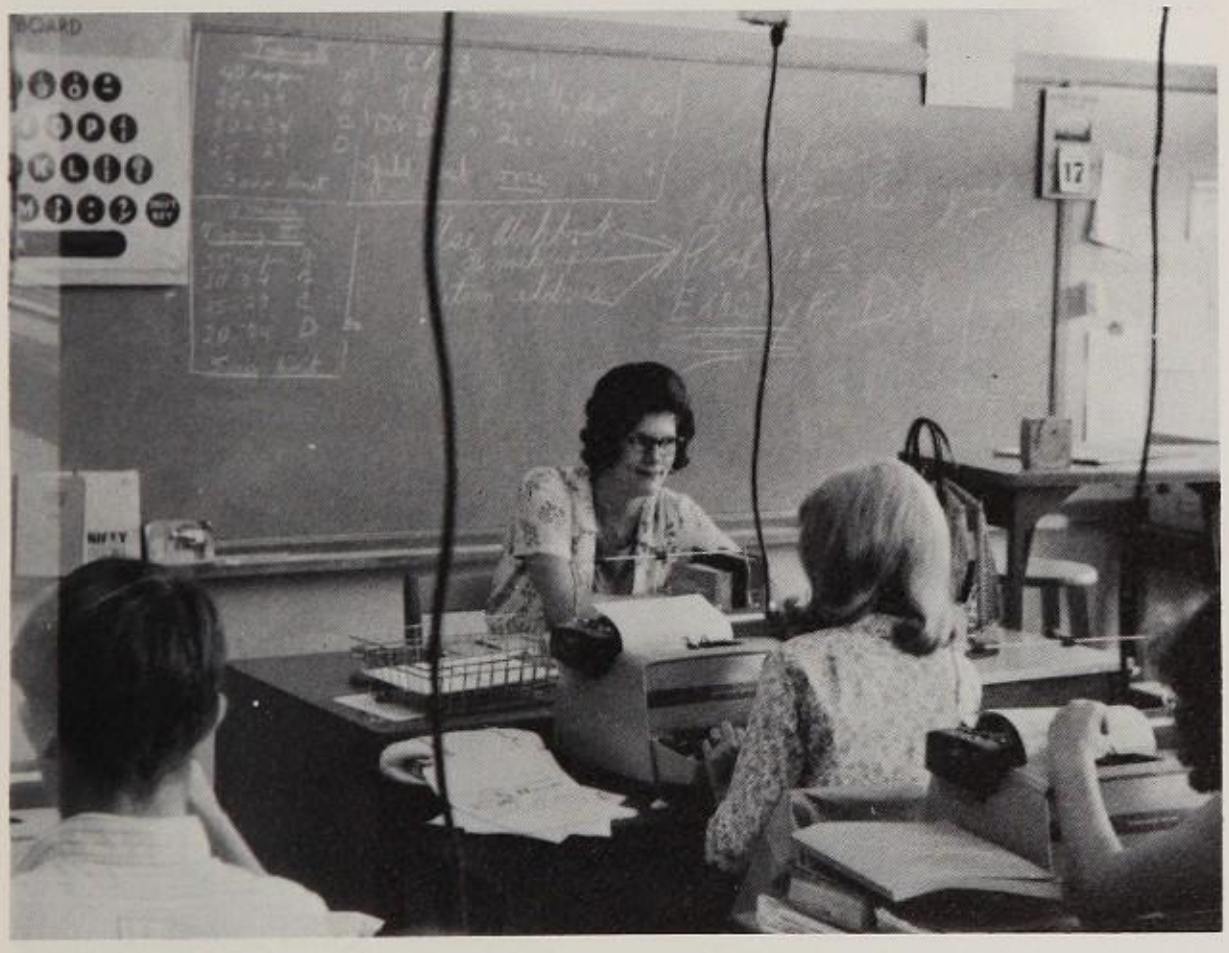
Mrs. Jack was a favorite among her students.

Mr. De Brei outlined the year's subject matter for his new students.

Mrs. Ross added humor to her classes.

Shorthand was difficult and time-consuming, but fun, with Mrs. Hanson.

Mr. Cohen found a little corner of quiet.



Miss Adair showed her interest in the progress of the class.

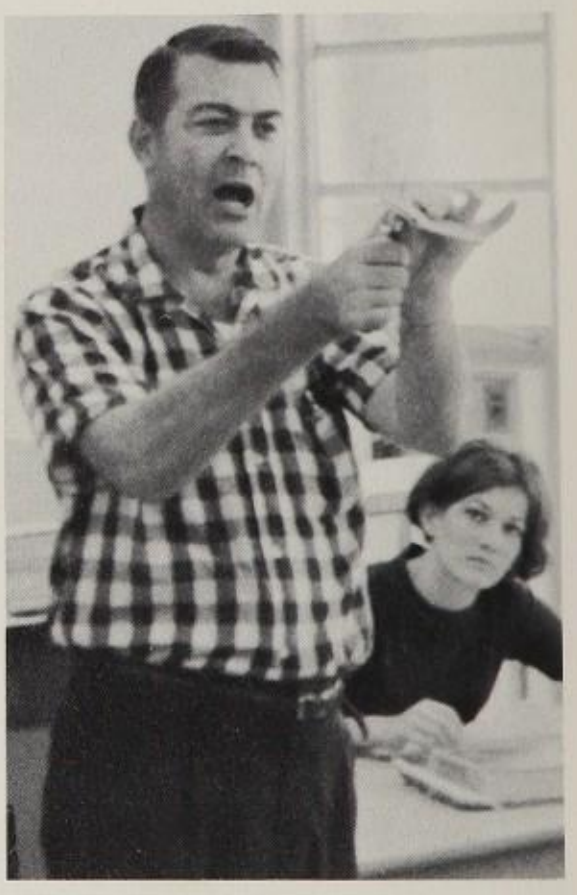
ART TAUGHT EXPRESSION

Students learned to express themselves and project their personalities into their works of art. Mr. Crawford and Miss Violette, department head, taught Art Studio 1 through 5. A variety of crafts ranging from painting and sculpture to sketching and lettering were practiced by students.

Art 1 classes studied lettering, color, and basic form. The advanced art classes worked on composition, color, and line and eventually painted in oils.

The advanced art students did their share of service for Southwest. Each student was required to design posters for Back-to-School Night and to construct a bulletin board for at least one of his teachers.

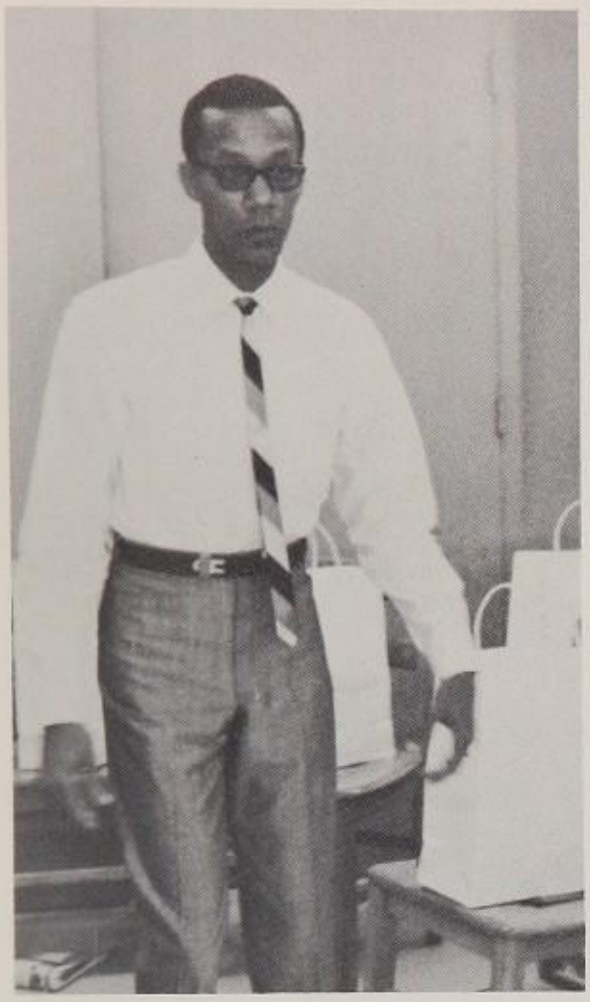
Miss Violette was her students' critic.



These were the artistic antics carried on in Mr. Crawford's art class.

Is this the promising artwork of tomorrow's genius?

Bags were prepared by Mr. Johnson, chorus director, for the candy sale.



TRI-M HONORED MUSICIANS

Music played a major part in school life as over 600 students participated in various activities. Girls' chorus, boys' chorus, advanced mixed chorus, band, and orchestra were just a few examples. Music Theory I through III were college courses offered only at Southwest.

Under the direction of Mr. Philip Fink, department head, the music department produced many outstanding musicians. The band was commended for its variety and showmanship. Band director was Mr. Melvin Baker. Mr. Fink once again directed a superior orchestra. Mr. William Johnson, choral director, had a fine year with the many outstanding performances by the choruses. All three of these groups performed together in various assemblies and concerts throughout the year.

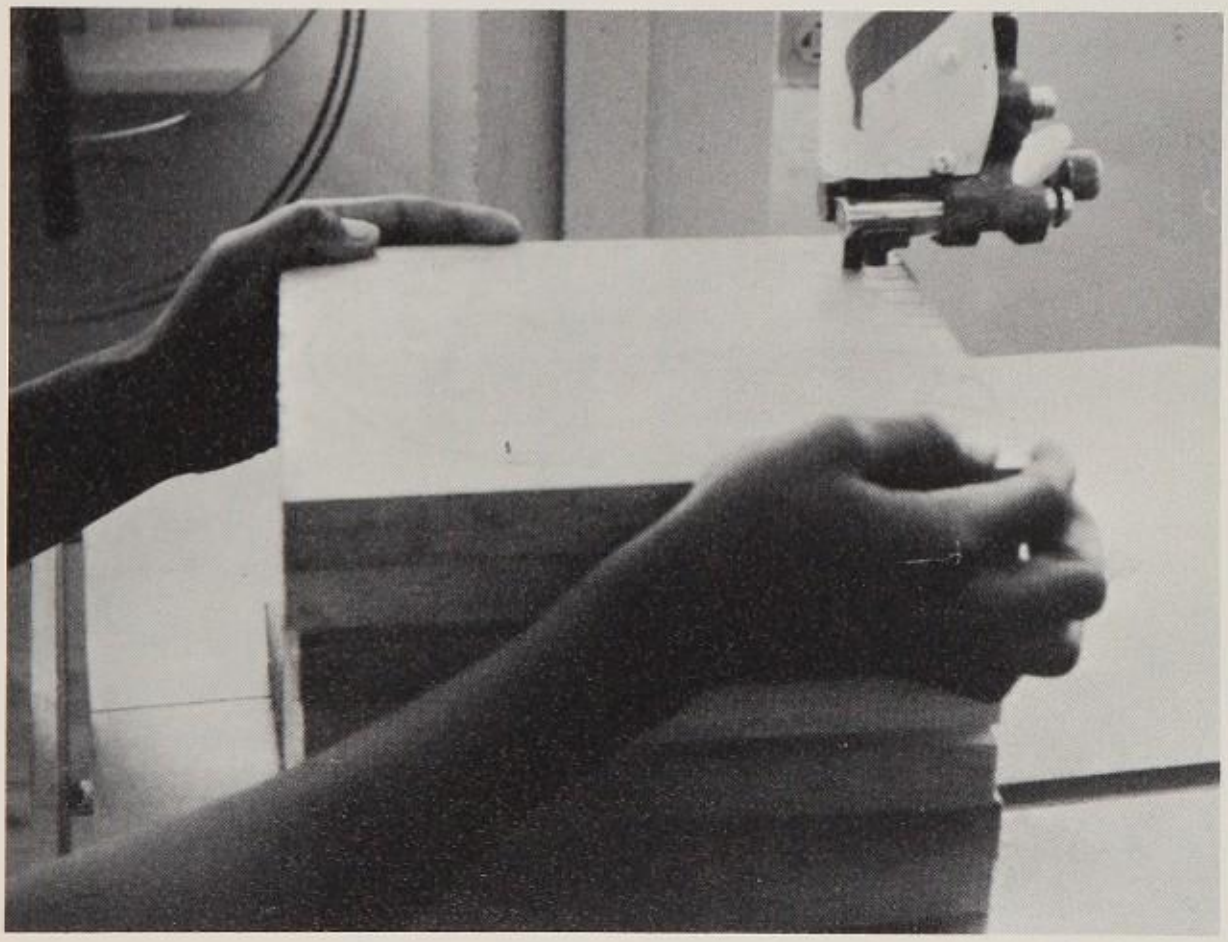
Mr. Baker directed the band at a pep rally.

Mr. Fink seriously talked to his award-winning orchestra.

JOBS OPENED TO INDUSTRIAL STUDENTS

Students with an interest in individual vocations were given an opportunity to explore and develop skills which would prepare them for employment upon completion of high school. Southwest's Industrial Arts program, under the direction of Mr. William Veber, Mr. Robert Campbell, and Mr. William Suter, provided students with materials and equipment comparable to their particular field.

Use of the lathe was mastered in woodshop.



Projects were made by all the students in woodshop.

The students were taught graphics by Mr. Suter.

STUDENTS ATTAINED GOALS IN EDUCATION

Handicapped students at Southwest found few limitations to the activities they could participate in. Through the efforts of the Special Education Department, these individuals joined several organizations and attended many classes with their fellow students. Mrs. Mildred Yeagle and Mr. Robert Lightcap taught students to develop individual skills and talents.

Lip reading and speech were taught to those who were deaf or hard of hearing, while blind students benefited from Braille books and tape recordings. Special equipment made it possible for these students to attain the goals of education, through classes begun in Dade County in 1946.

Special education students used many specially designed facilities.

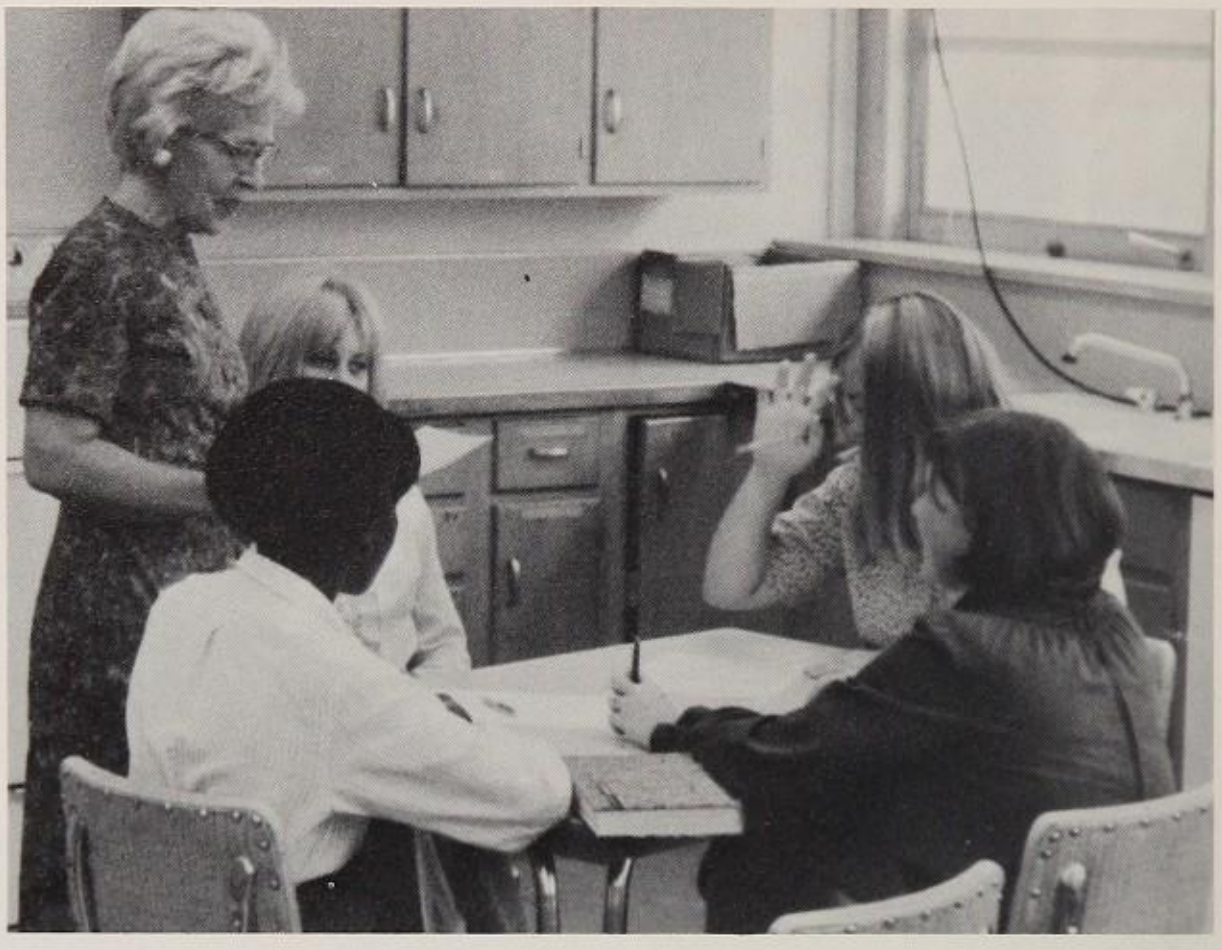
Mr. Lightcap was very dedicated in his work.

Mrs. Yeagle puzzled over a problem.

CO-EDS STUDIED HOME EC.

Students who completed Home Economics I by their sophomore year had the opportunity to pursue a variety of subjects. Besides Home Economics I, courses such as Food and Nutrition, Clothing and Textiles, Housing and Home Management, Health and Home Safety, and Child Development were offered to those girls who showed interest.

Through the direction of the teachers, the students discovered homemaking was not as easy as they had expected, but enjoyed experimenting in cooking and sewing. Modern Family Living was made available to seniors only. It was the only co-ed course offered by the Home Economics Department. The basic fundamentals of home economics were taught to students and, most important of all, was the valuable experience gained.



Mrs. Bootes' students took careful notes.

Home economics students discussed the basic facts of nutrition.

Sewing students anticipated a perfect fit.

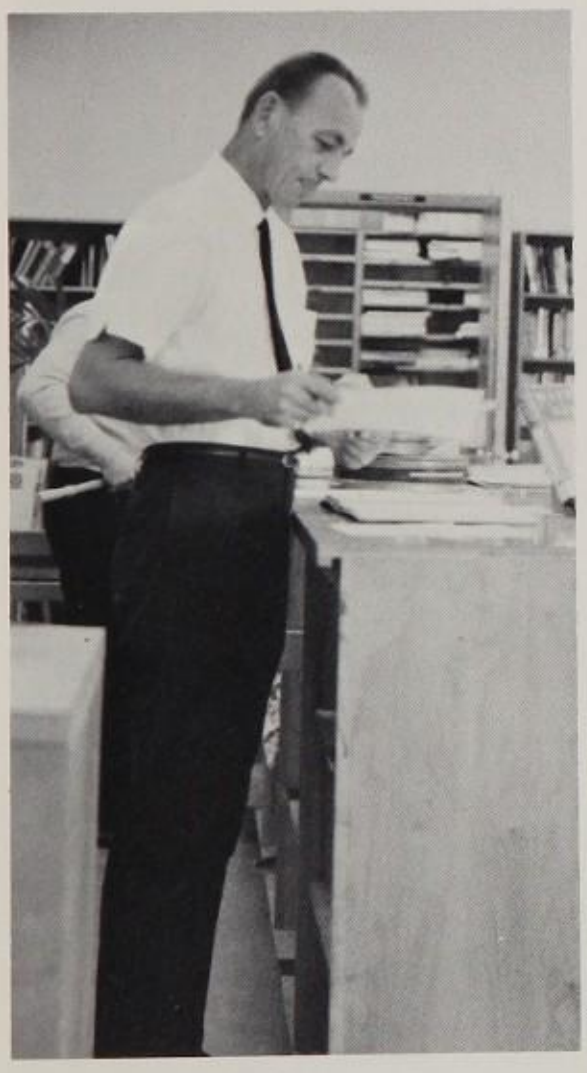
LIBRARY PROVIDED MANY OPPORTUNITIES

With a collection of over 20,000 books and 80 magazines, maps, and pamphlets, four librarians and two clerks kept the library open from 7:15 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Audio-visual materials and reference sources provided students with an excellent opportunity to study, do research, or just read for enjoyment. New books were constantly purchased for the benefit of the student body. All requests by both faculty and students were honored.

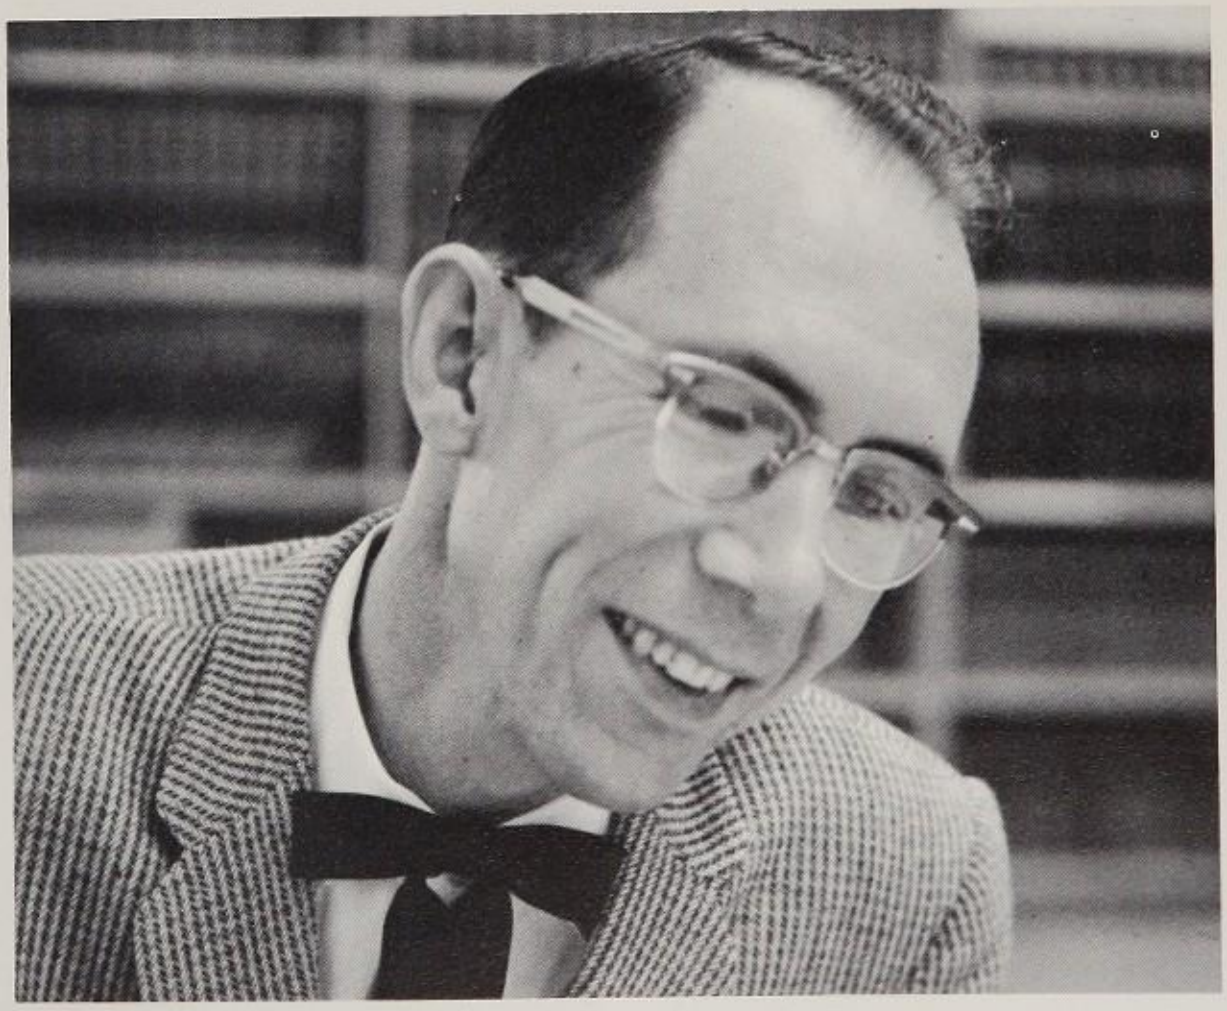
Two courses were given for one-half credit each: Library Science I and Library Science II. Student librarians learned library routines and pocedures while they assisted librarians.

During Book Week the library displayed the theme of "Book Please" throughout the week. The library provided ample place for learning.

Librarians were always there to offer help.



This librarian did some work of his own.



Mr. Price, department head, was always busy in the library with many duties.

STATE EXAM WAS THE GOAL

Cosmetology was a two year course that required study and hard work. Three hours a day were devoted to cosmetology and those hours missed had to be made up. The girls had to attend six weeks of training during the summer. They also studied anatomy, physiology and chemistry.

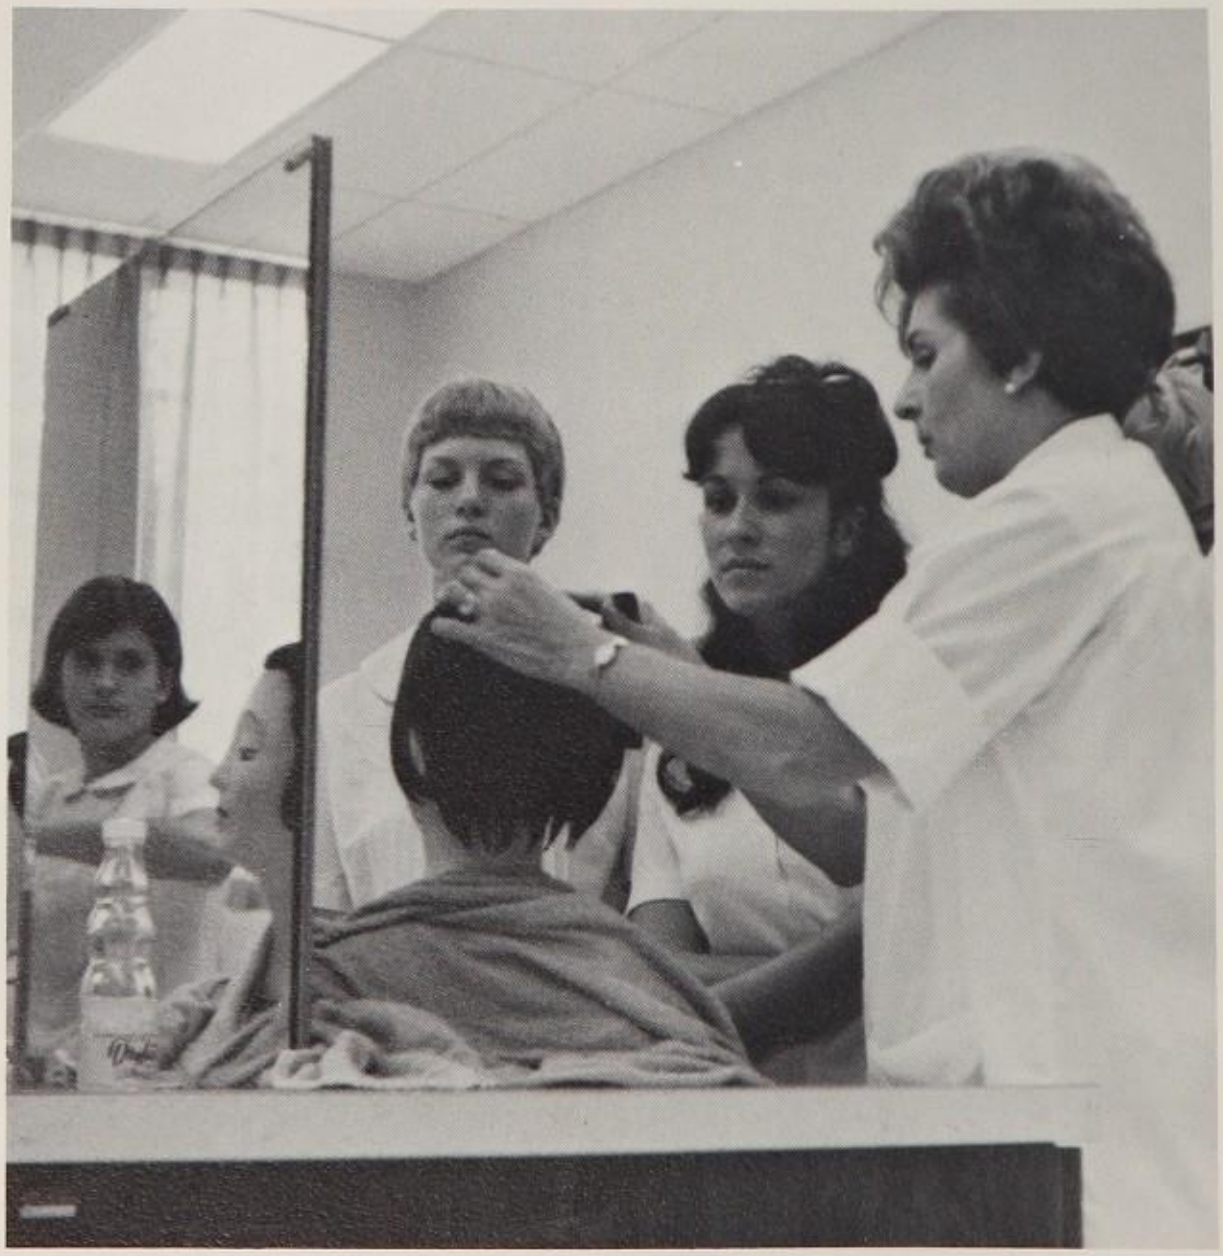
The beauty salon provided the girls with their best experiences in all phases of cosmetology. They learned hair coloring, permanent waving, and hair straightening. A great deal of work was done with wigs and hair pieces.

Mrs. Krizbacker, the cosmetology teacher, stated that, "Our goal is to make every girl that has completed this course pass the State Board exam and to be employable."

Mr. May was caught in a feminine world.

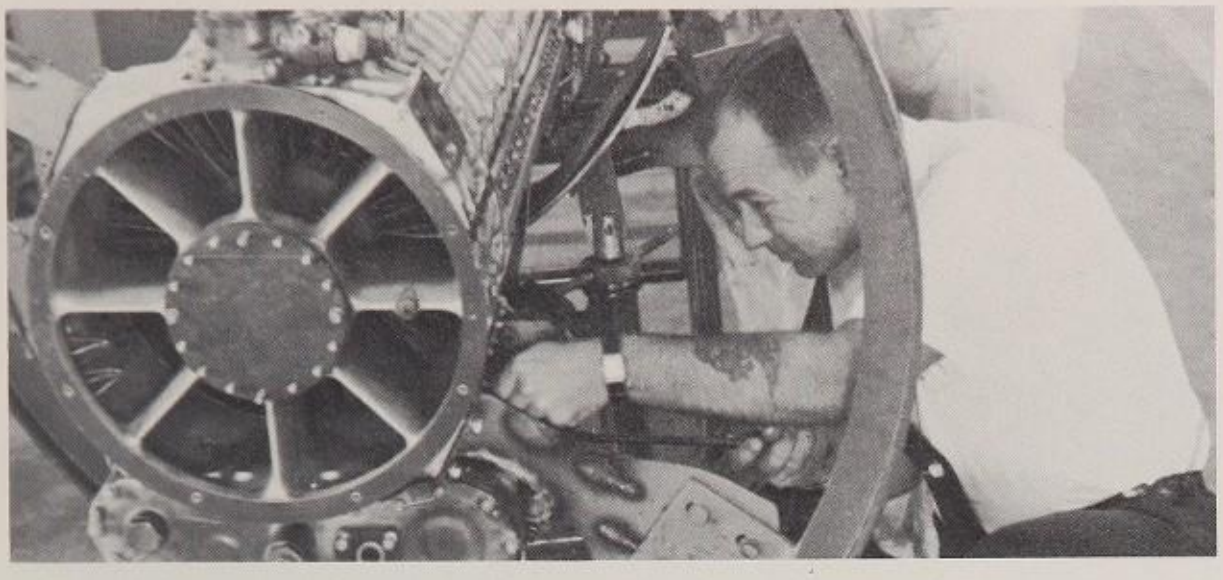
Concentration was an essential quality.

The work was serious business for these two.



Mrs. Krizbacker was the instructor.

WELDING ADDED TO AVIATION COURSE



Electronics, a field that offered endless opportunity as a mechanical skill, was instructed by Mr. William Nelson. After training, students could obtain jobs as technicians and engineering aides.

A similar program prepared graduates of the three-year aviation course for obtaining licenses through the Federal Aviation Agency. Students learned to repair all makes of airplanes from jets to propeller-driven planes and a new two-year course in welding was offered.

Instruction was given on the repair of engines.

Welding was only a part of repairing the airplanes.

Electronics involved the study of elementary electricity.

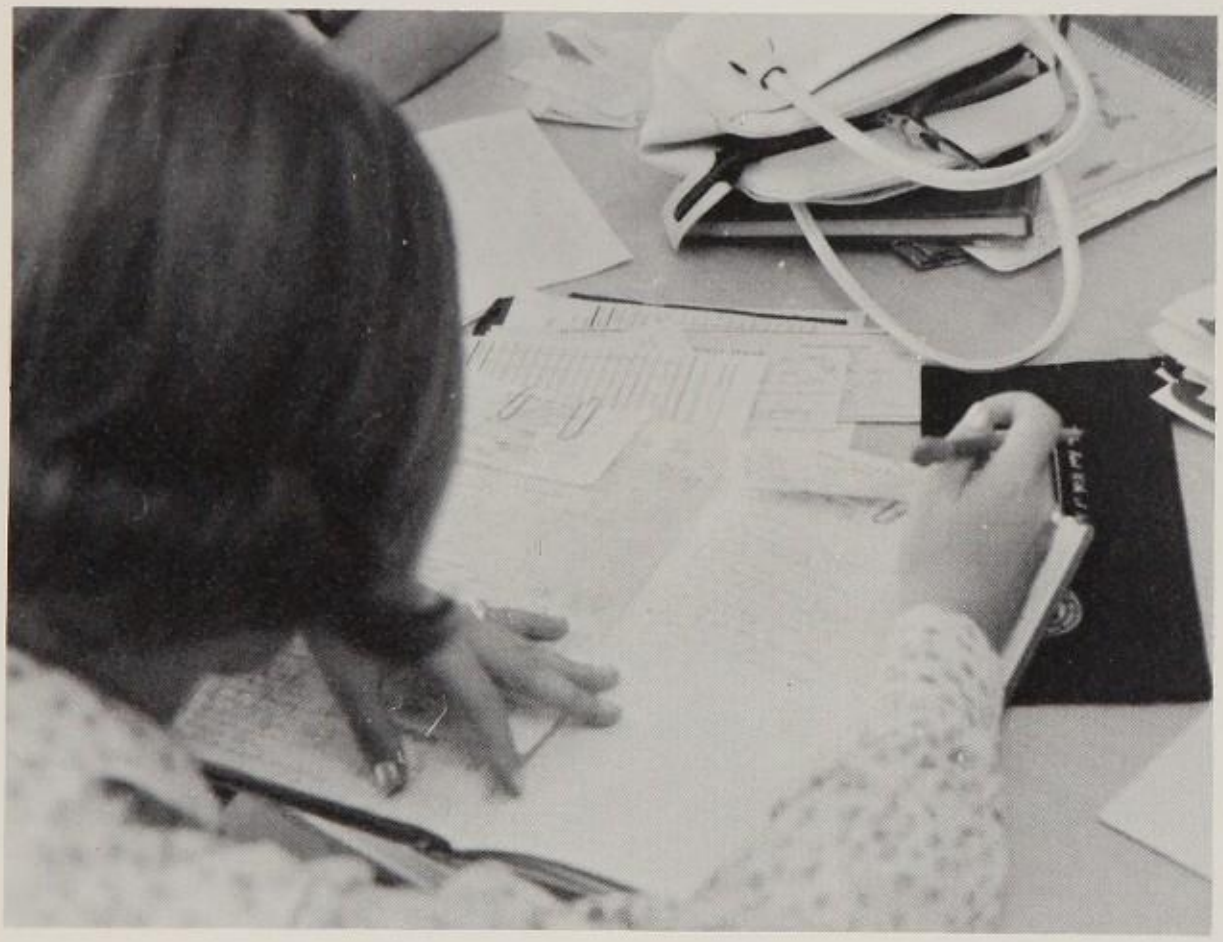
D.E. PROVIDED PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

Students in the Distibutive Education program received both practical instruction and job training under the watchful eye of Mr. Frank George.

Supplementing the morning classes was the actual experience students gained by holding jobs in the community during the afternoons.

Participants discovered that the experience would be of increasing value in attaining and maintaining future jobs.

D.E. was a member of a national organization.



Record keeping was important to students planning for future jobs.

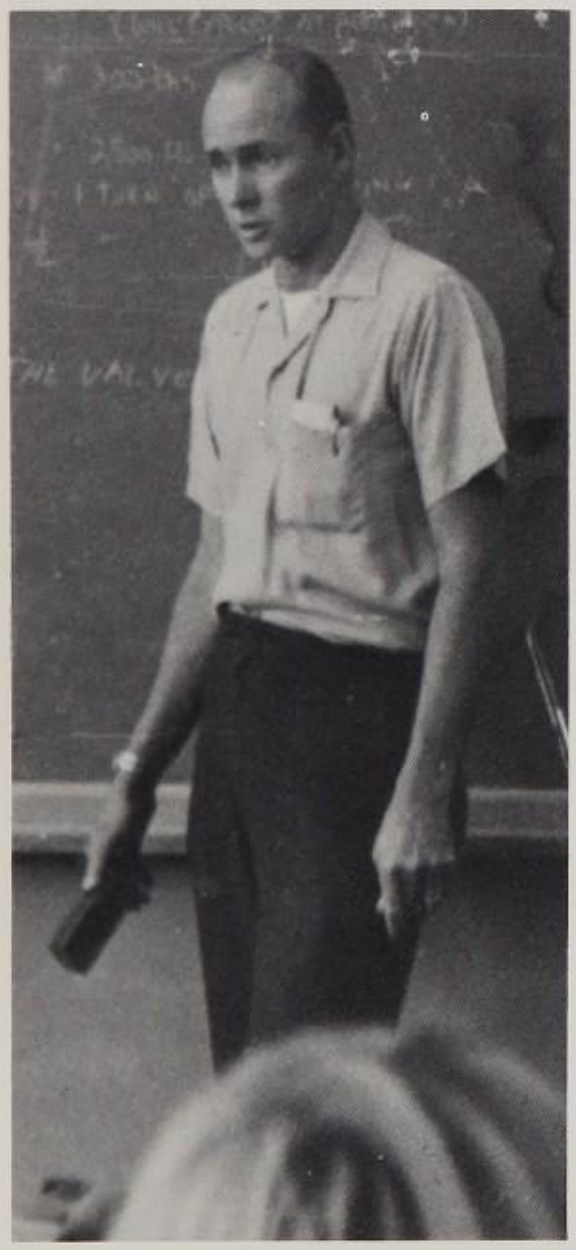
Mr. George was the instructor for Distributive Education.

NEW EQUIPMENT AIDED AUTO MECHANICS

The automotive mechanics class was equipped with the latest equipment. Teaching a top scholastic class in the three hour block were Mr. John Sojat and Mr. Floyd Holcomb. Besides having the opportunity to obtain jobs, many of the students planned to enter college for future training.

Students of Diversified Mechanics learned their trade by repairing items that ranged from typewriters to bicycles. Both of these courses offered industrious students an opportunity to develop necessary skills.

Repairing typewriters required concentration.



Mr. Kallaher taught diversified mechanics.

Automotive mechanics taught students a worthwhile skill.

S.W. NOMINATED FOR MIAMI HERALD KNIGHTS

Students who have excelled in various subjects throughout high school were eligible to represent Southwest as Silver Knight Nominees. In each of the fourteen categories a student was chosen by the faculty to be a candidate for the Dade County Award.

Each one was judged on his achievement and contributions. His leadership ability and character were taken into consideration. Above all, the Silver Knight Nominee's service to Southwest, as well as the community, was a significant factor in judging the candidates. The County-wide Silver Knights were chosen in May after an interview and competition against candidates from other schools.

S.W. N.H.S. SERVED AS DISTRICT V.P.

Southwest's chapter of National Honor Society served as district Vice-President. Under the leadership of Zavie Newmark, President, and Giudi Weiss, Vice-President, the society was responsible for arranging transportation to the state convention.

Students with a 3.8 scholastic average and outstanding service, leadership, and character were honored by inductions in October and March. Their talents were offered through tutoring services.

The other officers, Secretary Ann Pottenger and Treasurer Diana Van Wyck, led members in building a homecoming float and selling personalized stationary to raise money and promote spirit.

The Spanish, Latin, and National Honor Societies held a New Year's party to welcome 1967. In the second semester, Mrs. Barbara Kolosna succeeded Mr. Edward Garvin as sponsor.

Honor society members enjoyed each other's company and conversation at the party.

ELLOS NO HABLAN INGLES-ALGUNAS VECES

The Spanish Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Mary Hornbake, promoted a continuity of interest in the Hispanic studies as it recognized high achievement in Spanish. The induction of members was held in October in the Little Theatre. The entire program was conducted in Spanish. In December, a special Spanish movie, La Violetera, was shown. President Susan Losey, Vice-President, Wayne Brewer, Recording Secretary, Patty Kaczaraba, Corresponding Secretary, Kathy Eckert, and Treasurer, Helen Minas Coordiated the activities and business of the organizations.

A float, portraying a bull, was the Honor Society's entry in the Homecoming Parade in November. Also a joint Christmas Party was held with the National and the Latin Honor Societies. The finale was the Annual Spanish Honor Banquet in May.

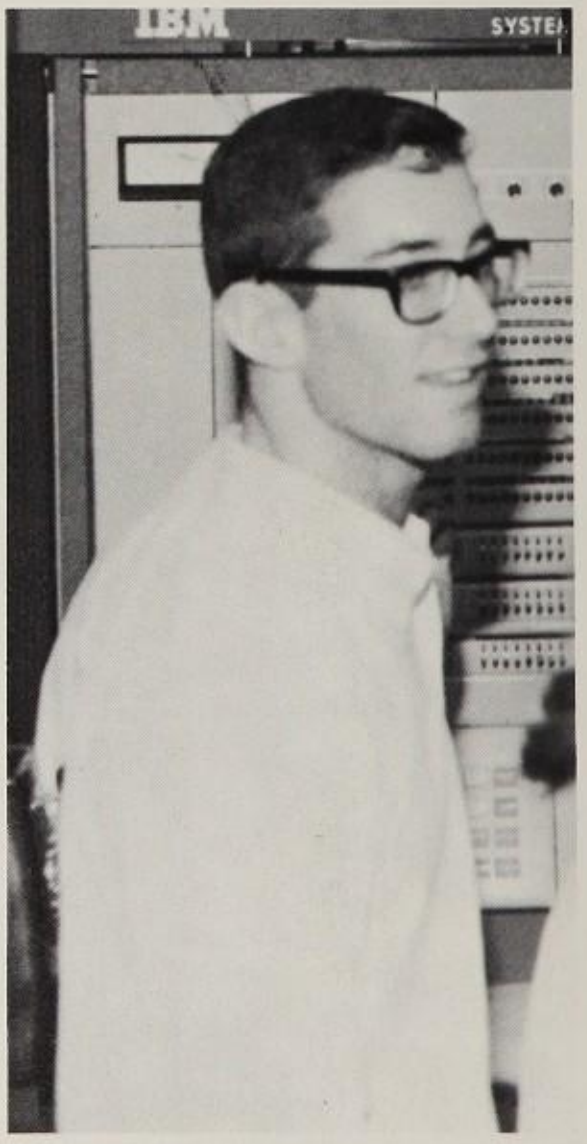
Math Honor President Jeff LaRochelle helped with tutoring students.

The Math Honor Society, under the leadership of President Jeff LaRochelle, recognized outstanding students with a 4.0 average in Math and a 3.0 overall average for two semesters. Honor Society members, through their tutoring service, served Southwest students. Besides the aid of their tutoring service, the Math Honor Society, sponsored by Mr. Donald Stark, supervised the National Math contest in March. Other officers were: Bob Hauser, vice-president; Barbara Cox, recording secretary; Sharon Gibbs, corresponding secretary; Carl Passoff, Treasurer.

A trip to the IBM plant in Miami was taken in January. The fascinating world of computers was explored by demonstration and a tour of facilities. This trip and another to the Federal Aviation Center were sponsored jointly with the Junior Engineering and Technical Society.



Carl Passoff found himself fascinated by computer complexity.

Members listened as a guest lectured.

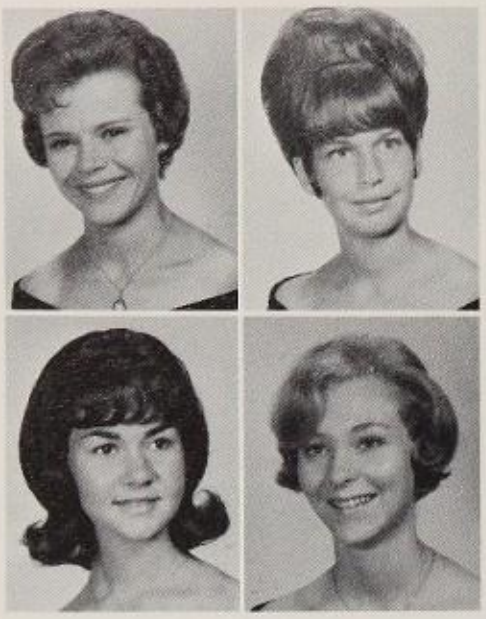
'RANA SUPERBA' REPRESENTED LATIN HONOR

Mary Lynn Hendrickson, President
Brenda Blumin, Vice-President

Ann Pottenger, Secretary
Welyne Morton, Treasurer



All of the Latin students were familiar with Rana Superba, the haughty Roman frog, who adorned the Latin Honor Society Homecoming Float. Students with an A average in Latin for at least three consecutive semesters were eligible for membership in the Latin Honor Society. Students meeting the requirements were inducted in November and again in the second semester.

Under the leadership of President Mary Lynn Hendrickson, Vice-President Brenda Blumin, Secretary Ann Pottenger, Treasurer Welyne Morton and Sponsor Mrs. Virginia Alexander, the Latin Honor Society promoted an interest in Latin and compared our modern day culture to that of ancient Rome.

Officers gathered to discuss future plans of the Latin Honor Society.

TRI-M HONORED S.W.'S OUTSTANDING MUSICIANS

In the various fields of music there were many talented students at Southwest. These students were recognized by the Modern Music Masters. To become a member of Tri-M a student had to have an A average in Music and an overall B average. The musicians had to pass the National Tri M exam and play or sing a solo. Officers were President Rosary Zocco, Vice-President Pat Lane, Secretary Rosemarie Schroeder, Treasurer Kathy Lubeck, and Historian Sheila Hinman. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fink, Mrs. Del Barret, Mr. Melvin Baker, and Mr. William Johnson.

In accordance with the clean-up campaign, Tri-M members worked to clean up the band room. convention of the local Tri-M societies was held in February at Hialeah High School.

Practice paid off for orchestra members—who were well represented in Tri-M.

QUILL AND SCROLL AWARDED SCHOLARSHIPS

Quill & Scroll members gathered for research on past school publications.

In the field of Journalism, many students showed outstanding ability while working on various school publications. Quill and Scroll, sponsored by Mrs. Mabel Staats, recognized these high school journalists and their work on the Lancer, the Aquila, and the Shining Wings Anthology.

Fourteen members were inducted in February with three semesters of outstanding work in Journalism. Several members attended Columbia Scholastic Press Association convention in New York City. Four issues of the National Quill and Scroll magazine kept members informed on projects throughout the year.

CREATIVITY WAS ART HONOR'S KEY ATTRIBUTE

Long hours were involved in creating Art Honor Christmas Cards.

Working in cooperation with the Drama department, members of the Art Honor Society constructed the scenery for the annual Eagles Fling, Sabrina Fair, and The Sound of Music. One of their most significant contributions to Southwest was the task of beautifying and landscaping the patio outside the cafeteria. Students used their creativity to design Christmas cards which were sold to the student body.

Led by President Ellen Kruger and sponsored by Mr. Carl Crawford, the Art Honor Society held inductions of students with an A average in Art.

MICKEY ROSS KEPT CAMPAIGN PLEDGES

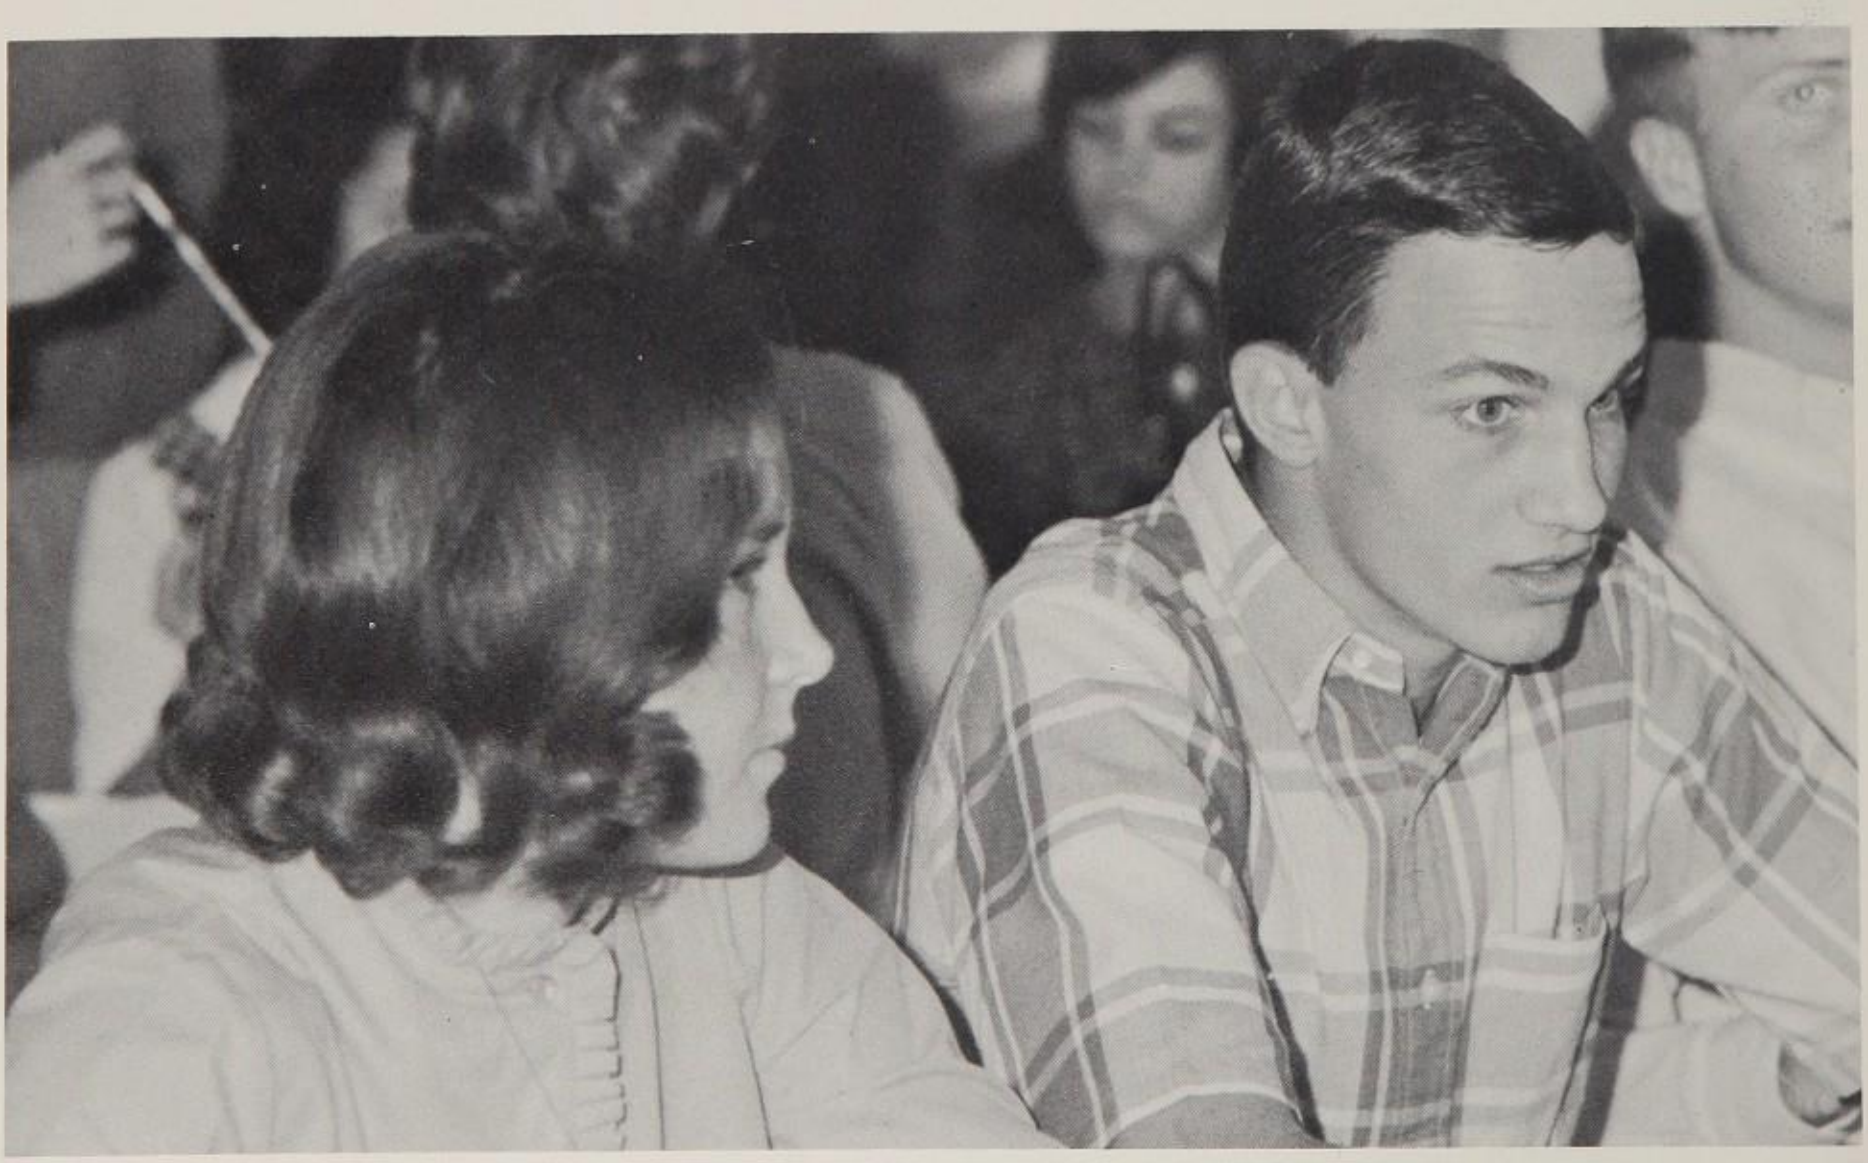
The Student Council worked to provide the student body with a voice in school policies. Headed by President Mickey Ross, Vice-President Mary Lynn Hendrickson, Secretary Marcia Hendrickson, and Treasurer Judy McClanahan, and under the direction of Mr. Winston Jones, the Council took a greater part in activities.

Southwest was elected vice-president of District VI of the Florida Association of Student Councils and will automatically succeed to the presidency.

An Inter-Club Council, formed for the purpose of coordinating club and honor society activities, was headed by Mary Lynn Hendrickson.

The Student Councils of Southwest and Coral Park purchased a trophy to go to the victor in the Annual Eagle-Ram Classic. The Homecoming dance and parade and White Christmas food drives were other activities.

Sue Koraly sat at her own table so she could hear the information without interruptions.



While attending Student Council meetings, Russell Aste (86) would tell stories like "Little Red Riding Hood and the Three Bears."

SENATORS MARKED THEIR THIRD YEAR

For the past three years the Senate has played an active part in Student Government. As a part of the bicameral system, senators represented their respective classes.

There was much competition involved in the senatorial races. Over 35 students from each class ran for the Senate. Ten sophomore; ten junior; and ten senior senators were elected by their fellow classmates.

The senators had to attend all Student Council meetings. It was their job to serve on various committees and when ever needed, to make recommendations to the General Assembly. They also helped to keep the student body of Southwest Miami High School well informed on all activities.

President Mickey Ross presided at each meeting.

SENIOR OFFICERS PAVED WAY TO PERFECT YEAR

With the first years of sophomore chaos and junior stability behind them seniors reached the height of their high school career, threatened by deadly senioritis. Through the help of sponsors, Mrs. Joann Adair, Mrs. Linda Johnson, and Mrs. Frances Weintraub, and the spirited leadership of president Bill Oakerson, vice-president David Gato, secretary Ann Pottenger, treasurer Mikki Landers, and cabinet members, Naida Katz, Carl Passoff, Welyne Morton, and Jeff LaRochelle, the Senior Class made this a memorable year.

The traditional dress up days, Bermuda Day, Homecoming, and Senior Banquet, were accomplished with great success. A huge eagle adorned the first Senior Homecoming Class Float, while the Senior Class beach party and Senior Night, a satire on the past three years at Southwest, brought 1967 to a close with the splendor of the Prom and the realization of a new beginning at graduation.

The primary purpose of the Senior Board was to govern the class of 1967, and to promote Student Council projects. Helping to coordinate senior activities, the board served on various committees: Activities, Publicity, Gift, and Fund Raising.

"Senior '67" pins, sold in each homeroom, were a distinctive factor in separating seniors from the masses in the halls. Embarrassed grins and mocking vengeance were the responses to pictures posted on the senior bulletin board, which served to keep the Class of '67 well informed. Spirit signs such as "Beat the Conchs" and "Shear the Sheep," were placed in the cafeteria to display the lively spirit of 850 seniors.

JUNIOR OFFICERS UNITED CLASS OF '68

President . . . Sue Koraly

With the bewildering beginning gone, the spirited Class of 1968 made that inbetween year an exciting one. Led by president Sue Koraly, vice-president Pam Ibanez, secretary Joanne Desnoyers, treasurer Ray Leone, and cabinet members, Dottie Hamblin and Steve Pavsner, juniors strove to attain the heights achieved by previous classes.

Junior Night, soc hops, magazine sales, Homecoming, and dress-up days were sponsored by the Junior Board. Perhaps most outstanding was the preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom. As a result of successful magazine sales and other hard work, seniors were given a Prom well worth remembering.

Through the efforts of the junior class officers and the Junior Board, a united class became ready for their year of seniority.

SOPHS GOT OFF TO A GOOD START

Sophomores demonstrated school spirit by petitioning for class officies. An outstanding number of over fifty candidates participated in the campaigning. Assemblies which were held in October provided an opportunity for classmen to choose their representatives. Sponsor was Mr. Jones.

Under the leadership of the officers; Nancye Balkany, Sue Wager, Larry Saffer, and Karen Anderson; the sophomore class attempted several money-making projects. First project was a doughnut sale which provided the class with an unusually high treasury of over $130.00. In February the sophomores sponsored a soc hop and Sophomore Night at the South Dade basketball game. The year 1967 ended with several sophomores serving at the prom and with hopes of even better years to come.

SOPHOMORE BOARD LED THE WAY

The election of students to the Sophomore Board was the first step in the forming of the Class of 1969. These students took an active part in the school and helped to make the Sophomore Class an integral part of Southwest. Being a member of this board gave the student the responsibility of keeping his fellow students informed in school affairs. The dress-up days, aiding in the Christmas drive and the basketball soc hop were activities of the Sophomore Class.

Though Sophomores may have been confused at times, members of the Class of 1969 proved themselves capable and organized.

LANCER WON NATIONAL AWARDS

Writing features, struggling over page layout, leading galley proofs and selling ads were a few of the many tasks performed by the Lancer staff.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Mabel Staats, the newspaper staff participated in a government and schoolboard-sponsored project, "Quote-Youth Focuses on Education," which included watching the School Board in action and taking part in television press conferences.

The Lancer also received the Florida Scholastic Press Association outstanding paper award as well as Columbia Scholastic Press Association award.

Dealing with various school activities the Lancer gave a first hand account of sports events and other student achievements as it guided students' thinking throughout the year.

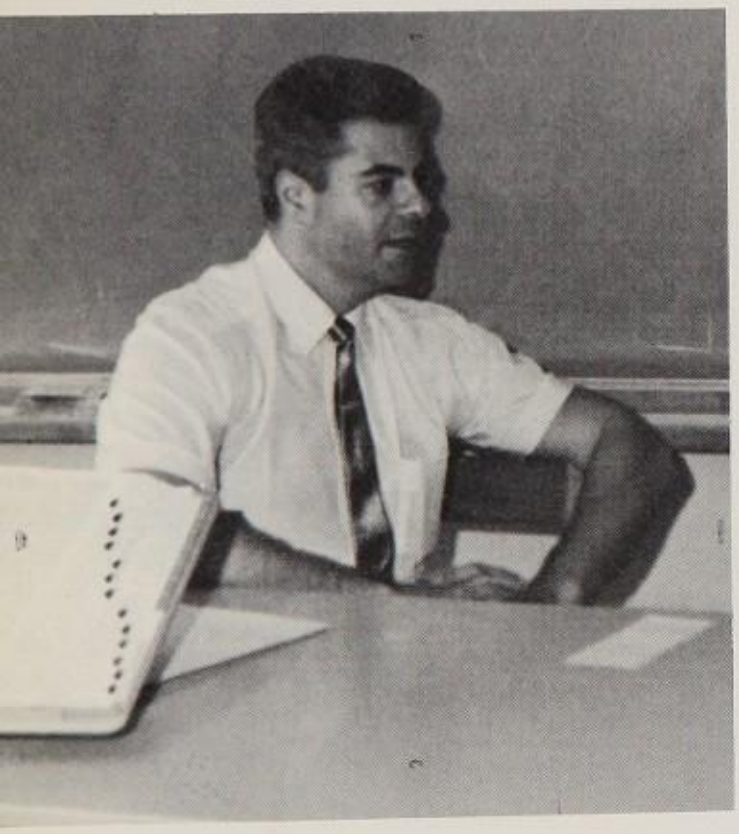
CHEZ NOUS SERVED S.W. AND THE COMMUNITY

One of the largest and most outstanding clubs offered its third year of service to Southwest as well as the community. Led by President Welyne Morton, Chez Nous actively participated in many activities. Their service projects in the community included helping needy children, collecting for TB and donating to the Mika Suki Indians. At Southwest they cleaned the patio, the trophy case, and helped decorate the school cafeteria with curtains and murals. New inductees participated in the annual cleaning of the auditorium seats.

Socially, Chez Nous held a Sunrise Breakfast, a fashion show in May, and an end-of-the-year Luau.

Chez Nous also aided the EOP.



Mr. Cohan was an interesting sponsor.

After meetings, Chez Nous officers further discussed the business at hand.

STUDENT ACTION PROMOTED CITIZENSHIP

For three years Southwest students have participated in school and community activities. Through the efforts of Student Action Club, students were made aware of their civic duties and the school spirit of the student body.

The club received acknowledgements from different organizations for their work. A book drive was held for Variety Childrens' Hospital, and the back of the auditorium was repaired. They purchased a trophy for the Social Science Honor Award and ushered at school functions.

The major event of the year was the annual Coffee House, which utilized the talents of the school.

Performers rehearsed for the Coffee House.

Student Action Club members made plans for their annual Christmas clothes drive.

PEP CLUB ALWAYS SHOWED ENTHUSIASM

Members of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes once again worked hard to vibrate spirit throughout Southwest. Under the leadership of President Dennis Thomason, Vice President Barbara Turnham, Secretary Gloria Johnston, and Sergeant-at-arms Chris Baker, the Pep Club strove to obtain greater recognition in school activities. Other officers were Hope Bonner, Historian; Rick Godfrey, Chairman of the Board; Pam Bledsoe, President's Aide; and Sena Kleber, Committee Chairman for decorations.

Besides sponsoring a sock hop after the Homecoming Parade, a new "Eagle Mascot" was created for football games. Sponsors were Mr. Alexander DiRienzo, Mrs. Pauline Fischer, Miss Mary Hornbake and Mrs. Ellen Murray.

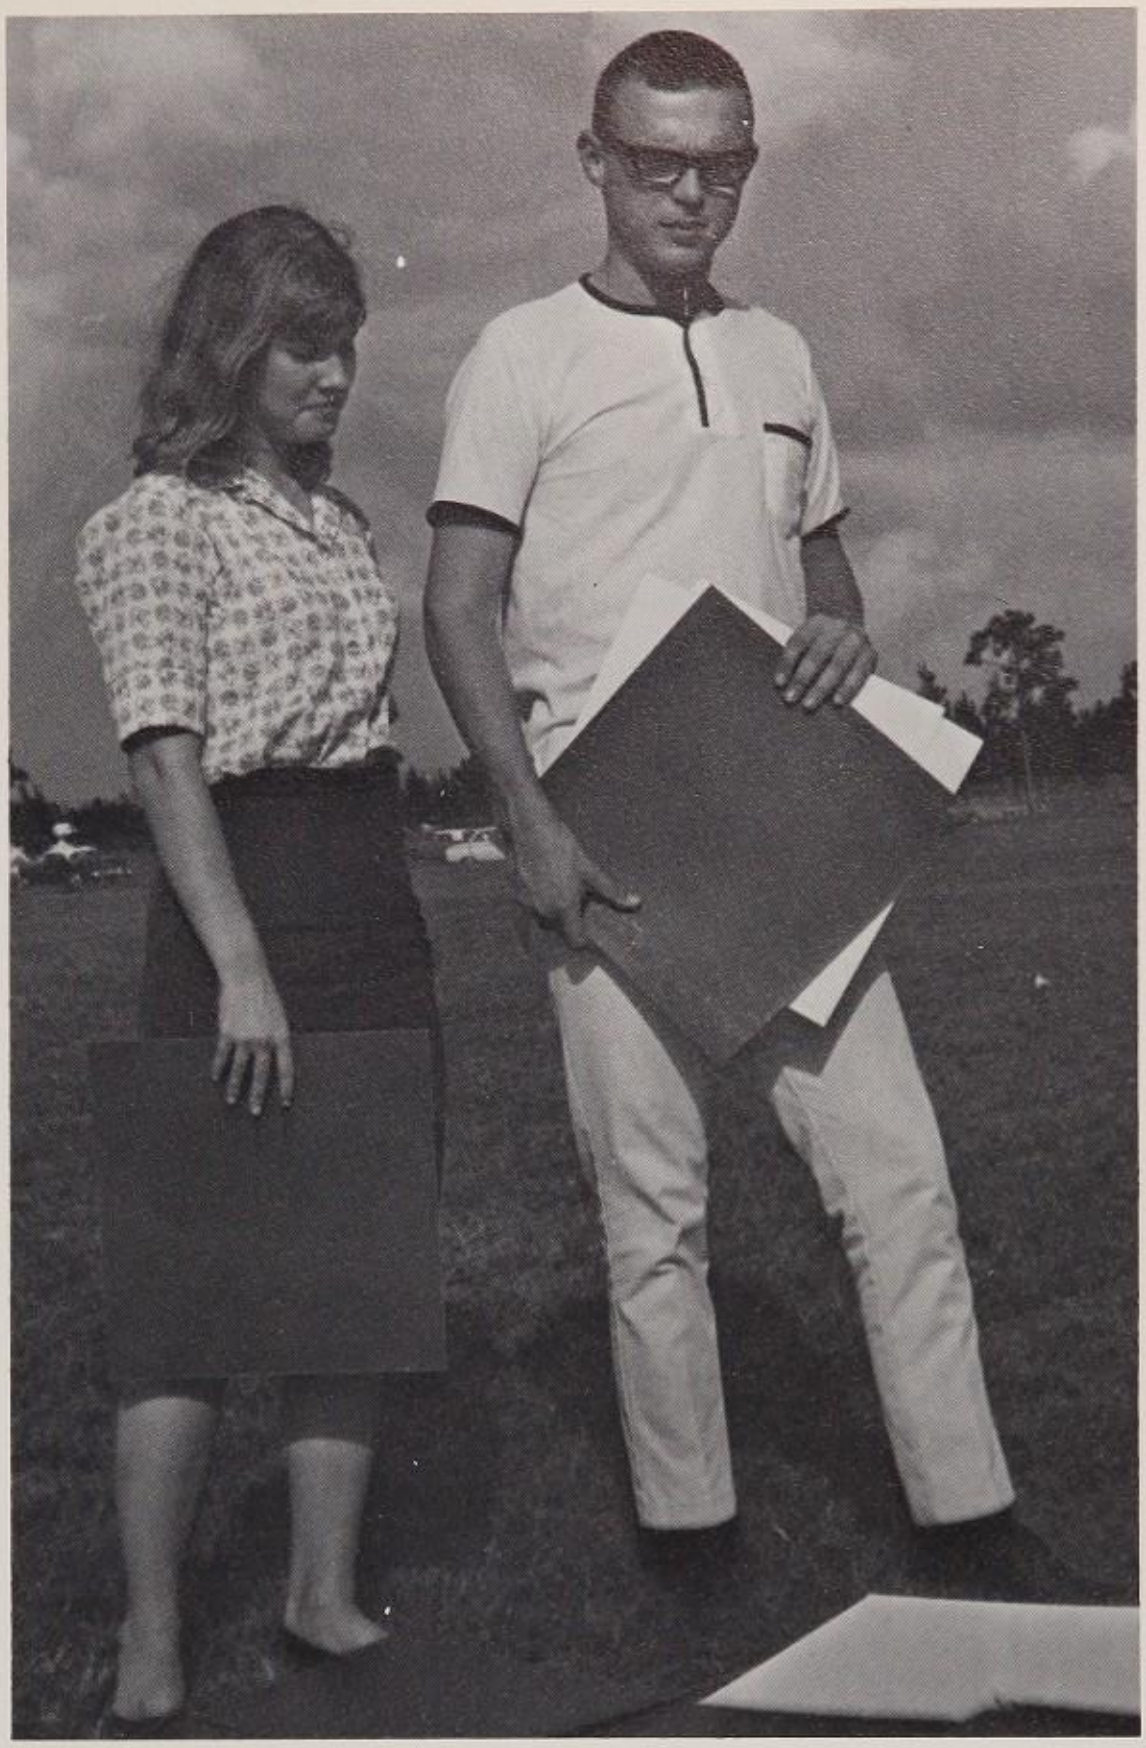
Pam Bledsoe expressed her anxiety at the Palmetto game, as at all games.

Pep Club waved the Royal Banner high.

Losing was never a happy thought.

Pep Club's card section was a big success.

Southwest Eagle boosted spirit.



President Dennis Tomason and Sena Kleber laid out a proposed card cheer.

Exhilarating emotions foretold victory over Coral Park as mighty Eagles won.

MAJORETTES RATED SUPERIOR AT CONTEST

Beverly Davis, head majorette, and Mary Lynn and Marcia Hendrickson, the "Twirling Darlings", directed the corps of majorettes in all of their performances. At District contest they excelled in skill and were given a superior rating by the judges.

Members of the corps were selected on their outstanding showmanship and ability. Attired in new uniforms the Royal Lancer Majorettes performed at exciting half-time shows and spirited pep rallies. They marched in the colorful Orange Bowl Parade on New Year's Eve with the Southwest Band.

Majorette tryouts were held after three days of clinic where routines and the fundamentals of twirling were taught. Those selected had practice before and after school and a class in which credit was given.

FLAGETTES MARCHED FOR THEIR FIRST YEAR

Flagettes marked their first year as a corps in 1966-67. The girls spent many long hours at practice. Flagettes was considered a class and each girl was given credit for it.

Each Flagette had to memorize and be able to perform her routine perfectly. This involved measuring the exact timing on the part of the Flagettes in accordance with the band's marching procedure.

Flagettes participated in pep rallies, marched in parades, and performed an excellent half-time show at each football game. The Flagettes represented Southwest at the district contest where they received superior ratings. One of the Flagettes' biggest events was marching in the Annual Orange Bowl Parade.

Flagettes concluded the year with the hope of becoming majorettes for the following year.

CHEERLEADERS SAID 'WE'VE GOT THE PEP!'

The excitement of Southwest sports was personified by 15 vivacious cheerleaders. Even though both squads were small, each girl found herself constantly busy cheering for pep rallies, football and basketball games.

This year's sponsors, Miss Patricia Shropshire and Mrs. Linda Johnson, disciplined both groups into a whole, working together to build up Southwest spirit. Captain Nancy Wityak and co-captain Naida Katz led the cheerleaders in long hours of practice and exciting moments of action throughout the season.

Activities began with the football opener against Miami High and concluded with the annual Purple-White spring football game and the selection of next year's cheerleaders.

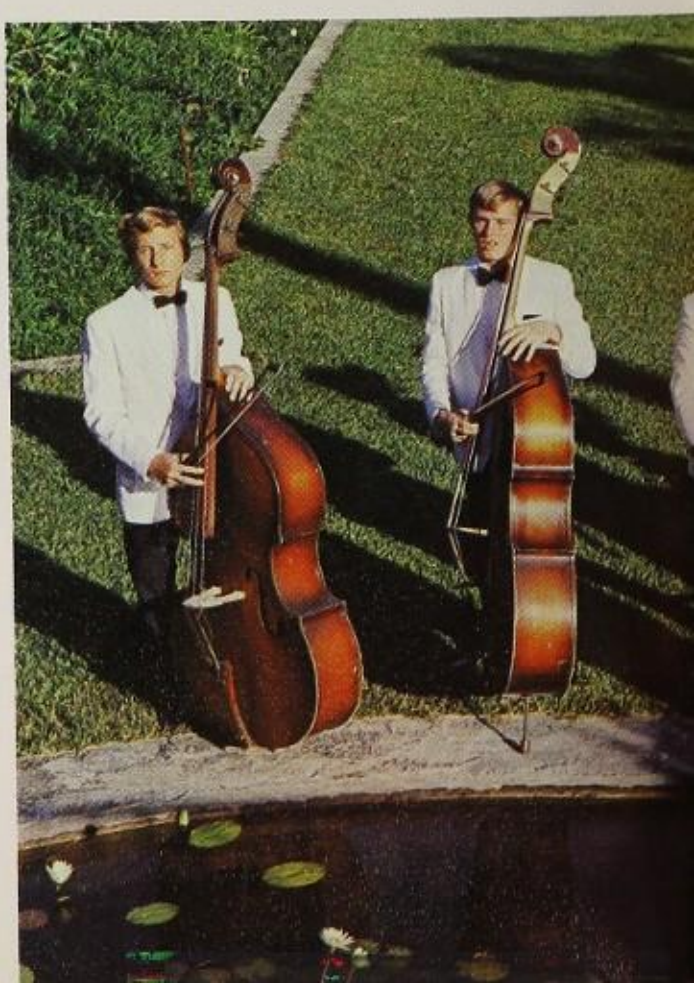
ORCHESTRA RETAINED TITLE

Southwest's Concert Orchestra with over 100 members has been the State Champion for the past three years. Under the excellent direction of Mr. Phillip Fink, the orchestra also had the unique distinction of being the only orchestra to perform for the Florida Teachers Association Convention in Tampa. Once again they demonstrated their outstanding ability when they participated in the MENC Conference in which the top ten orchestras in the South vied for number one.

Led by president Walter Olzack, the orchestra performed for the Coral Gables' musical, Milk and Honey and the Southwest production of The Sound of Music. Besides their annual concert in November, they played at the "Messiah," Eagles Fling, and other school functions.

Hours of practice developed good musicians.

Pat Gariety's precise timing paid off.

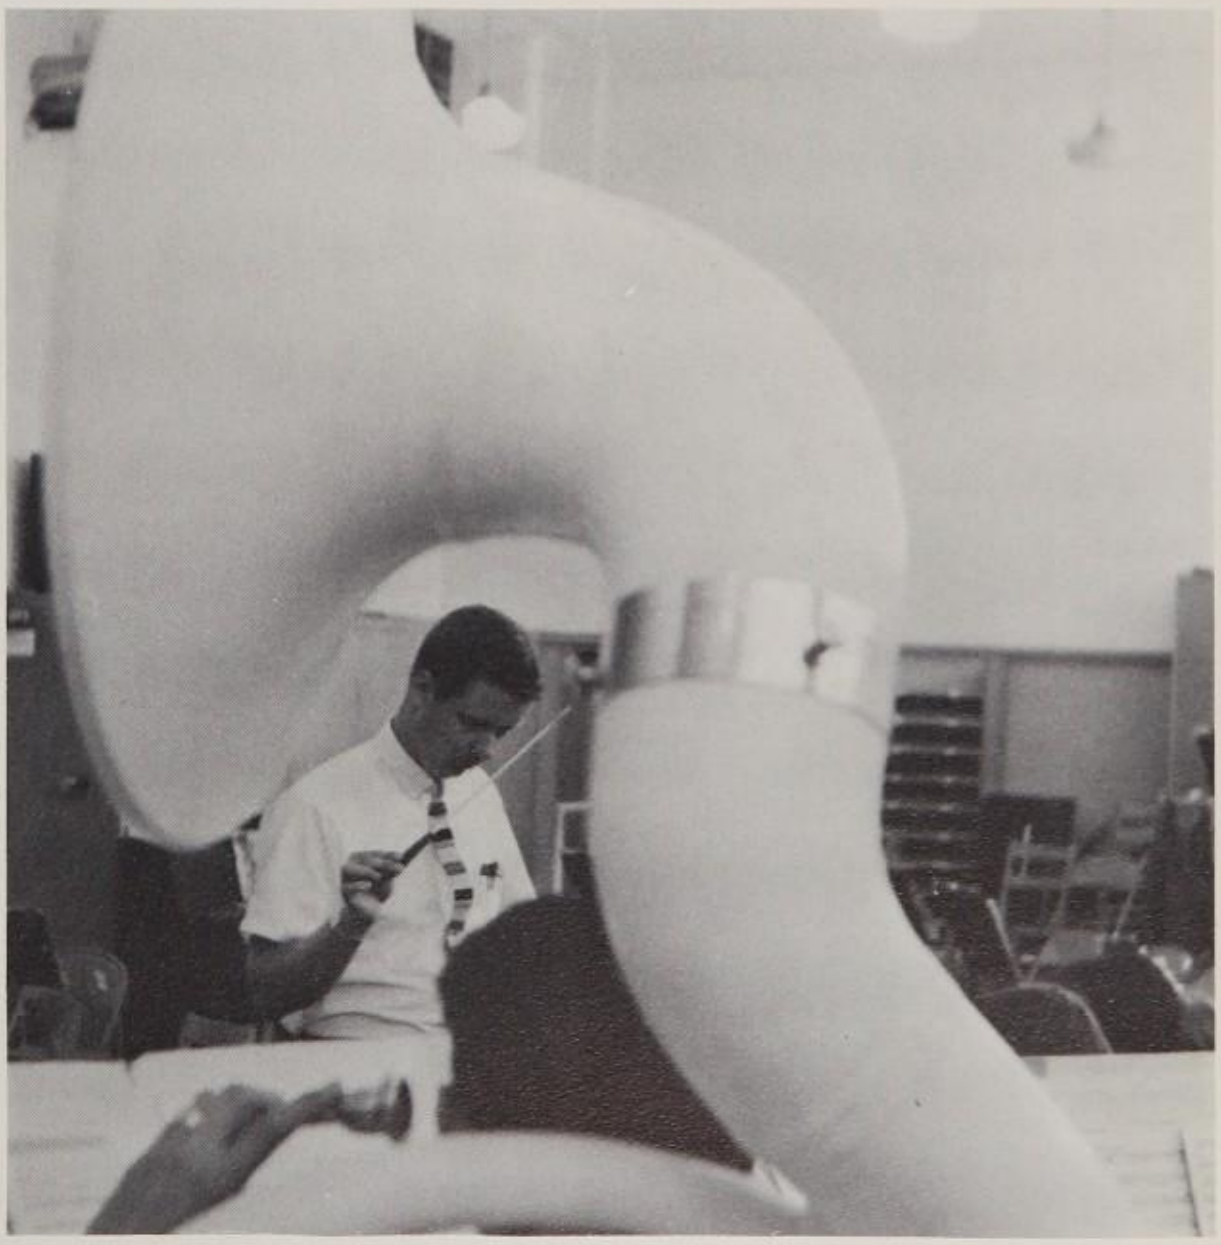


Orchestra's bass section was impressive.

Vernice Hoover played an exceptionally fine flute at many orchestra functions.

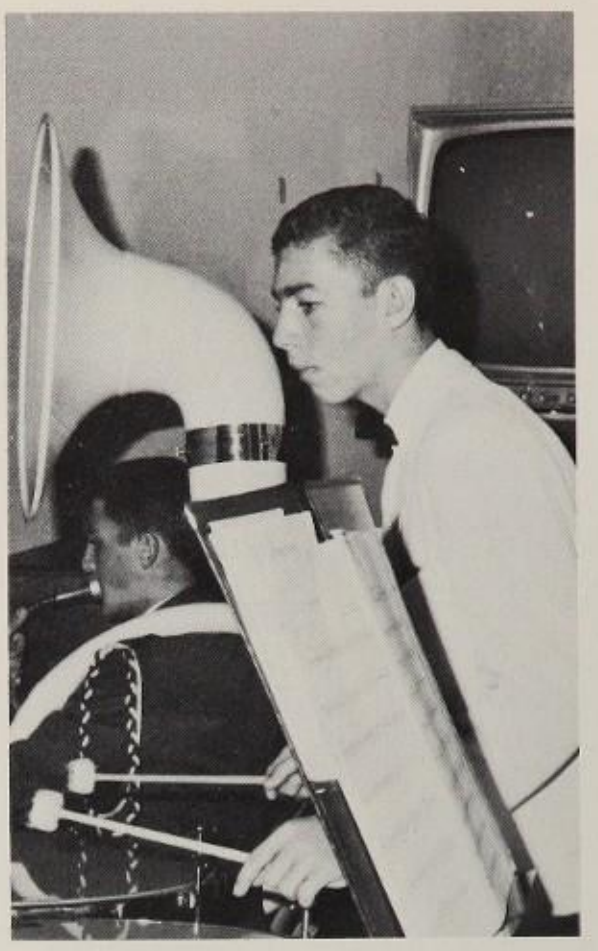
Orchestra officers included Linda Graham, Kathy Lubeck, Jeannie Newman, Peggy Ervin, and Rosary Zocco.

Clint Cummings, Bob Ward, Bill Page, Mike Lax, Bill Tucker, John Knight, Bob Hauser, and Walter Olzack also served as the male officers of the orchestra.

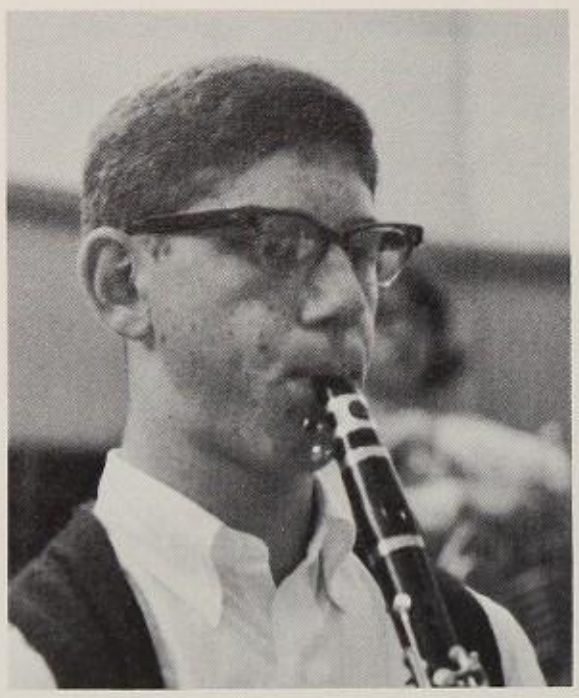


The camera caught a rare view of Mr. Fink as he conducted the orchestra.

Nelson Cruz patiently waited for his cue.



Individual practice was a must.



Four members of the orchestra performed special selections of music for the annual concert.

Drums and cymbals were handled expertly and proficiently by Bob Gallaher.

It took concentration to play the violin.

The brass section was one of the largest groups of the orchestra.

BAND RATED SUPERIOR AT CONTESTS

The Southwest Royal Lancer Band, under the direction of Mr. Melvin Baker, received superior ratings at district contests in November. The band was honored when they were asked to participate in the University of Miami Homecoming Parade. They also marched in the Orange Bowl Parade, New Year's game, and fireworks display in January.

Captain Ed Hernandez was in charge of the band at all performances. Other officers were: first lieutenants Patti Willis and Norman Lynn, senior secretary Mary Jo Reusch, drum majors John Williamson and Chuck Reynolds, and majorette captains Beverly Davis and Mary Lynn Hendrickson.

Photographers found Mr. Baker, band director, smiling.

Kathy Lassiter served as Royal Lancer Flower Girl.

While on the field the band was under the direction of John Williamson.

We got an inside view of how to play the French horn in one easy lesson.

Ed Hernandez looked wearily at the wet field.

One of the band's most outstanding numbers was their superbly performed routine of "Riff Riders."

Band members waited for the show to go on.

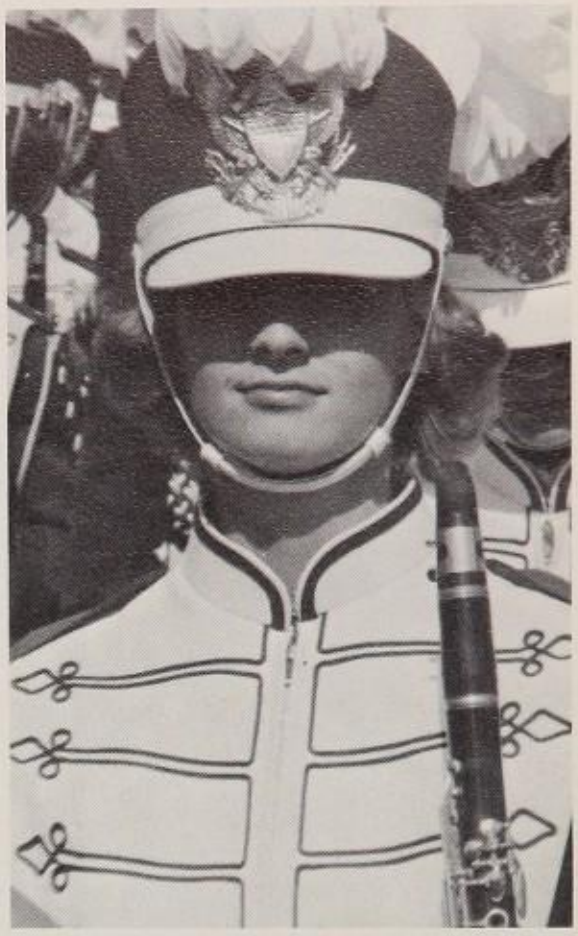
Each band member made it a point to handle his instrument with care.

Many groups performed at special events.

Royal Lancer Band members sparkled in the bright Florida sunshine.

Del Woodburn and Lonny Ohlfest were not only efficient drummers but good noise makers.

Band members stood erect until they performed.



Mary Lynn often felt the urge to kill the photographers.

Many tiring hours of physical and mental practice were put into each routine.

CHORUSES PERFORMED YEAR-ROUND

The Advanced Mixed Chorus made outstanding contributions to Southwest as well as the community. The most important event of the year was the annual music festival held at the Deauville Hotel. Southwest has always made an outstanding performance and in past years was selected as one of the top 6 choruses in Dade County.

The Choral Department, under the direction of Mr. William Johnson sang the Messiah with the combined choruses of other schools. The Chorus also sang at many churches in the community and presented their concert in March.

Girls' Chorus put much time and effort into each number they practiced.

DADE CLUBS NAMED SHERRY JOHNSON MISS C.E.C.

Concentration led to perfection.

At a convention of the Cooperative Education Clubs of America at Miami Beach, Sherry Johnson was chosen as Miss CEC. She was judged on dress, poise, and her answers to questions pertaining to business.

Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Edward, the Cooperative Business Education Club requirements were a 2.5 average along with a teacher's recommendations. Helping to prepare students for a future occupation in the business world, CBE was led by President Roz Ghio, Vice-President, Kathy Hess, Secretary Karen Garner, Treasurer Sherry Johnson and Sergeant-at-arms Kay Hodge. Induction of new members was held at the end of the year.

Wendy Fullerton used rotary adder.

Attention was not always on typing.

D.E. AIMED FOR VOCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Paula Bergrin, Dan Frost, and Caroline Phipps enjoyed their jobs in the community.

The Distributive Education Club, sponsored by Mr. Frank George, gave seniors an opportunity to find social as well as educational significance in their vocational experience. Led by President Arthur Lovett, D.E. students were employed by various firms in the Southwest Miami area. These students were able to attend regular classes in the morning at school, while at the same time they earned a salary for part-time employment.

Mr. Frank George . . . sponsor.

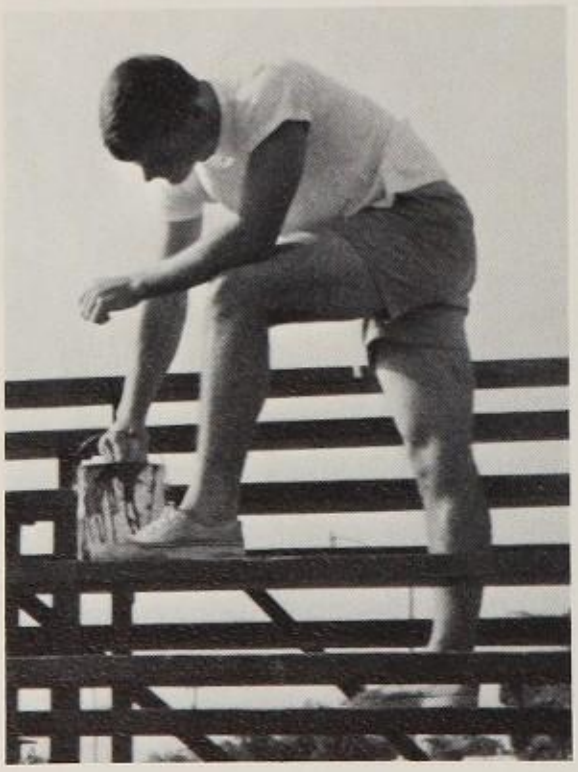
Distributive Education students posed for photographers at Viscaya.

NANCY WITYAK WAS NAMED SWEETHEART

Officers: J. Ward, B. Oakerson, Coach Jupin, J. Goudie, T. Ellis, J. Gagliano, and J. Comstock.

Varsity Club's second sweetheart was named at its annual dance in February. A gold charm was presented to Nancy Wityak, when President Joe Gagliano announced the winner among the four finalists.

In addition to social events, Varsity Club actively served Southwest in a variety of ways. Projects included painting the bleachers on Southwest's field, taking tickets at basketball games and helping at track meets. Any athlete who participated in a year of JV or Varsity Sports was eligible for membership.



Bill Jackson helped paint bleachers.

Nancy Wityak was their sweetheart.

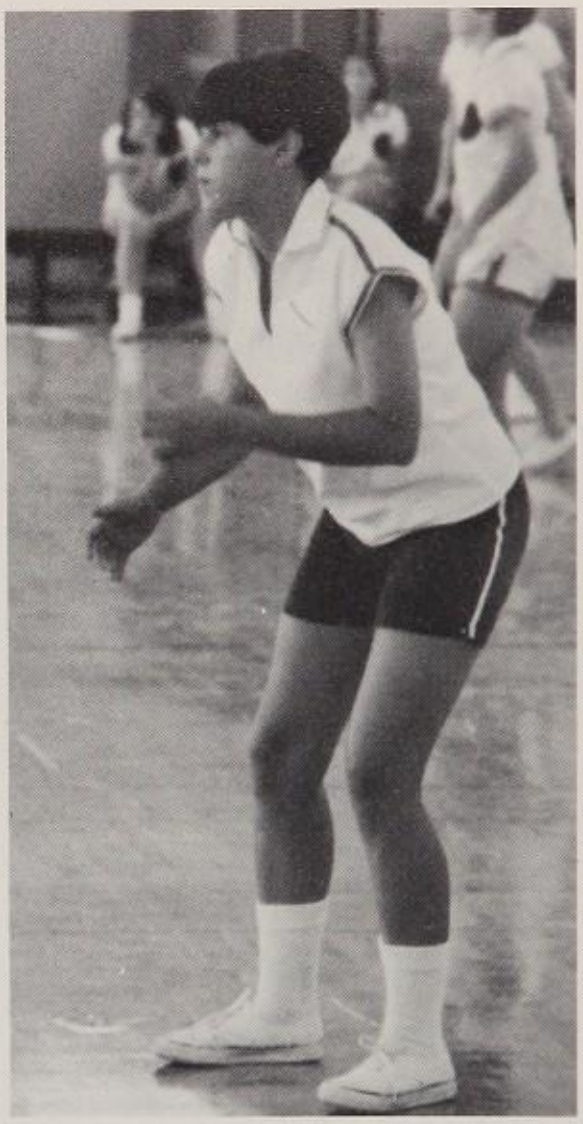
G. A. A. INDUCTED AT STATE PARK

Isabell Ramiz awaited the ball eagerly.

An annual G.A.A. camping trip at Hugh Taylor Birch State Park was the scene of the inductions. To become a member, each girl had to earn 150 points before the second semester by attending meetings, functions, and sport events.

The organization, sponsored by Miss Sandra Lee, strove to promote sportsmanship and social scope in all girls' athletic events. Led by Kathy Jones, president, G.A.A. participated enthusiastically at sports days and functions throughout the year.

G.A.A. celebrated victory with Miss Lee.

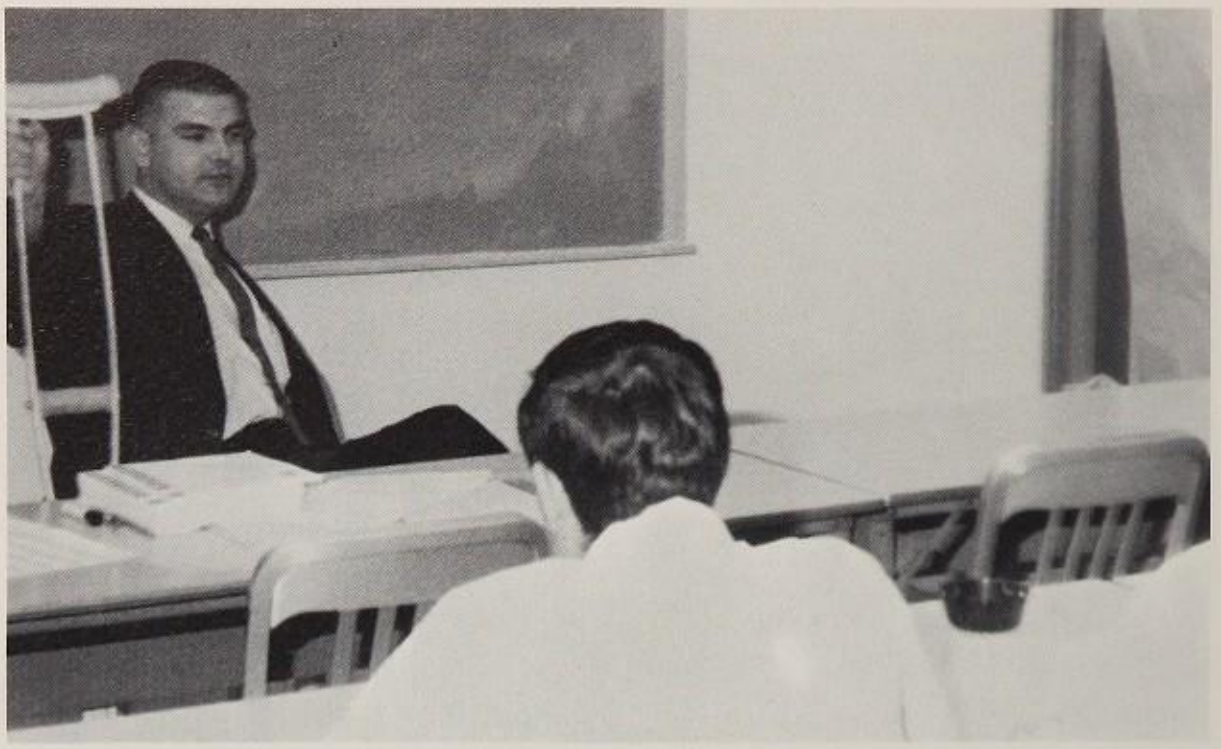


Jan Middleton prepared for a rapid return.

Volleyball Sportsday participants anticipated the announcement of the winning team.

FIELD TRIPS FASCINATED J.E.T.S. MEMBERS

A trip to the IBM center in Miami, held jointly with the Math Honor Society, was one of the Junior Engineering Technical Society's most interesting field trips. This trip served to inform members about the fascinating world of computers. A sample program and computer demonstration followed a lecture by an IBM employee. Another field trip was taken to the Federal Aviation Center in February. A colorful film on the history and flights of Project Gemini, produced by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, was shown at an earlier meeting.



An IBM systems engineer lectured to JETS members.

Officers: Jeff LaRochelle, Treasurer; David Gato, President; Carl Passoff, Vice-President; Derby Minton, Secretary.

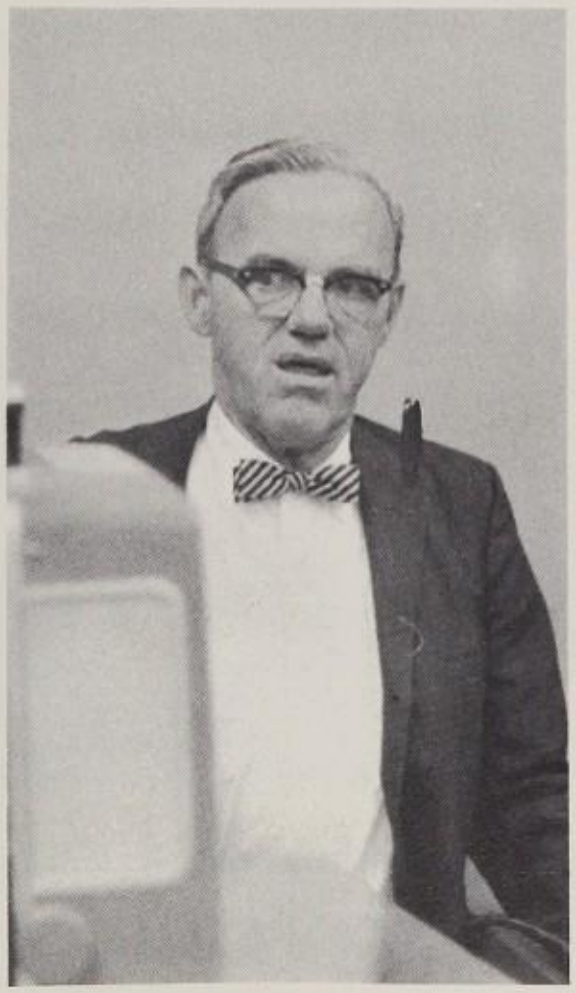
Mr. Jackson Appleget and Mr. William Schmeisser sponsored JETS.

ELECTRONICS STUDENTS SPARKED INTEREST

Through the sponsorship of Mr. William Nelson, students were offered the opportunity to gain knowledge about the complicated world of electronics. The Circuit Breakers Club was led by President Randy Ponitzman. Other officers were Vice-President Ray Cervero, Secretary-Treasurer Bunny Pepin, and Sergeant-at-Arms Chuck Treadway.

During their meetings, which were held once a month, club members enjoyed electronics movies, listened to special lectures and benefited from stimulating group discussions. Several field trips served to further their interest and ambition in the specialized fields of electronics.

Members always had a good time.



Mr. Nelson supervised the film.

Randy Ponitzman was president.

PARA-MED AIDED MEDICAL MISSION SHIP HOPE

Para-Med members and sponsor, Mrs. Gunsallus, listened carefully.

Southwest promoted an interest throughout the year in various health fields. Para-Medical club was sponsored by Mrs. Mabel Gunsallus and Miss Sara Job. Officers were Paula Rudasill, president; Cindy McAdam, vice-president; and Elyse Haber, secretary-treasurer.

The Para-Medical club was able to view special films of the medical mission ship, S.S. Hope, as well as others on disease research and cures. Members visited different hospitals to obtain information on the many varied fields of medicine. A highlight of the year was a visit to the Ship Hope while it was docked in Miami.

Members were excited about plans for visiting the medical Ship Hope.

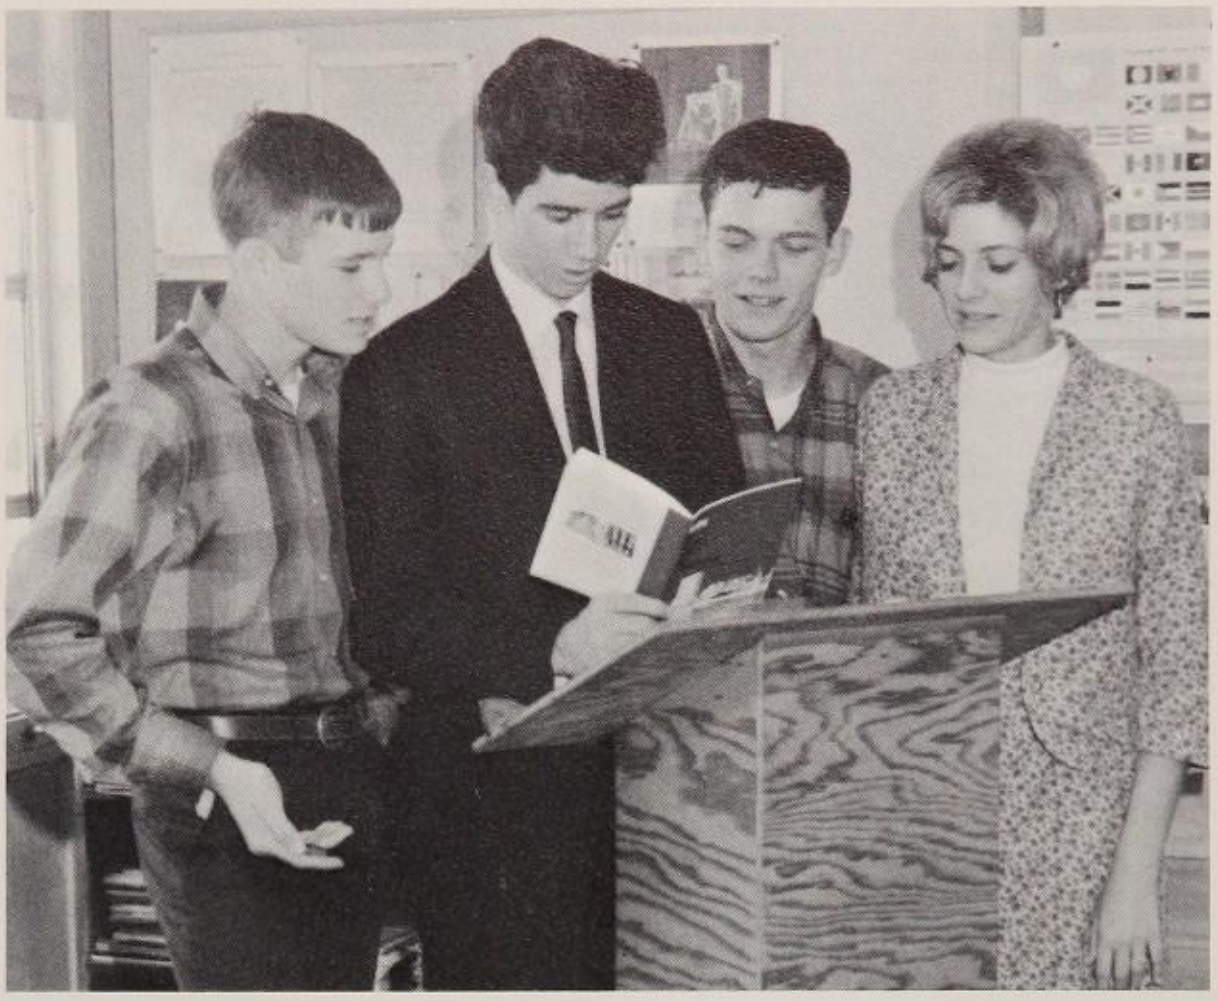
Miss Job, school nurse, also acted as Para-Medical Club sponsor.

S.W.A.U.N. PLANNED MODEL ASSEMBLY

Students at Southwest were given the opportunity to learn the purpose of the United Nations through the U.N. Club. Sponsors were Miss Agnes Crabtree and Mrs. Rose Galton. Led by President Robert Apt, Vice President Richard Godfrey, Secretary Brenda Harris, and Treasurer Bret Barwick, the club conducted a lecture forum of world issues, and aided and promoted the U.N. test. Students produced a model U.N. assembly.

Slides were shown depicting life in Russia. Members were also invited to attend the U.N. Assembly at Florida Atlantic University.

The major purpose was to encourage the United Nations means of settling world problems and to understand U.N. efforts toward peace and prosperity.



Officers were: Rick Godfrey, Vice-President; Robert Apt, President; Bret Barwick, Treasurer; Brenda Harris, Secretary.

United Nations Club members prepared for the competitive U.N. exam with scholarship prizes.

Miss Agnes Crabtree sponsored the club.

F.T.A. GAINED INSIGHT INTO TEACHING

F.T.A. members "shined" apples for Teacher Appreciation Day.

Those students interested in teaching as a career were given an opportunity to study the qualities on which successful teaching is based through the efforts of the Future Teachers of America. Members were able to gain insight through guest speakers and programs, such as a tour at the University of Miami on American Education Day and a day's teaching experience at Blue Lakes Elementary School.

Under the leadership of President Diana Martin, Vice-President Barbara Morrision, Treasurer Carol Hathway, Secretary Michele Kammen, Chaplain Rick Godfrey and Historian Jackie Hofher and sponsor Mr. Joseph Ward, F.T.A. served Southwest in numerous ways. On Teacher Appreciation Day. members distributed apples to the entire faculty. They aided parents on Back-to-School night by working at information tables. The Annual Banquet, held at the Black Angus, ended the year.

All members participated enthusiastically in F.T.A. activities.

F.H.A. SOLD VALENTINE ROSES

Dianne Casale . . . President

Mrs. Irvin, FHA's sponsor, held one of the roses for the rose sale.

February 14 brought members of the Future Homemakers of America to each homeroom as they delivered Valentine roses. FHA was an association of girls who were interested in preparing for careers as home economists and homemakers.

The organization included chapters in each of the home economics classes. Mrs. Jeanne Irvin served as sponsor and officers were Dianne Casale, president; Linda Adcox, first vice-president; Karen Denham, second vice-president; Nancy Berry, treasurer; Adela Padrone, secretary; and Barbara Moulton, historian.

Projects for this year included a float in the Homecoming parade, a garden behind the home economics room, rag dolls to be given to mentally retarded children, and work in the home economics kitchen.

Barbara Moulton, Karen Denham and Adela Padrone listened to plans for their annual rose sale.

STUDENTS CREATED ORIGINAL WORKS

The Shining Wings Anthology, a compilation of creative writing, was published through the efforts of the creative writing class. The categories of writing involved were poetry, short stories, prose, essays, and plays. Any student at Southwest could submit his works for consideration.

To select the writings for use and to publish the Shining Wings Anthology required time and effort. Under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Staats, an editorial board of eight selected the work entered. Typing classes typed the anthology while a promotion board published and sold it.

Richard Ross was known for his humor.

Mrs. Staats sponsor, discussed type style with Ellen Barocas.

The creative writing class contributed to the anthology.

WRITERS WON AWARDS

Numerous creative writing awards were won by members of the newly created Pen Pushers Club. Meetings were held monthly at the home of Mrs. Mabel Staats, sponsor. Guest speakers, such as Mr. Richard Griener, discussed writing techniques.

Officers were President George Felton, Vice-President Caron Balkany, Secretary Patricia Starcher, Treasurer Nancy Haston, Historian Michele Newton, and Parliamentarian Robert Weeks.

At each meeting, members brought original pieces for discussion and constructive criticism. Publications included a guidebook and six poems by Mrs. Staats and a poem and short story by Nancy Haston. In the Dade County Poetry Festival, Robert Weeks won first prize and Mark Hedger took an Honorable Mention. Miami News Robert Frost Poetry awards were received by Caron Balkany and Patricia Starcher. Other markets for writing were discussed.

The creative writing club met at the Coral Gables home of Mrs. Mabel Staats, sponsor.

Pen Pushers Club officers: Michele Newton, historian; Caron Balkany, vice-president; George Felton, president; Patricia Starcher, secretary; and Nancy Haston, treasurer.

Michele Newton made careful notes for the scrapbook.

FRENCH CLUB, "PARLEZ-VOUS FRANCAIS?"

At the Christmas party, Alfredo Rodriquez gave Madame Jarry a token of their appreciation.

A better understanding of French tradition through songs and films was promoted by interested students. The French Club, sponsored by Mrs. Marie Jarry, had meetings once a month. At the meetings they spoke in French and had guest speakers.

Officers were Alfredo Rodriquez, president; Dal Sino, vice-president; corresponding secretary, Donna Oertwig; recording secretary, Gene Gault; and treasurer Linda Kaczaraba.

The club sponsored the showing of French films and entered a float in the Homecoming festivities which never reached the parade because it fell apart enroute.

The French Club had a Christmas party that was a big success. The year ended with the annual French Club banquet.

Harry Hicks and Dale Sino, vice-president, enjoyed the French Club Christmas party.

Jill Wolff glanced at records at the party.

SIX TRAVELED TO STATE CONTEST

President Lesta Brooks made plans for hosting the joint meeting with Gables and Palmetto.

Under the direction of Mrs. Johnson, German Club's new sponsor, five members traveled to the state contest at Stetson University on February 3 and 4. Projects on display included the club's scrapbook, prepared by Karen Cole, historian.

Preparation for hosting the annual Palmetto-Gables-Southwest German Club's meeting kept Southwest members busy. A German skit on the epic The Niebelunglied was written.

The unhappy fate of German Club's Homecoming float did not discount the long hours put into its erection. A huge bubbling beer stein met its end as it fell from the top of the station wagon it rode on, on the way to the parade.

German Club, led by President Lesta Brooks, Vice-President Zavie Newmark, Secretary Michele Newton, and Treasurer Ellen Kruger, ended the year with a banquet and expressions of "Viel Glück."

Plans for the state German contest at Stetson in February were discussed.

Club members toasted German tradition and culture with sponsor Mrs. Linda Johnson.

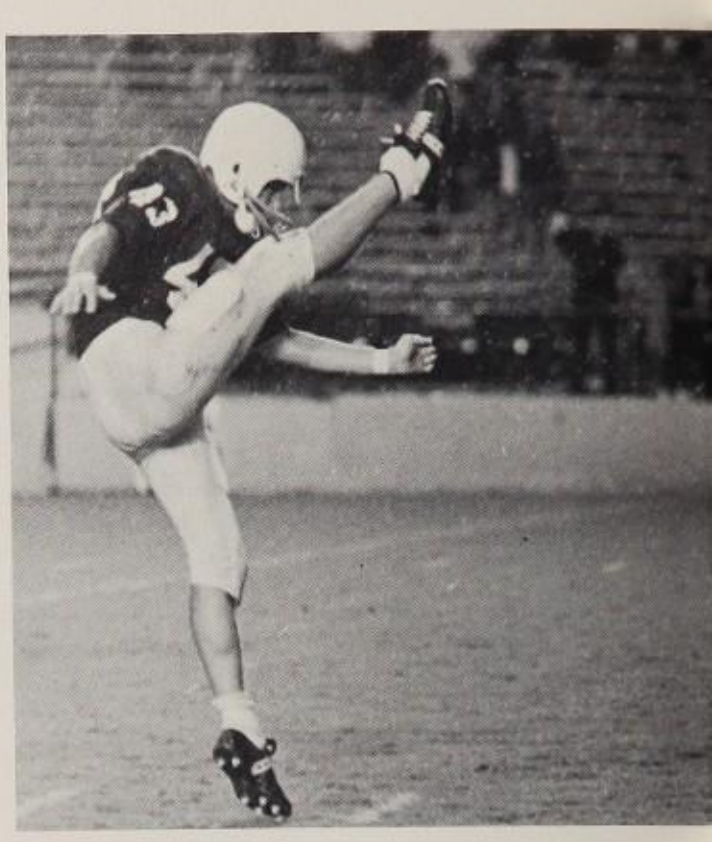
SW SCORED AGAINST MIAMI

In spite of intensive training, Southwest lost its seasonal opener to last year's State and National Football Champions, Miami High. Over 9,000 fans were seated in the Orange Bowl during a steady drizzle which lasted the entire game.

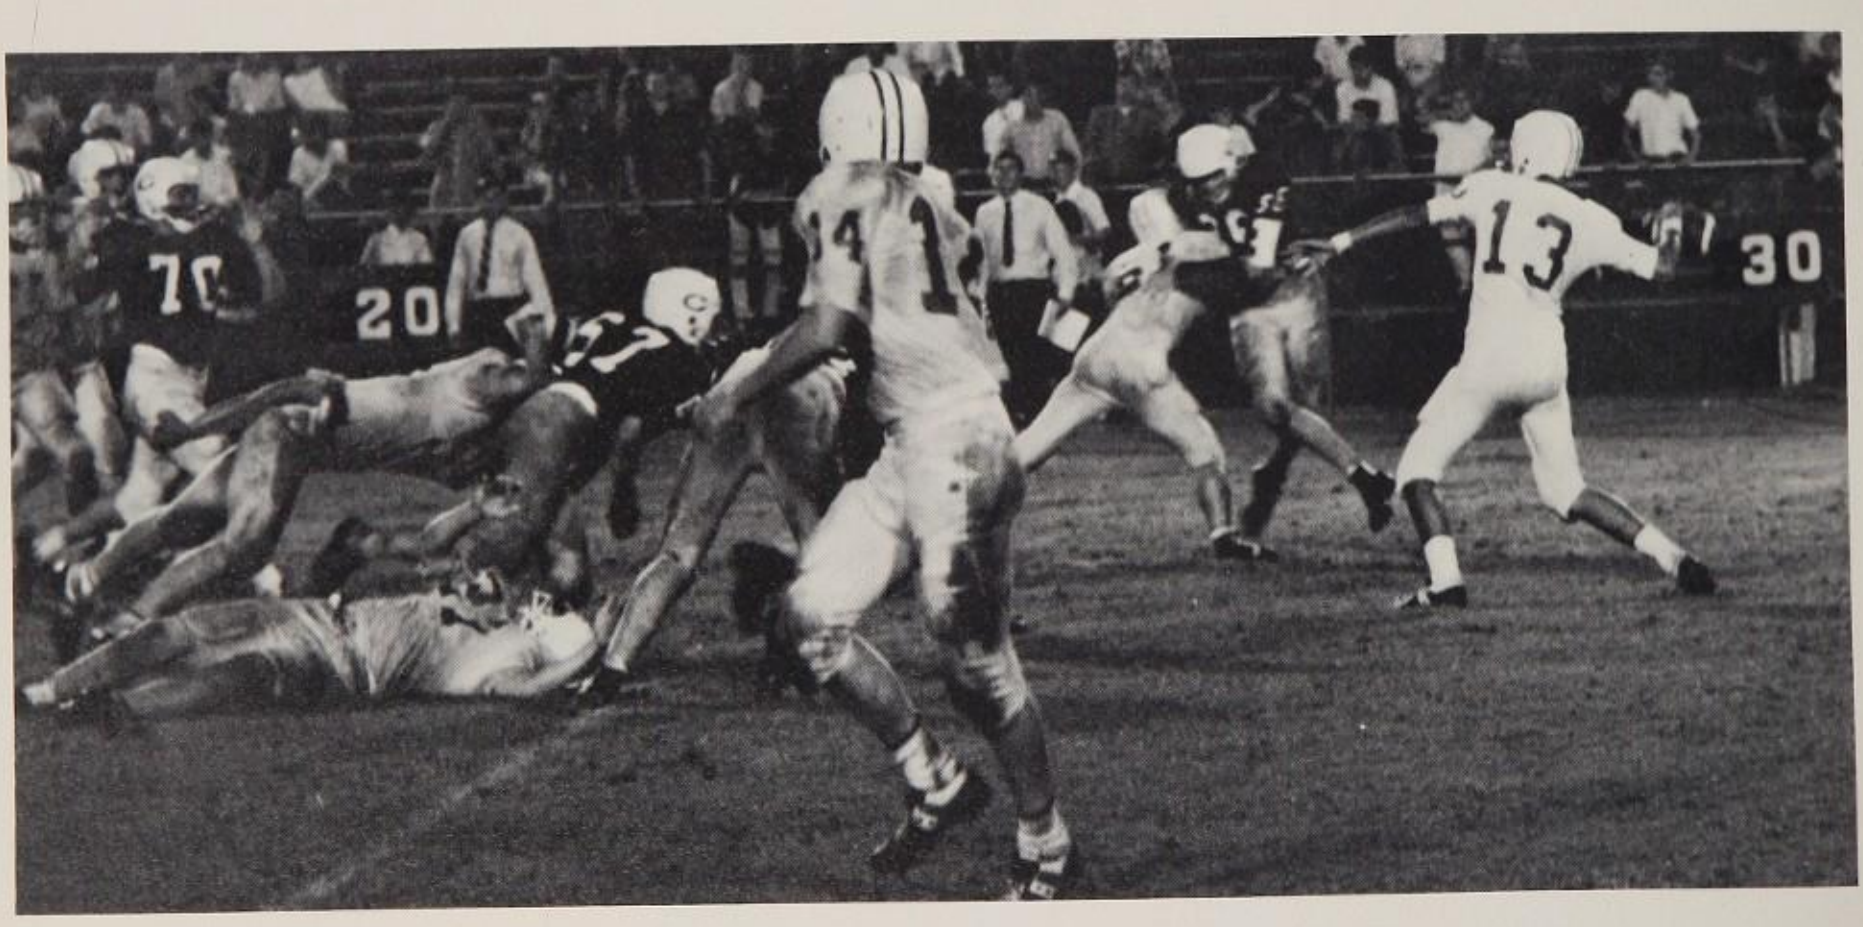
Eagle defense, led by Jim Goudie, Lou Barocas, Ross Payor and Bill Oakerson, showed its mettle in the first half as it held the Stings to one touchdown. Southwest's first attempt to score was halted on the 1 yard line by a tough Miami High defense. After scoring a 27 yard field goal, a fumble on Southwest's 22 yard line set the Stings up for their next touchdown. In the fourth quarter Miami High blocked an Eagle punt and raced 45 yards for their final score.

Late in the fourth period, Southwest scored their first touchdown on a 16 yard pass from quarterback Ed Floyd to Junior Gary Hendrix. Carlos de los Reyes successfully kicked for the extra point. Quarterbacks Carlos de los Reyes and Ed Floyd totalled 107 yards passing. Stuart Allen and John Rotunno were leading yard gainers for the offense. The rainy weather contributed to bad punt snaps and fumbles by both teams. After a wet but exciting game the final score was 30-7.

Murphy and Floyd showed teamwork.



Carlos De los Reyes passed in attempt to gain first down.

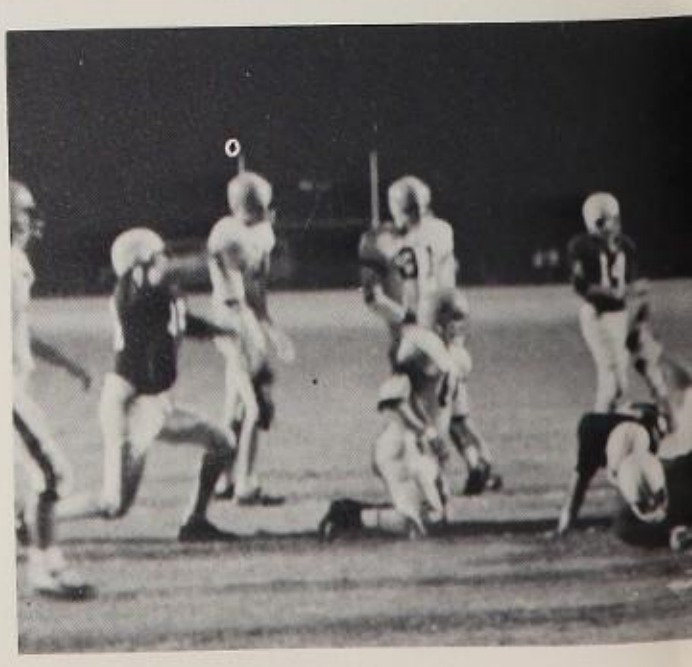


PYTEL LED SW DEFEAT

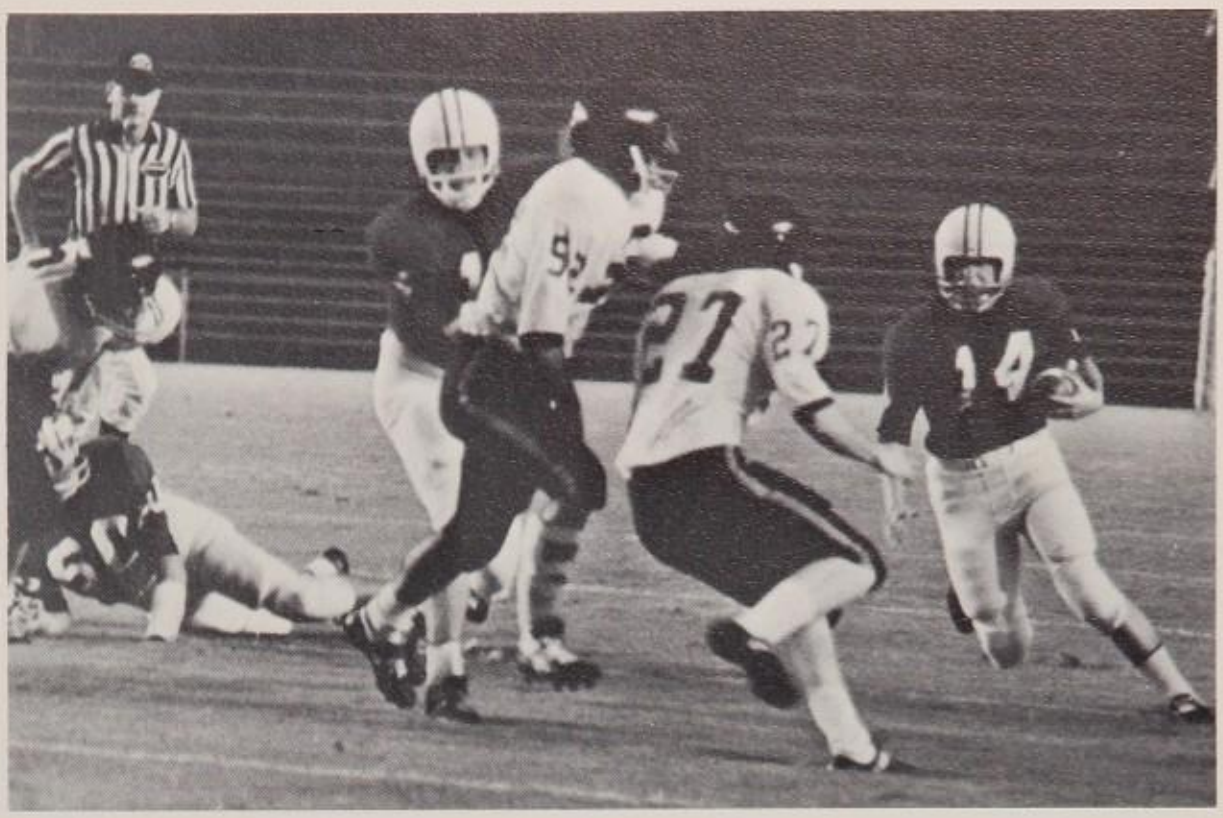
In the second game of the season, the Eagles went down fighting against a tough Columbus offense led by Explorer Quarterback Lew Pytel and a defense that limited Eagles to sixty-eight rushing yards. Southwest punted three times for an average of 38.6 yards.

The Eagles best scoring opportunity came when linebacker Jim Goudie intercepted a Pytel pass at the Southwest 40 yard line and returned the ball to the Explorer's six yard line. Columbus's scoring drives came in the first three quarters of the game and resulted in a final score of 19-0.

Victorious Eagles scored another touchdown against the Curly Knights.



Halfback Charles Gilbert gained yardage against the tough Stingarees.

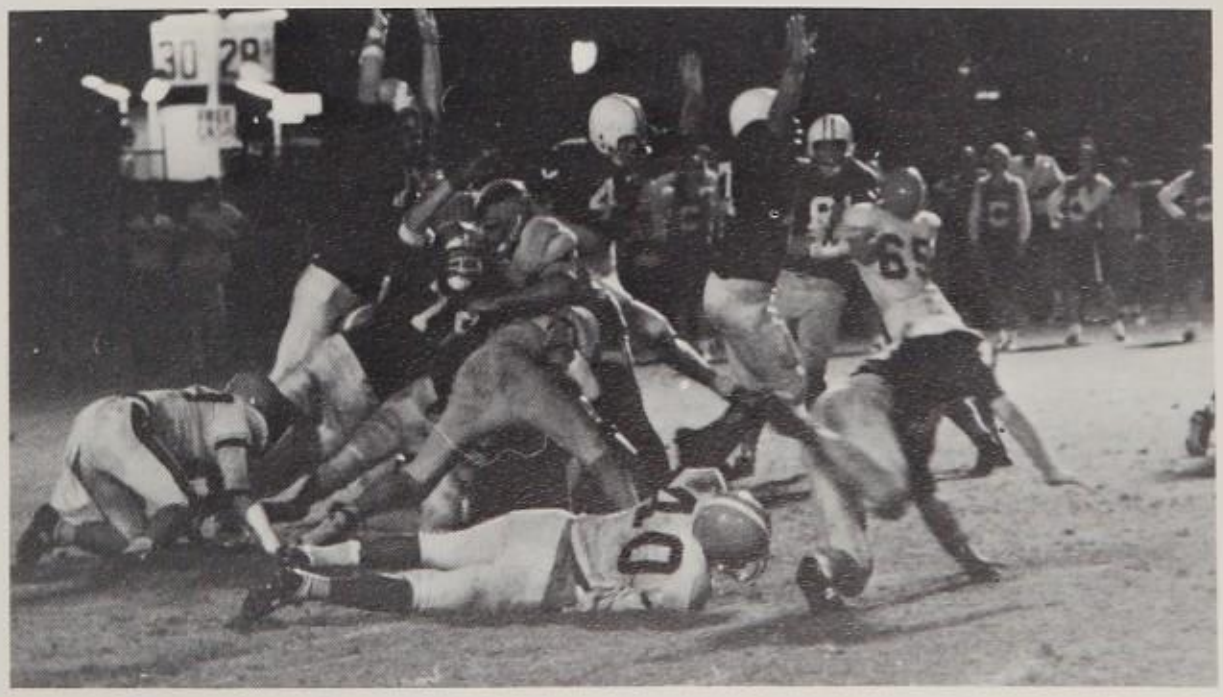


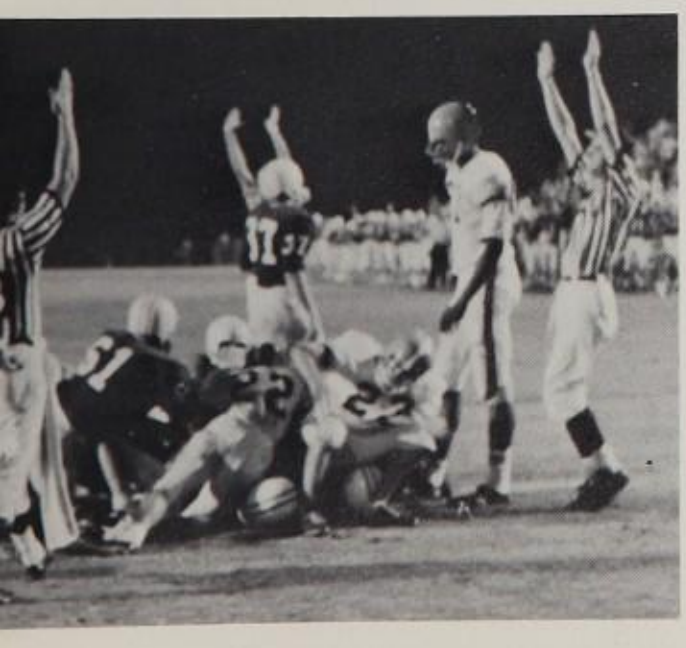
SW CRUSHED CURLEY

Through a team effort Southwest was able to crush Archbishop Curley at Central Stadium. In the third game of the season, the Eagles were able to capitalize on three big Knight mistakes, as the first three touchdowns of the game were set up by a pass interception, a fumble recovery, and a blocked punt. The fourth score was the result of a forty-six yard drive by the mighty Eagles.

Our touchdowns were scored by Steve Parks, who made two for fourteen points, while Ed Floyd and Charlie Gilbert both scored one each. Sharp play enabled Frank Barkman to tackle Curley's Jim Hardwics in the end zone for a two point safety. The scoreboard showed a final score of 26-7.

Larry Mathieson watched tensely as the Eagles attempted to score against the Explorers.





Mighty Eagles attempted to block Curley's extra point kick.

PANTHERS SMEARED S. W.

Due to an outstanding team, the Palmetto Panthers crushed Southwest at Central Stadium with a score of 34-7. Palmetto scored in the first period with a 19-yard pass from quarterback Rocky Doddridge to Wayne Yancey. By the end of the second half, Palmetto had scored two additional touchdowns which showed Doddridge had outstanding ability.

Palmetto's other scores came on a 7-yard run by Dave Mosher and a 58-yard charge by fullback Hugh Penn. In the fourth quarter, Southwest finally scored on a 58-yard pass from Ed Floyd to Ron Rondeau.

The Southwest offensive team broke through the Palmetto defense time and again.

Blocking was part of the game.

Eagles displayed their prowess on the ground, with a hand-off to Stuart Allen by Ed Floyd and flawless blocking by the mighty Eagles.

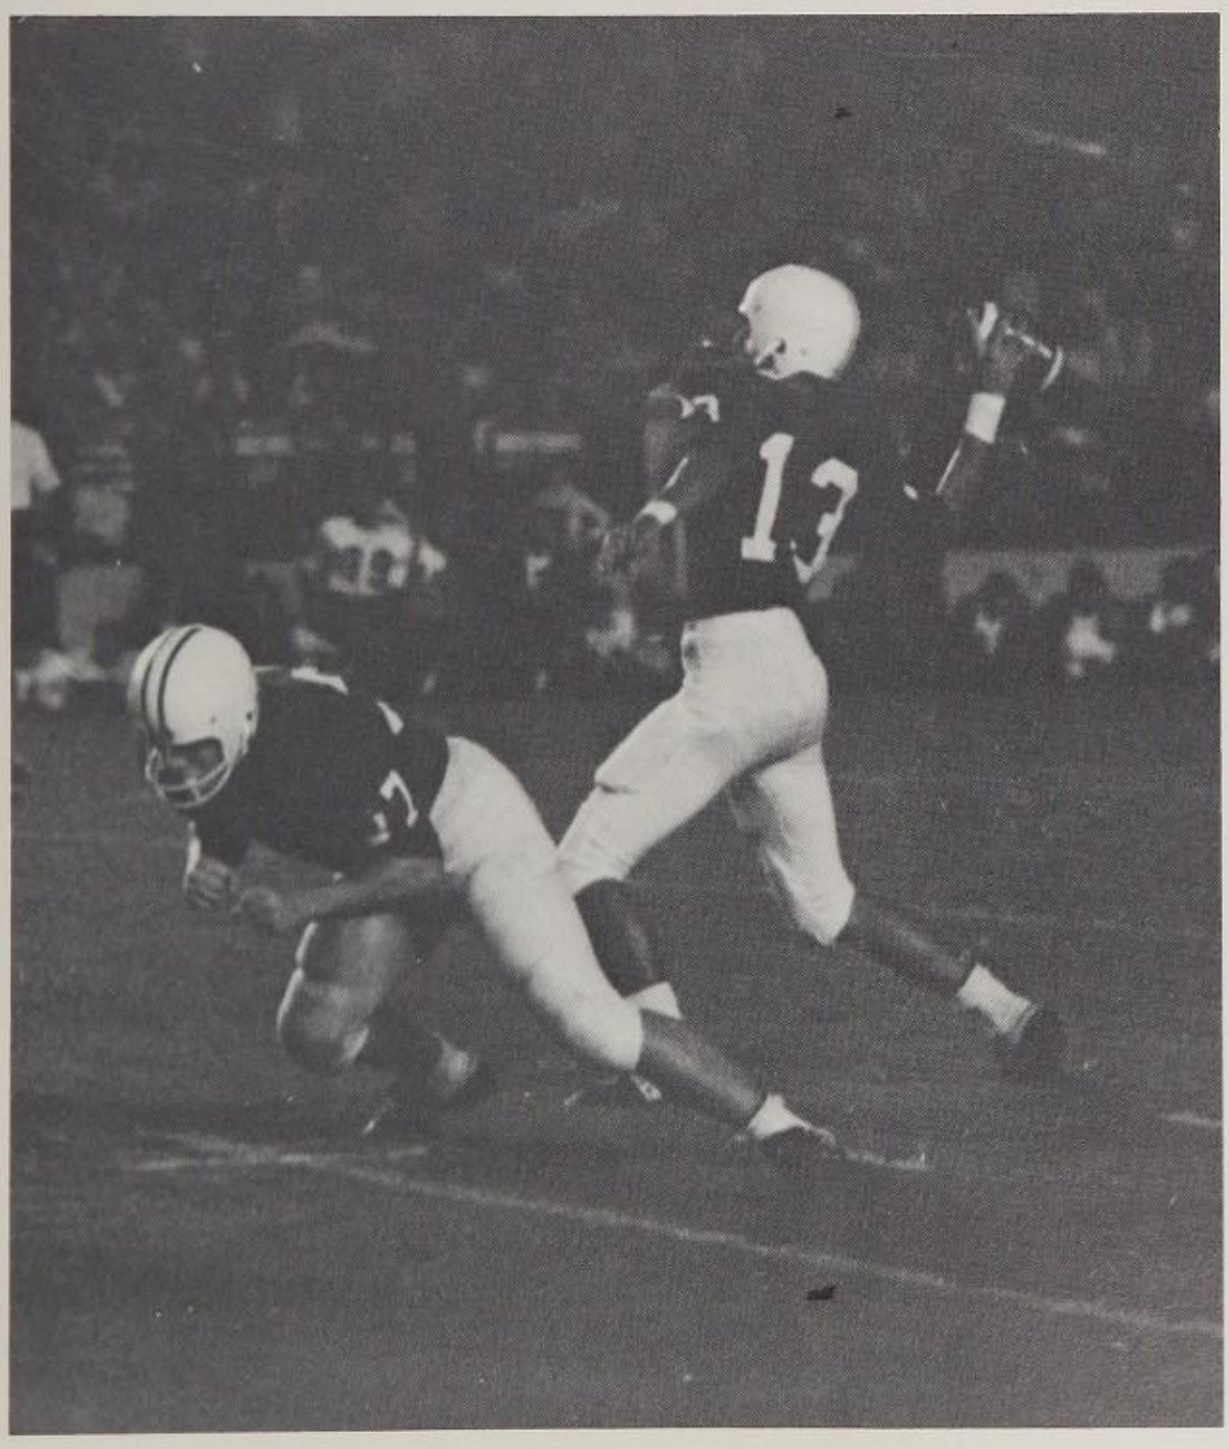
Southwest Eagles took a time-out during the exciting Hialeah game.

EAGLES TIED T-BREDS

In the fifth game of the season, the Southwest Eagles and the Hialeah Thoroughbreds battled to a scoreless tie at Hialeah stadium. Both teams played an outstanding game, but due to the tough defenses, neither team was able to score.

The Eagles offensive team made the only serious threats of the game, but each time the Hialeah defense stopped them. An attempted field goal by Carlos de Los Reyes was blocked and the Thoroughbreds recovered at the 12-yard line. Late in the fourth quarter, Ed Floyd threw to John Rotunno for 36-yards. Once on the 25-yard line, the Eagles were stalled by a tough Hialeah defense.

Southwest led statiscally with 13 first downs and a gain of 247 total yards. This game left the Eagles with a record of 3 losses, 1 win, and one tie.



Quarterback Carlos de Los Reyes was an outstanding player.

Richard Williams went out for a pass.

P.A.T. KICK DECIDED VICTORY

An outstanding display of teamwork by the Eagles enabled Southwest to gain victory over Coral Park for the third consecutive year. Coral Park played a fine game against Southwest. Rams scored the first two touchdowns of the game, as a result of passes from Dick Cathcart. Then Eagles scored their first touchdown on a pass from Ed Floyd to Ron Rondeau. Coral Park made the third touchdown leaving the score at 20-7 at the end of the first half.

Eagles came back in the second half determined to show the Rams the victorious Southwest spirit. Fans were in an uproar when Floyd threw to Stuart Allen in the end zone for their second touchdown. With the support of the student body of Southwest, Eagles received a punt on their own 30 yard line and in 16 plays marched the ball to the Ram one. In the next play, Charlie Gilbert plunged over the goal line to tie the Rams. Emilio Gelfenstein kicked the conversion for a victory well-deserved.

The Eagles' defense contained the Rams.

Steve Roach watched from the sidelines.

Ross Player intercepted a pass and gained 10 yards in Southwest's assault against the Rams.

Maimi Springs Falcons piled up in an attempt to stop the fighting Eagles.

SOUTHWEST INTERCEPTED

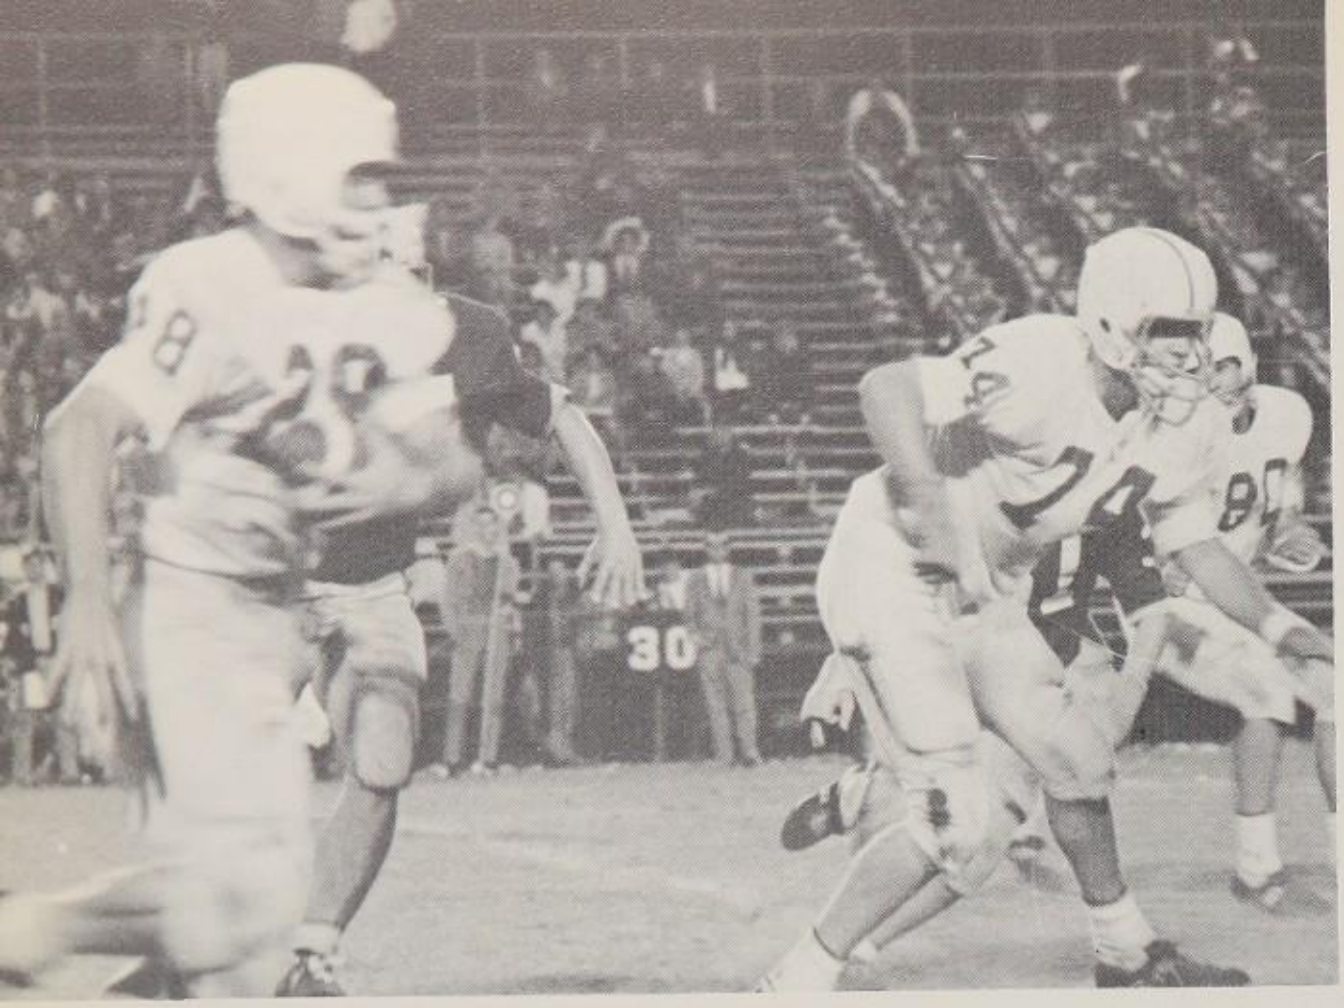
Miami Springs downed Southwest 14-7 at Central Stadium. The Eagles' score occurred late in the first quarter. After a 52-yard drive to the Hawks 10-yard line, Ed Floyd hit Carlos de Los Reyes in the end zone. Emilio Gelfenstein kicked for the conversion.

In the second quarter, the Hawks intercepted an attempted touchdown pass in their own end zone. Three plays later, Rod McGee passed to Richard Gilot for a 70-yard run-pass touchdown play.

Southwest stalled the Hawks in the third quarter. In return they stopped two Eagle drives with pass interceptions. Then in the fourth quarter, Miami Springs blocked a Southwest punt on the 32-yard line which set up the winning touchdown

Joe Gaglino was Varsity Club president.

Guard Paul Faulkner and end Russell Aste hustle to help Dave Walker.



Halfback Stuart Allen ran the ball against the Generals while Larry Mathieson blocked.

Gary Hendrix watched from sidelines.

EAGLES LOST BY INCHES

With only seconds to go, the ball rested inches from the Gables' goal line. The Eagles attempted four line plunges before the final gun sounded. Heartbroken fans could hardly believe that the game had ended with a final score of 7-6, Gables' favor.

The Thanksgiving Day rivalry between Southwest and Coral Gables marked its tenth year. The Cavaliers were unable to score until late in the second quarter. In the fourth quarter, a fumble set the Eagles for their touchdown, but Gables successfully blocked the kick to decide the final score.

The last four minutes of the game were dynamic and almost forgotten were the demanding efforts of the Eagles which enabled them to out-pass, out-run, and out-kick, but not out-score, the Cavaliers.

Fighting Eagles showed their determination for victory over the Cavaliers.

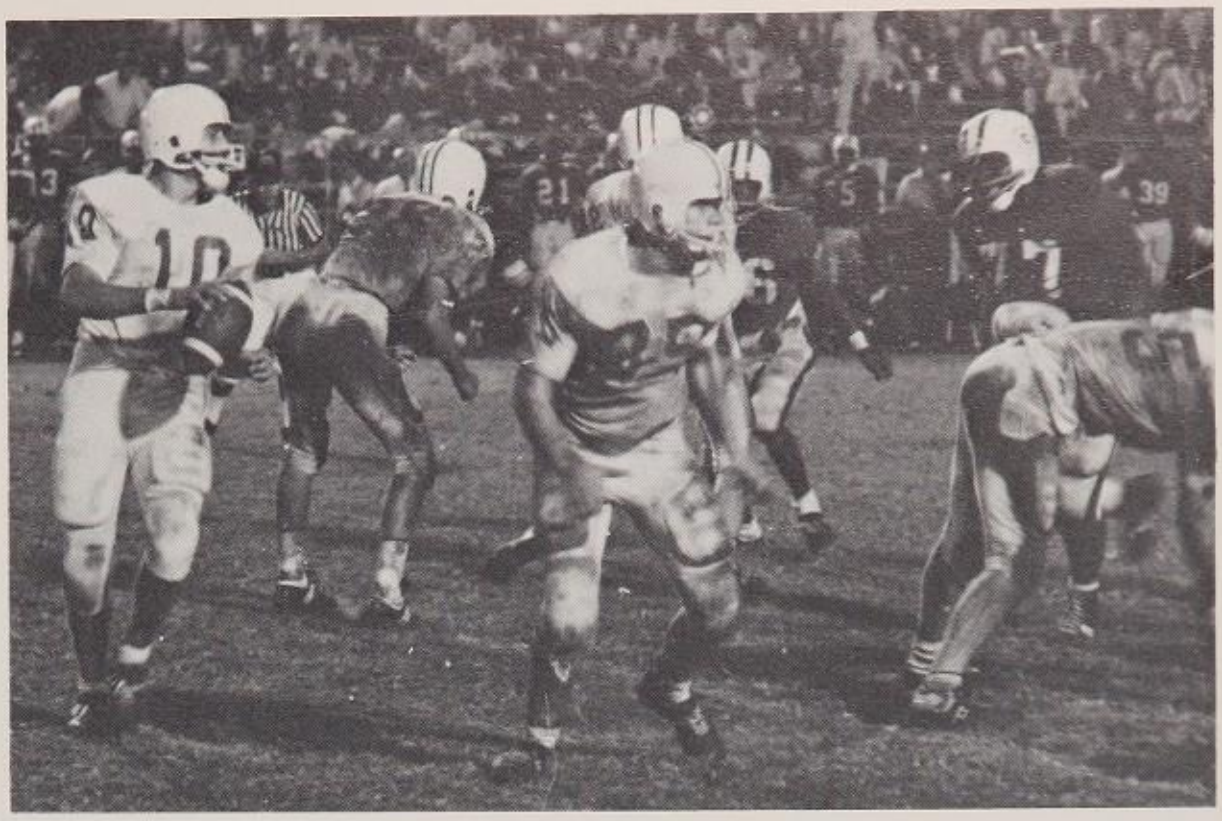
Gary Hendrix carried the ball.

JACKSON WON OVER EAGLES

Southwest Eagles attempted to overpower the third ranked team, Jackson High School. But once again, Southwest's playing was not quite good enough. The Eagles got off to a bad start when the Generals returned a Southwest kickoff for 88 yards and their first touchdown. By the end of the game the Jackson Generals showed their outstanding ability. The final score was 25-0.

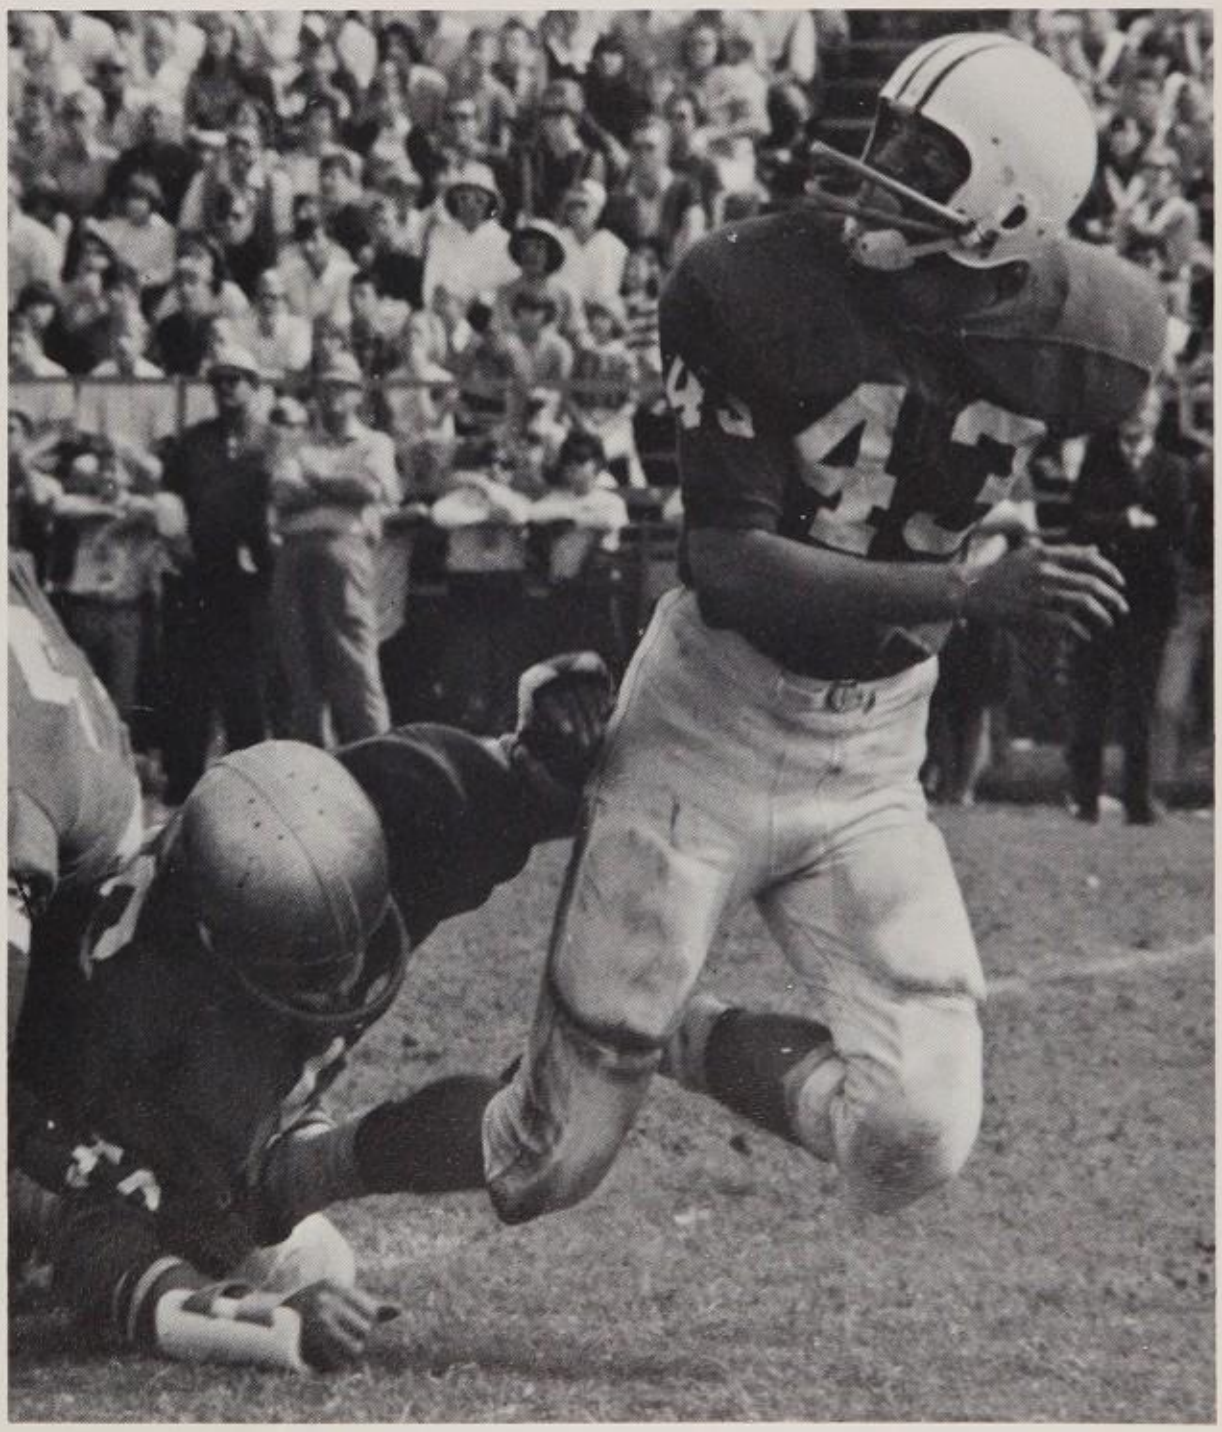
Many players were outstanding on both offense and defense, but, despite this, the Generals kept Southwest from scoring and reigned victorious. The Southwest season stood at 2-1-5.

Quarterback Ed Floyd went back to throw a pass while Randy Parks guarded.



Parks ran the ball while Hendrix guarded.

Junior John Beckman gained yardage.



Dennis Murphy, Southwest's outstanding safety, played a tough game.

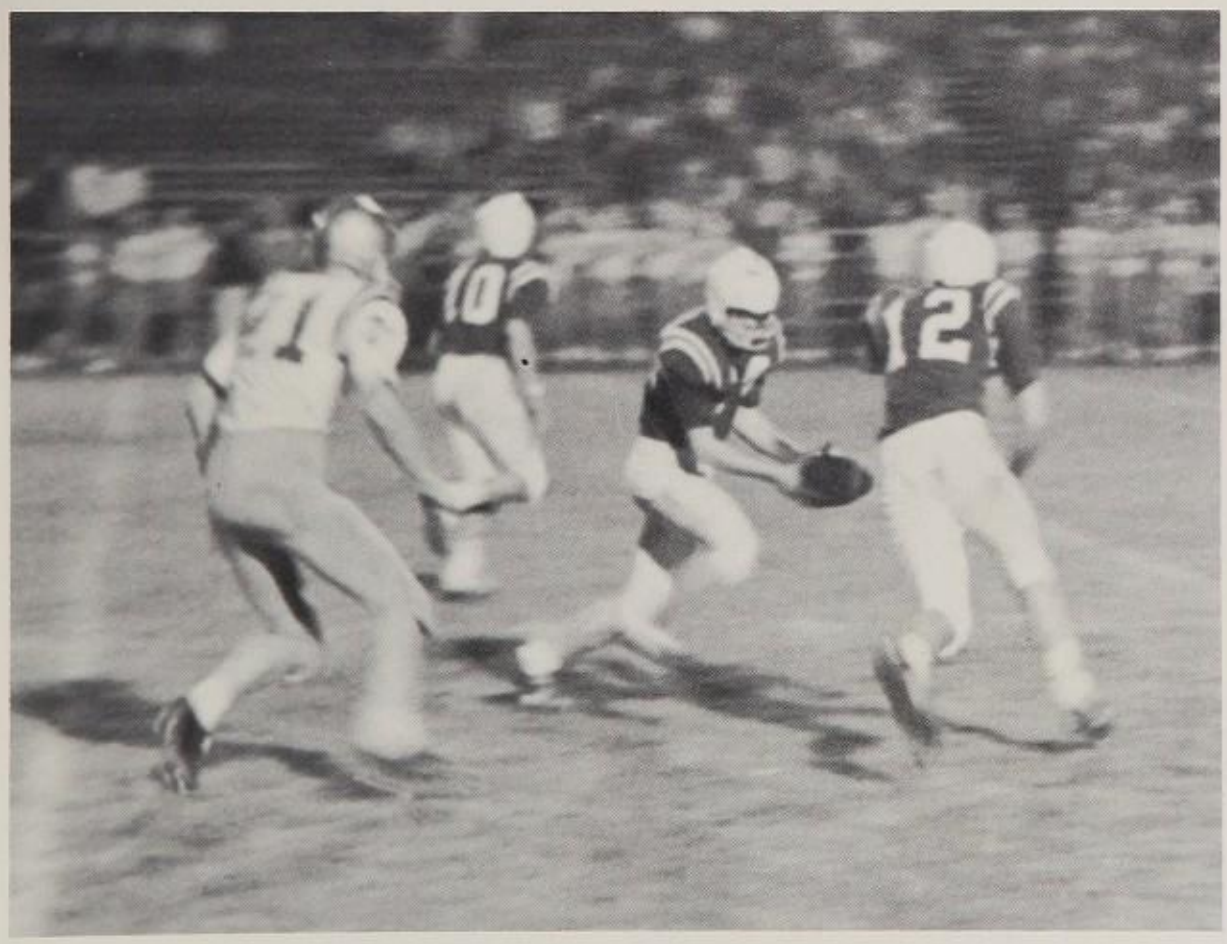
Southwest's Junior Varsity scored against the Coral Park Rams.

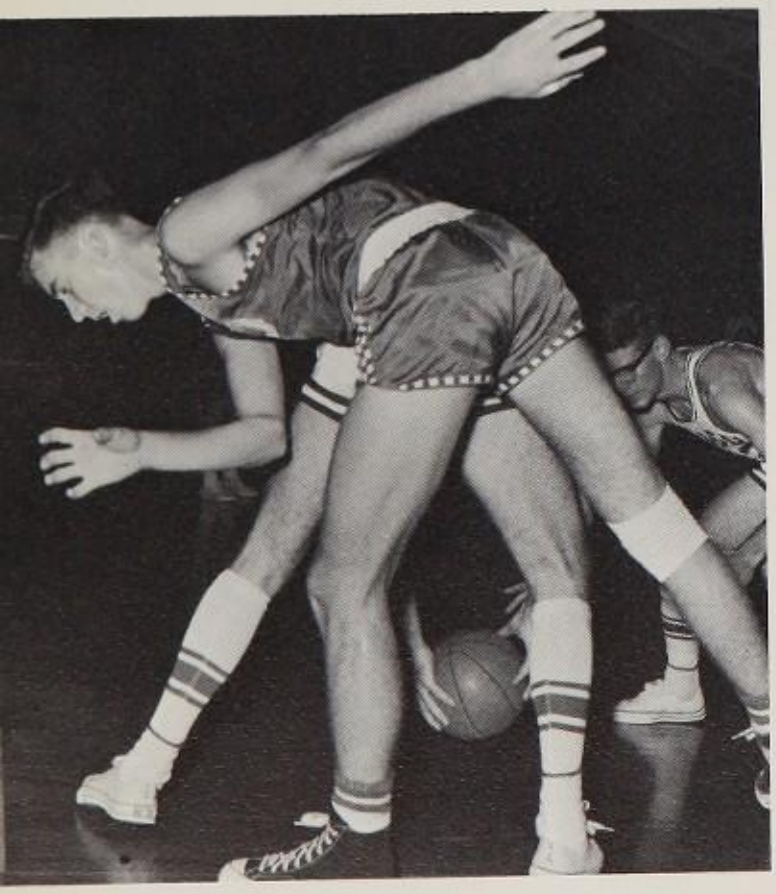


A victorious season resulted from teamwork and powerful team spirit.

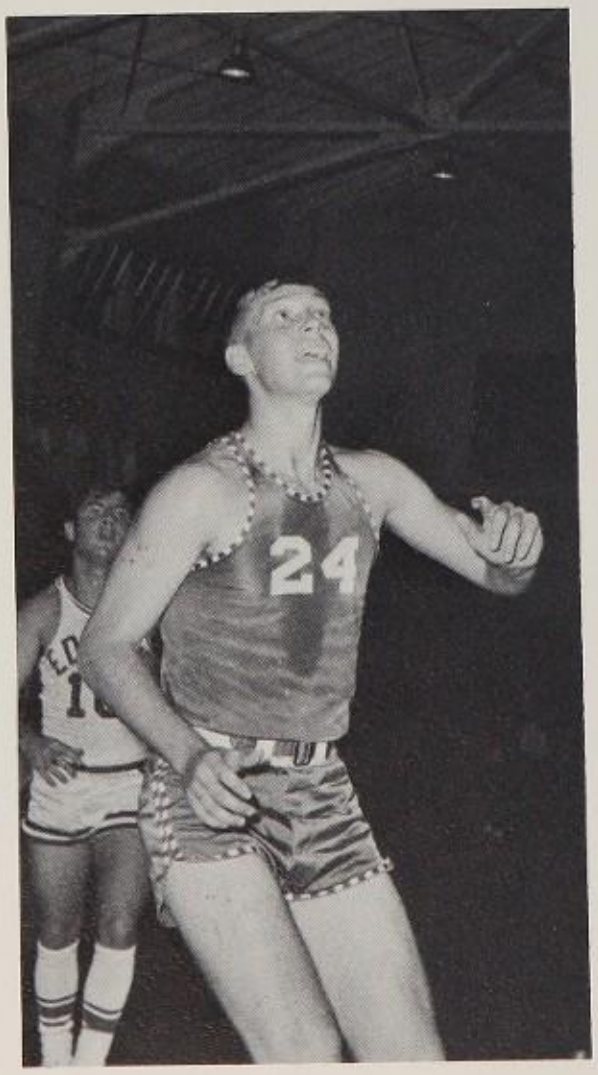
Coach Mullens offered helpful pointers.

OPONENTS TOWERED OVER S.W. CAGERS

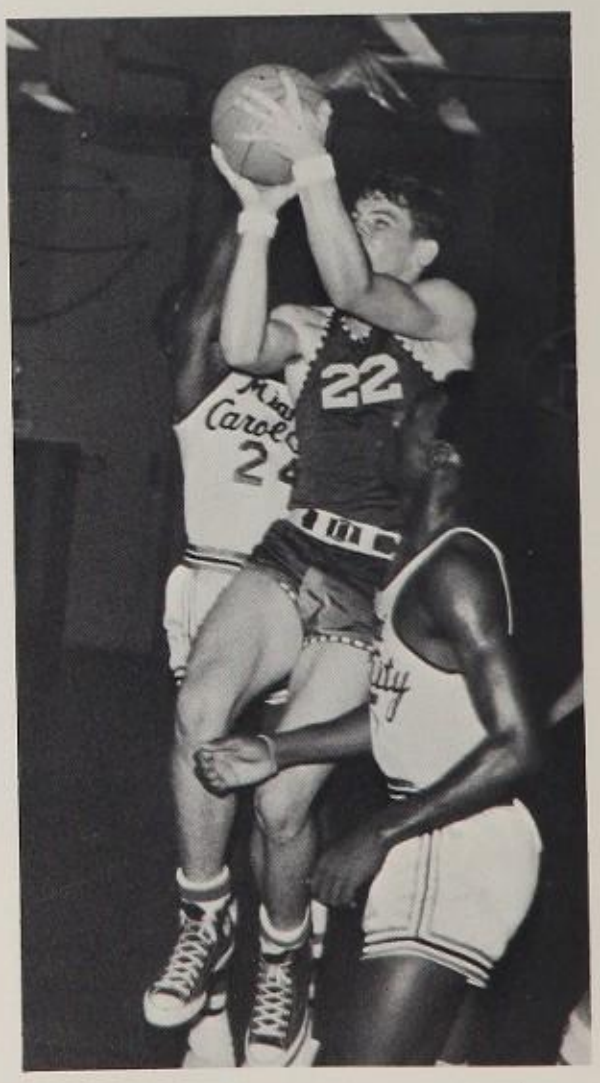
The Southwest Eagles and Carol City Chiefs battled for supremacy at the January 3rd game.



Kerry Rainey's blocking took on unusual form.



Anxiously awaiting the rebound was Maury Korn.



Chris Shead leapt for two points.

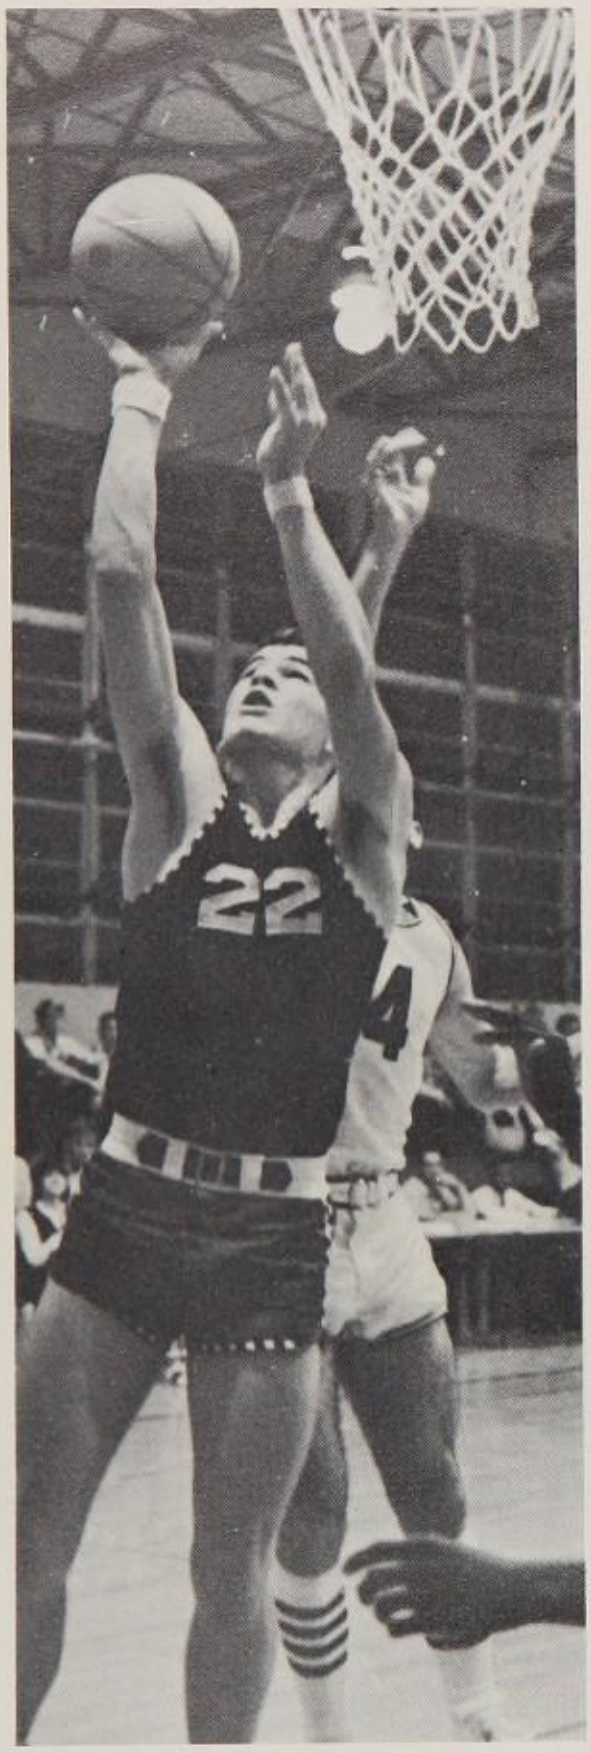
Despite a constant height disadvantage, Southwest's Varsity Cagers played the long 1966-67 season with spirit and drive. The season opened against Coral Park when the game climaxed with an Eagle victory as Maury Korn calmly sank two free shots with no time left for play.

New opponents in this year's schedule were highly ranked Carol City and Norland. As the season progressed S.W. displayed her strength on the boards and improved outside shooting.

High scoring Eagles throughout the season included Kerry Rainey and Maury Korn, seniors, and Chris Shead, who will return to lead next year's Eagles on both offense and defense.

Steve Fuller stretched back for a basket.

Carl Passoff fought for possession of the ball.



Chris Shead strove for perfect timing.

Carlos de los Reyes fought for the rebound.

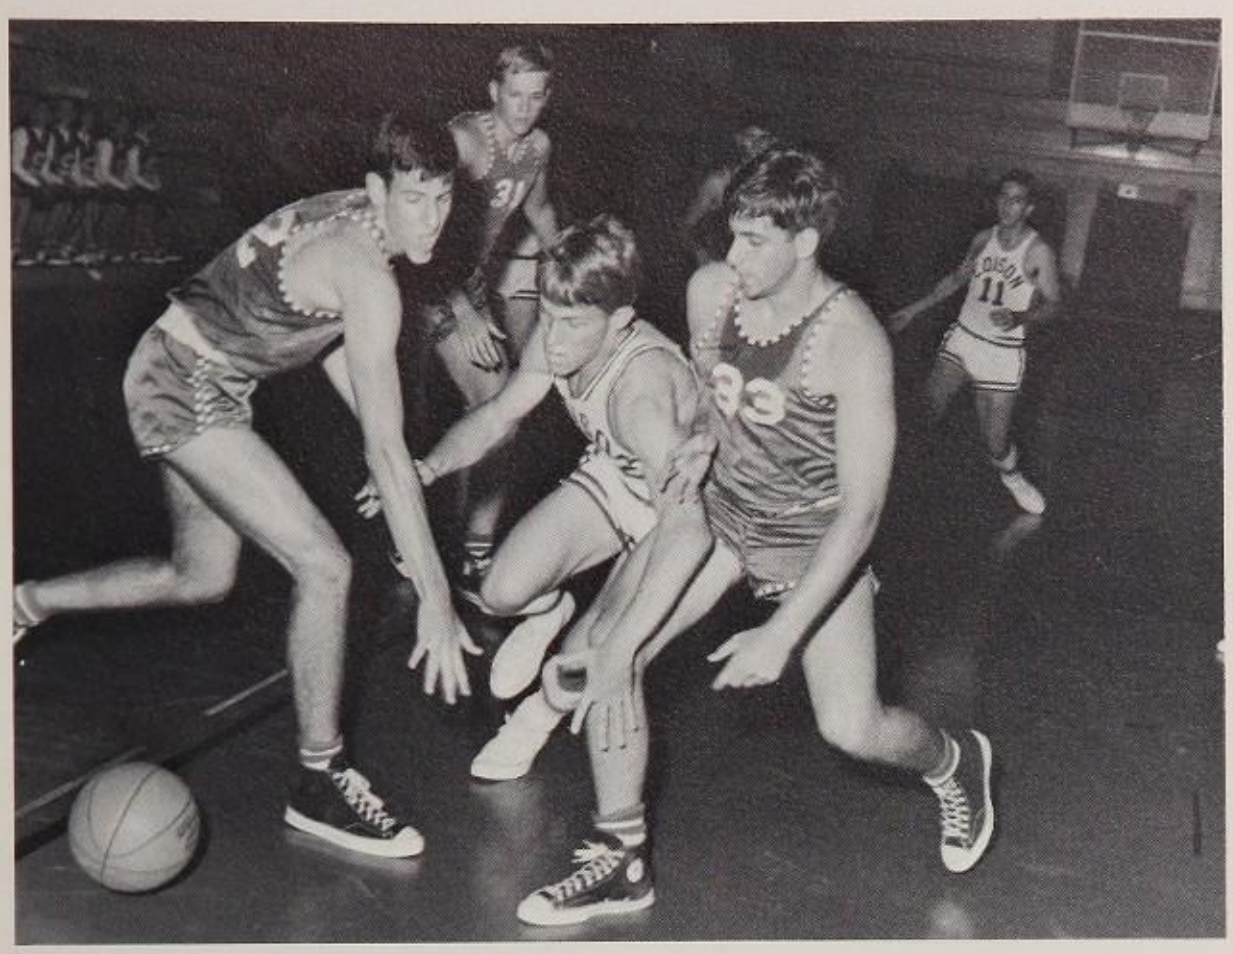
Basketball Coach Tom Mitchell.

Maury Korn challenged South Dade Rebel opponents to take possession of the ball.

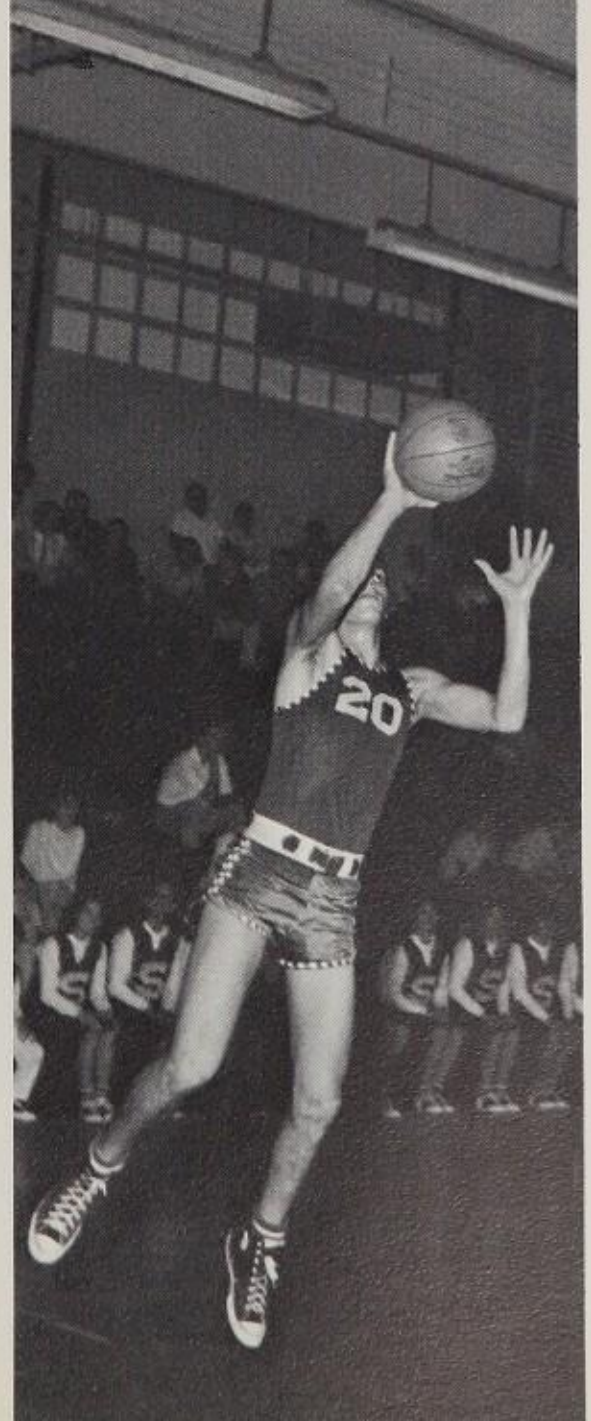
Swift on his feet was Carlos de los Reyes.

Ken Keyser heightened his guarding technique.

Edison players and Southwest's Louis Barocas and Mitch Taub battled for possession of the ball.



Southwest Eagles sprang into action.



Carlos de los Reyes caught the pass.

Southwest's Junior Varsity found out it sometimes paid to be the visitors.

The record of the Junior Varsity Eagle Cagers hardly indicated the potential of the players. The season started slowly, but Southwest's control of the boards and fast breaking improved steadily.

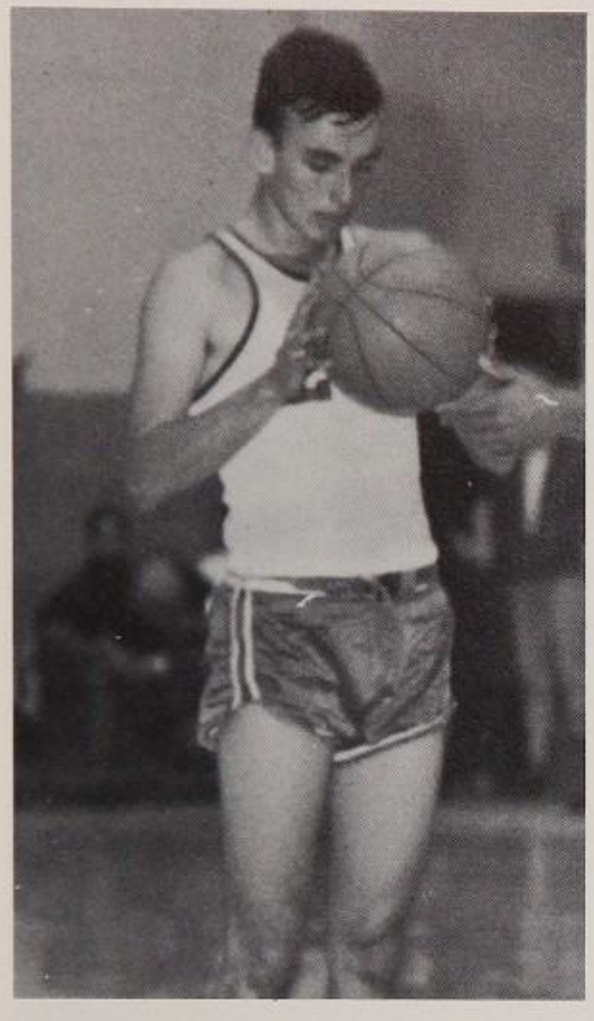
Coach Mullens, in his first year at Southwest, commented upon the rapid progress of the team towards the conclusion of the season. Particularly exciting were the first game against South Dade at their gym and the second clash with Coral Park at home.

The purpose of Junior Varsity playing was preparation for the 1967-1968 basketball season. Dale Weeks was outstanding on defense with his hustle and playmaking while Herb Benedict was the most improved player, gaining experience rebounding and shooting.

The Baby Eagles put up a great fight to a really rough opponent, the Norland Vikings.

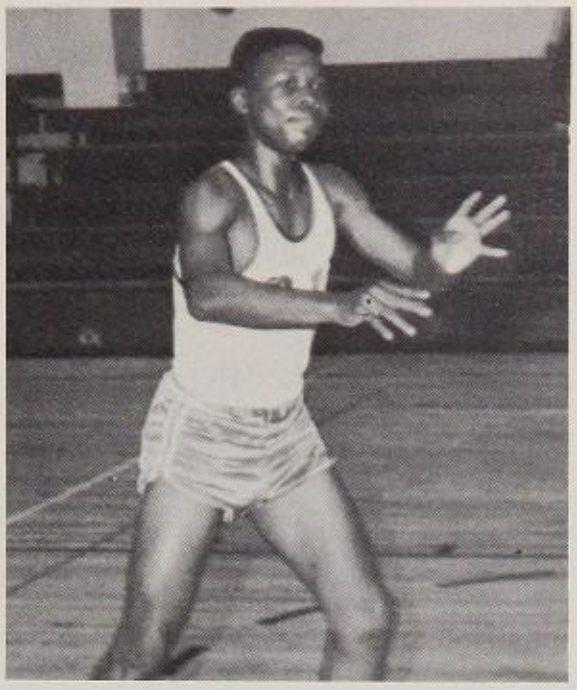
JUNIOR VARSITY GOT A NEW COACH

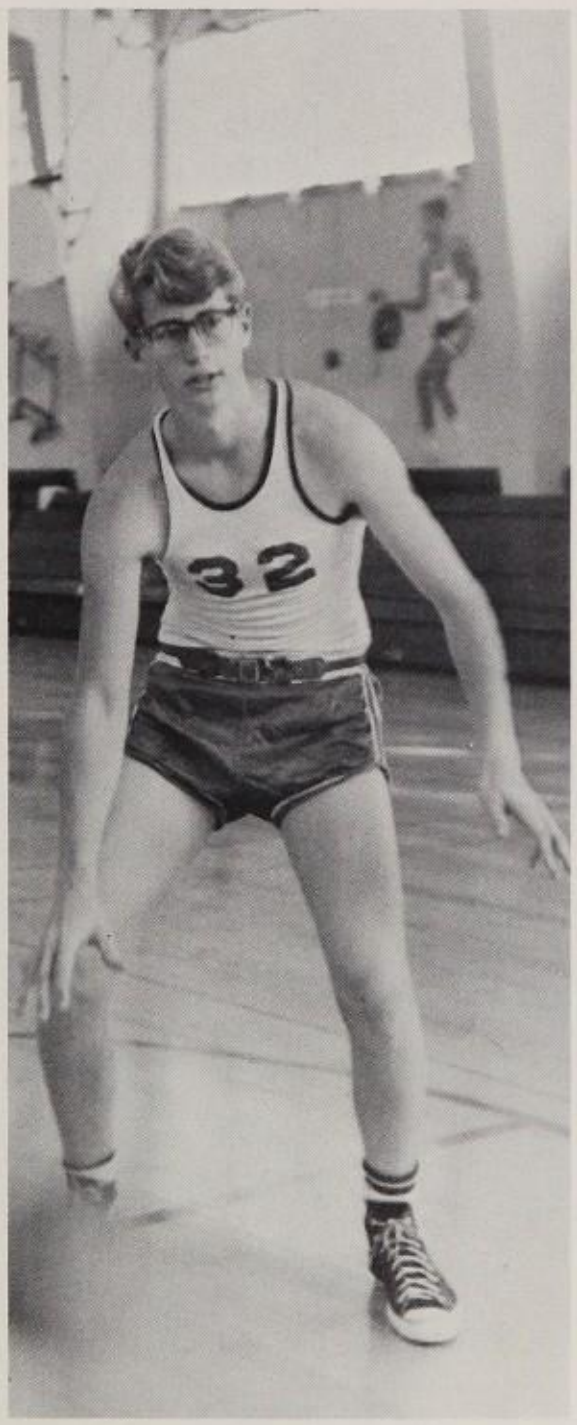
Neil Kelly contemplated his next move.



Williams Mullens, our new basketball coach.

Isiah Bellinger guarded for the Baby Eagles.





David Corson, number 32, practiced many hours.

Practice wasn't all hard work as was shown on the faces of Frank Gomez and Jerry Abraham.

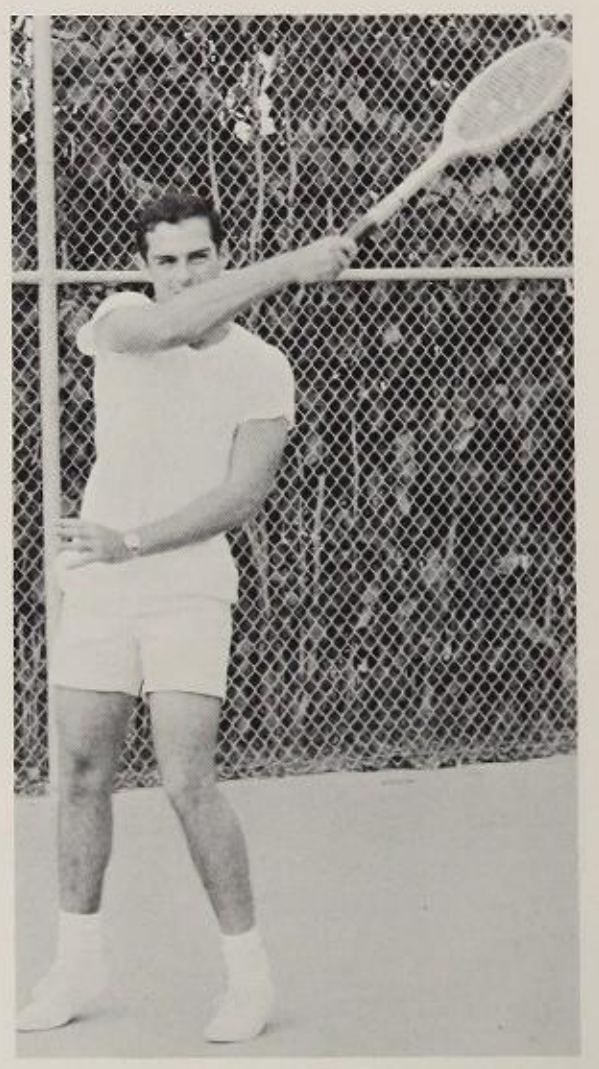
TENNIS TEAM RAISED A RACKET

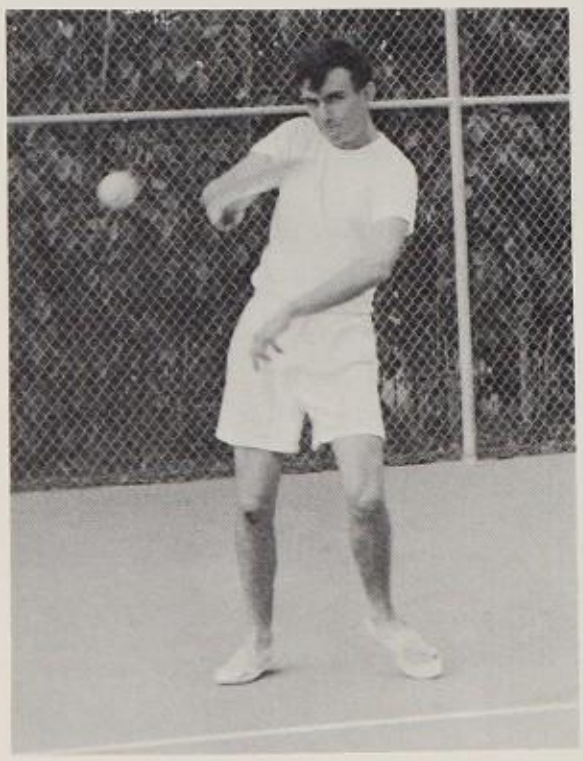
The Tennis team had its best season ever. Captain of the 1967 team was Mickey Ross who has been Southwest's number one player for three consecutive years. Coached by Babe Lepore, the team members participated in practice every day at the University of Miami tennis courts.

In an early season meet tennis records in single matches were set by Mickey Ross, who won three and lost two,while Alan Trupkin won two and lost two. In doubles Mickey Ross and Neil Kelly won two and lost one. Alan Trupkin and Steve Reisman won three and lost none. Other oustanding members were: Bill Werner, Leon Azis, John Cohen, and Nestor Hererra.

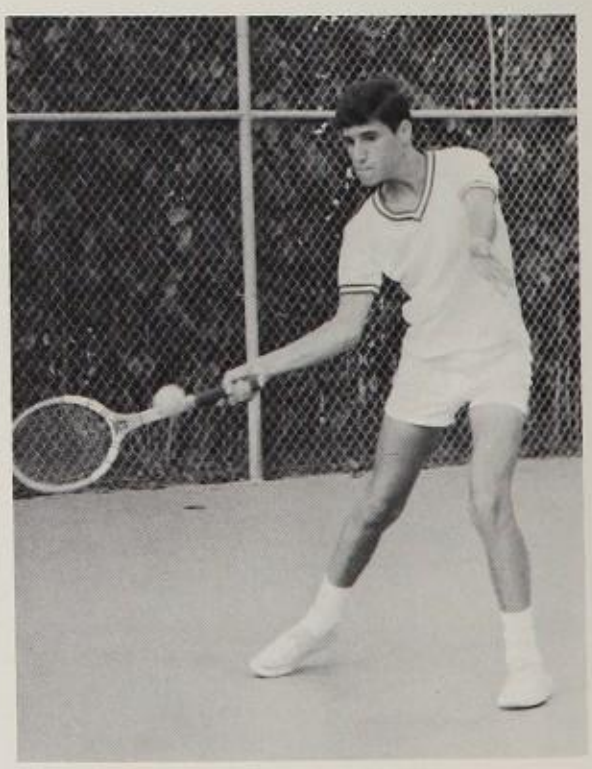
STANDING, LEFT TO RIGHT: Coach Lepore, Jon Cohen, Neil Kelly, Leon Azis, Nestor Herrera. KNEELING: Bob Werner, Mickey Ross, Steve Reisman. NOT PICTURED: Alan Trupkin.

Mickey Ross, team captain, stressed the importance of following through.





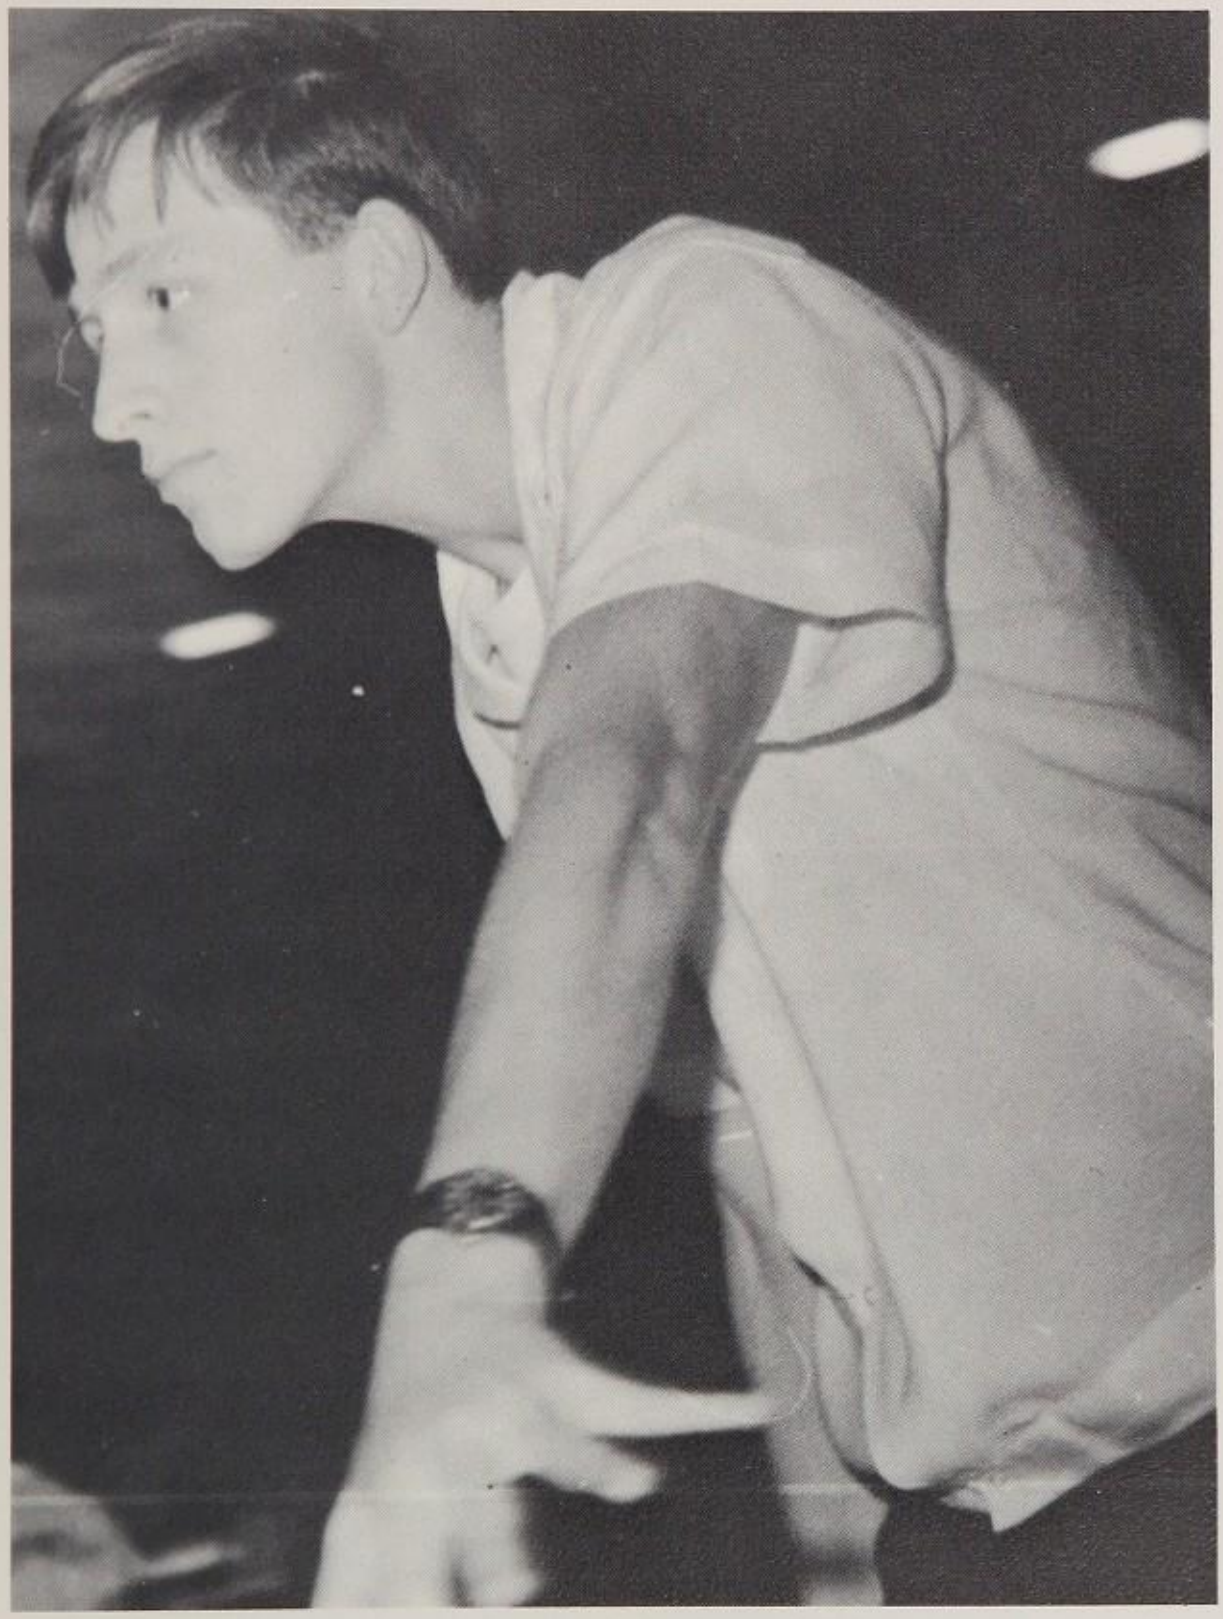
Neil Kelly appeared frustrated . . .



but Steve Reisman showed determination.

BOWLING TEAM STRUCK HARD

The 1967 Bowling team got off to a good start. With half of the season over Southwest was rated third and was in contention for the Southern Divisional title. In February, the team met South Dade at Bird Bowl. The girls' team lost their first game but were still able to win the set. The boys' team won only one game and lost their match. At an earlier meet against Coral Gables High School, Rex Wallin bowled a 246, setting a new school record.



Eagle bowler, Larry Anderson, bowled a 216 against the South Dade Rebels.

Eagle bowlers scored high.

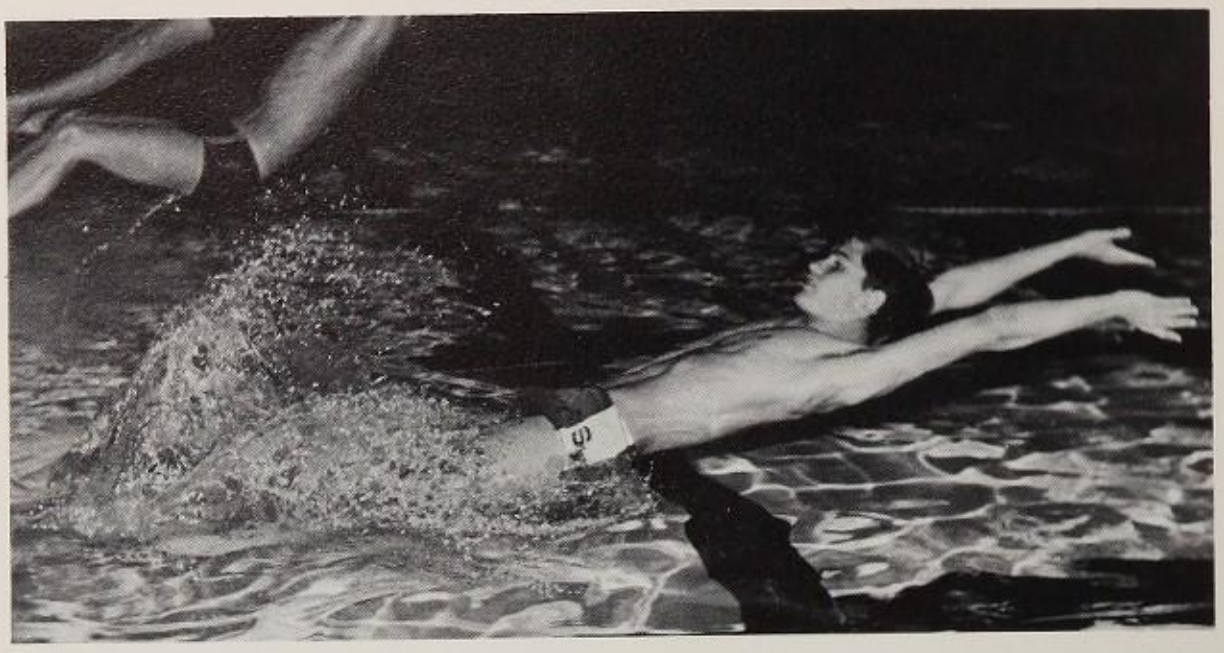
S.W.'S TEAM WAS IN THE SWIM

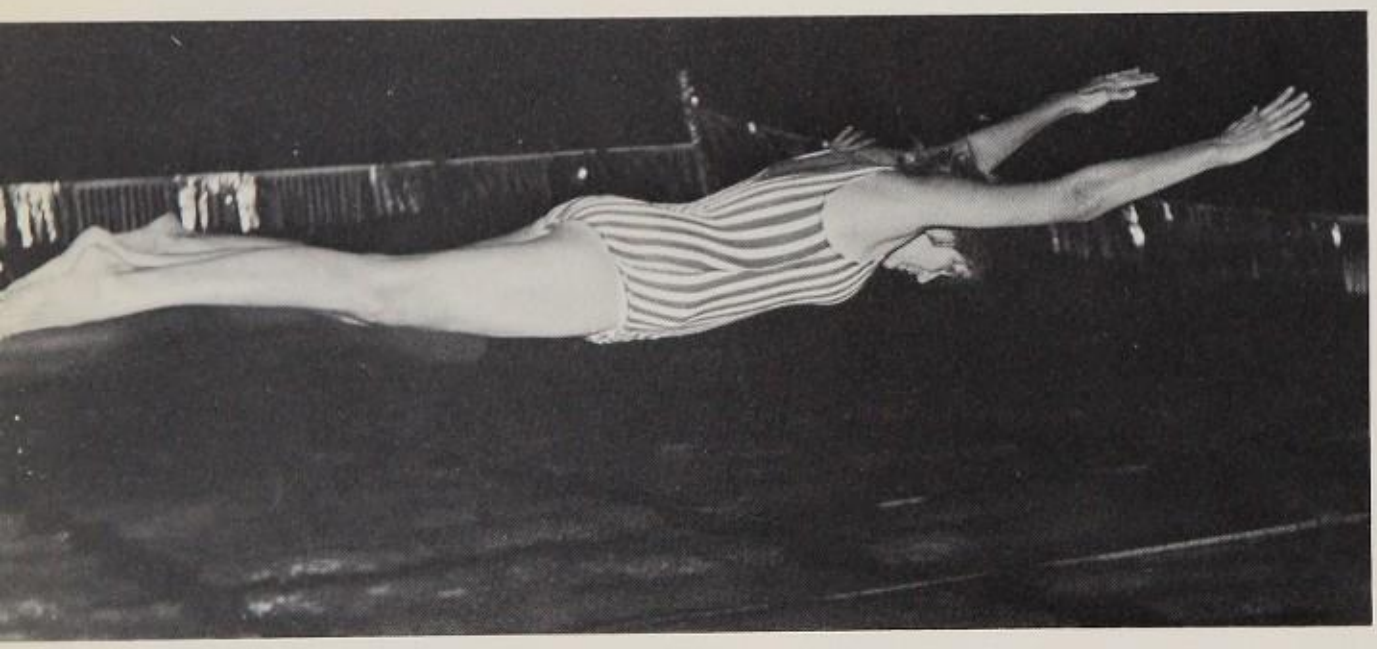
Coached by Pat Patterson, the 1967 Swim team practiced after school at the Paladium for two to three hours. The team traveled to Vero Beach to participate in a meet with Vero Beach High School. At the meet a new 200 meter relay school record was set by Jeff LaRochelle, Chris Shead, Pete Southard, and Bruce Murray as the boys raced to victory, 53-42. Barbara Erickson placed first in divind but the girls were defeated.

The boys' team was best in their performances of the butterfly, backstroke, and free style. The backstroke was the specialty of the girls' team.

A good start was an important part of each swimming event.

Pete Southard stretched hard to add extra inches to his start.





Carol Evans mastered the butterfly stroke.

Katie Stanton wondered if she was still in the running.

Charner Skagseth and Jeff LaRochelle hurriedly discussed the strategy of their next swim meet.

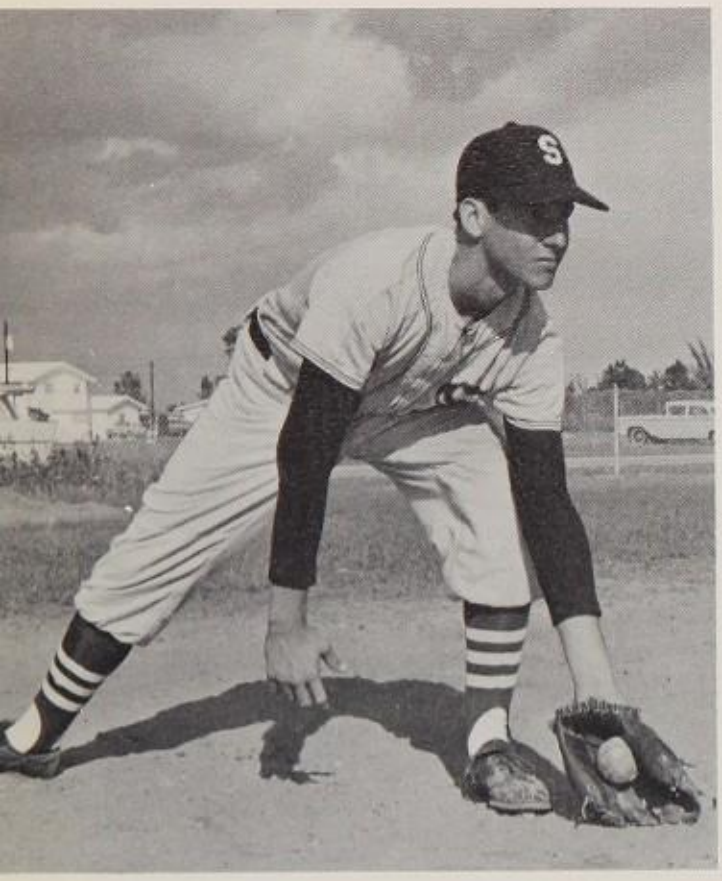
Katie Stanton and Mary Kearns were actively employed at S.W. swim meet.

Superior diving was exemplified by Charner Skagseth's graceful style and form.

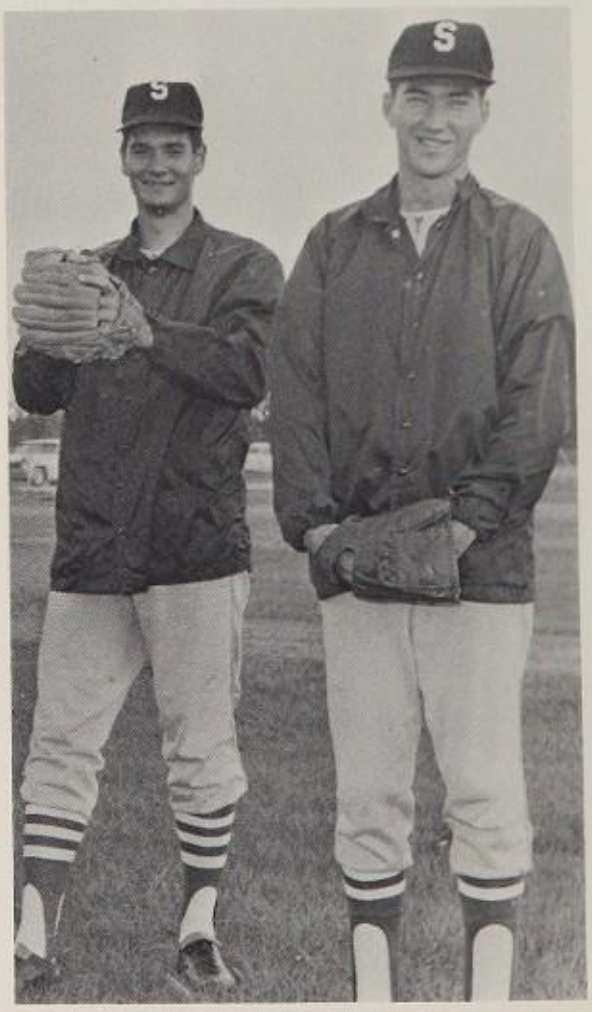
S.W. BASEBALL TEAM IMPROVED WITH AGE

Alberto Rodriquez covered third base.



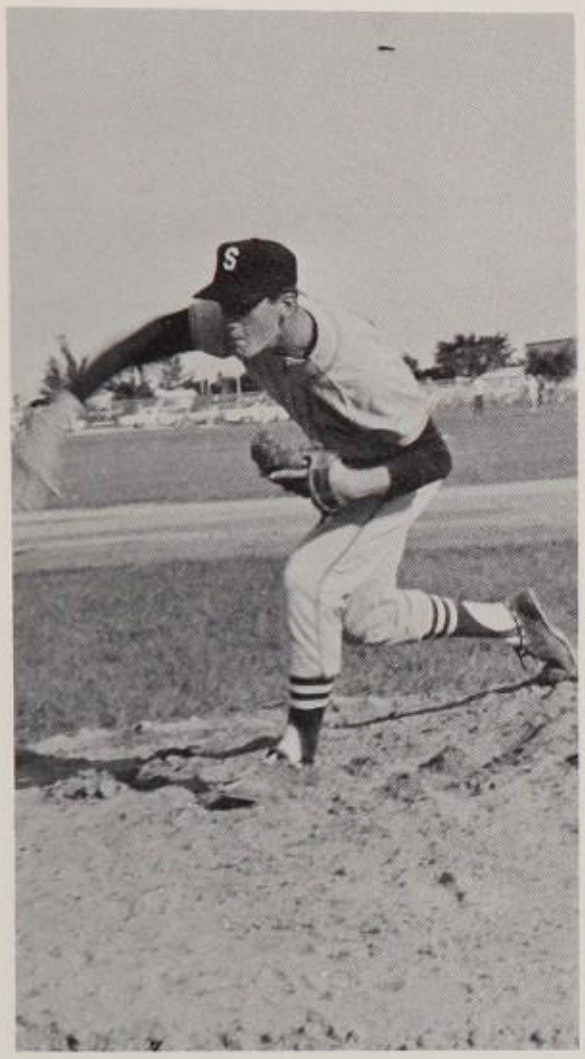
Mark Stockwell was promptly tagged out in practice at second base.

Kerry Rainey was a returning letterman who played first base.



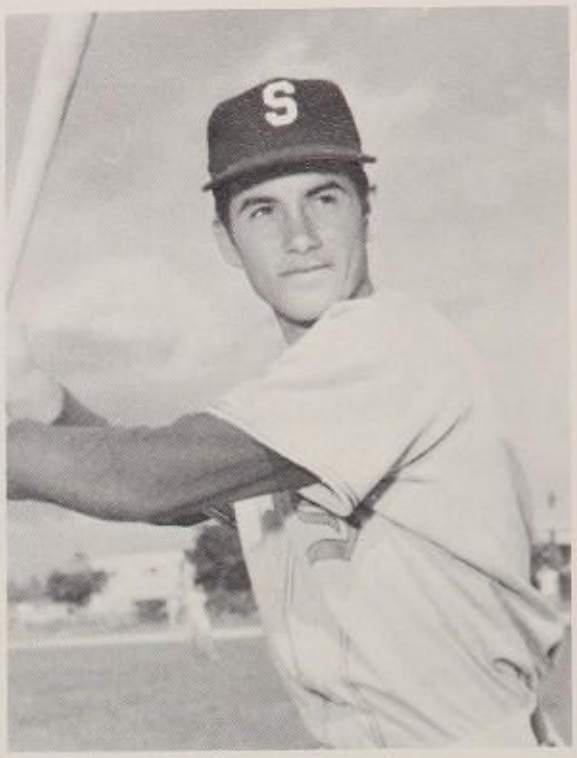
Ray Bare and Chris Brown were part of the six man S.W. pitching team.

Gary Benthen's curve ball helped produce an Eagle victory.



Third baseman, Lahny Martin, caught the first out of the game.

David Augustine was a valuable man.



Tommy Mueller, pitcher, and John Rotunn, outfielder, were part of Southwest's baseball team.

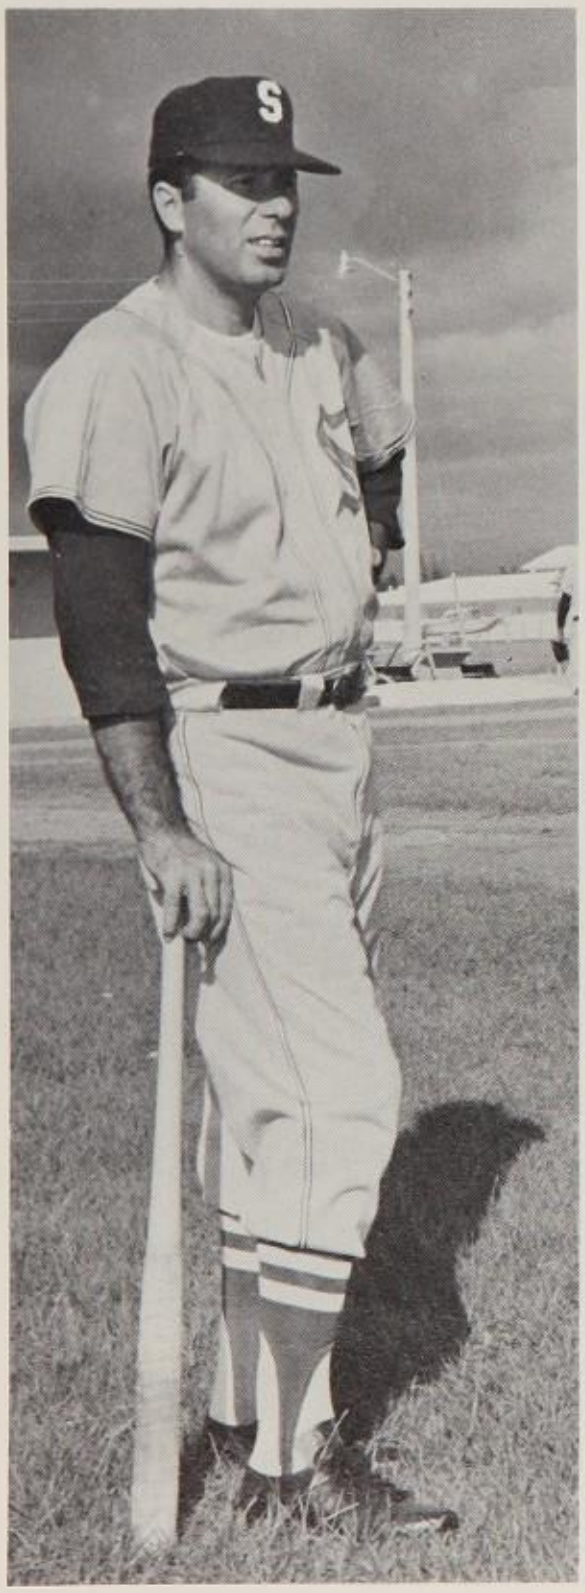
Comprising part of Southwest's six man pitching team were Fletcher Stromer, Gary Benthen, Tommy Mueller, and Dennis Murphy.

Russ Crankshaw agilely slid home.

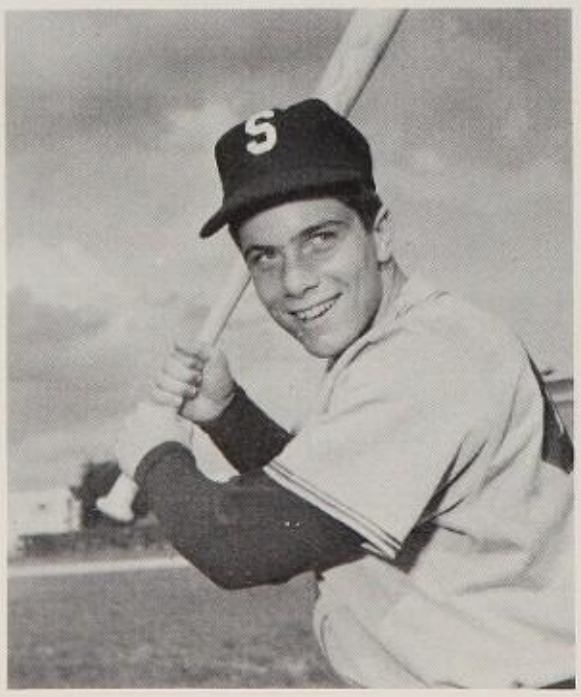
"I'm setting my sights high believing sincerely we will have a championship team." Early in the season, baseball coach, Marty Levin expressed his optimistic aims in his disciplined training of the team. High morale and confidence was the keynote of the season and as time passed, the teamwork and cooperation was vital.

The seniors on the team helped to train the underclassmen and the experience they gained would aid the coming seasons. This year's schedule opened against South Dade. The pitching staff, especially Dennis Murphy, was outstanding and leading players were Ray Bare, Chris Brown, Carlis Jackson, Mark Stockwell, and Richard Martin.

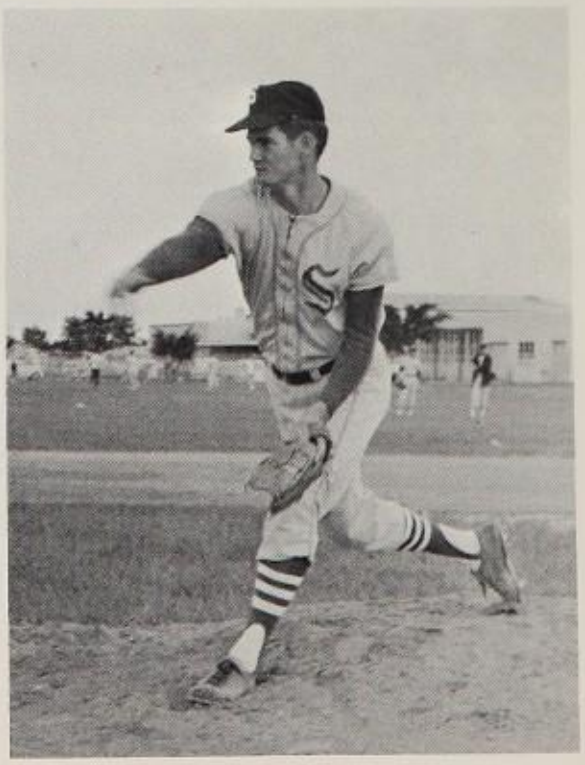
Pre-game activity aided S.W. players.



Marty Levin, baseball coach for S.W.



First baseman Randy Parks also was an excellent batter.



Ray Bare practiced his pitching.

Boys received briefing by Coach Levin before an important game.

Jimmy Colson was an improved batter.

WRESTLERS SHOWED STAMINA

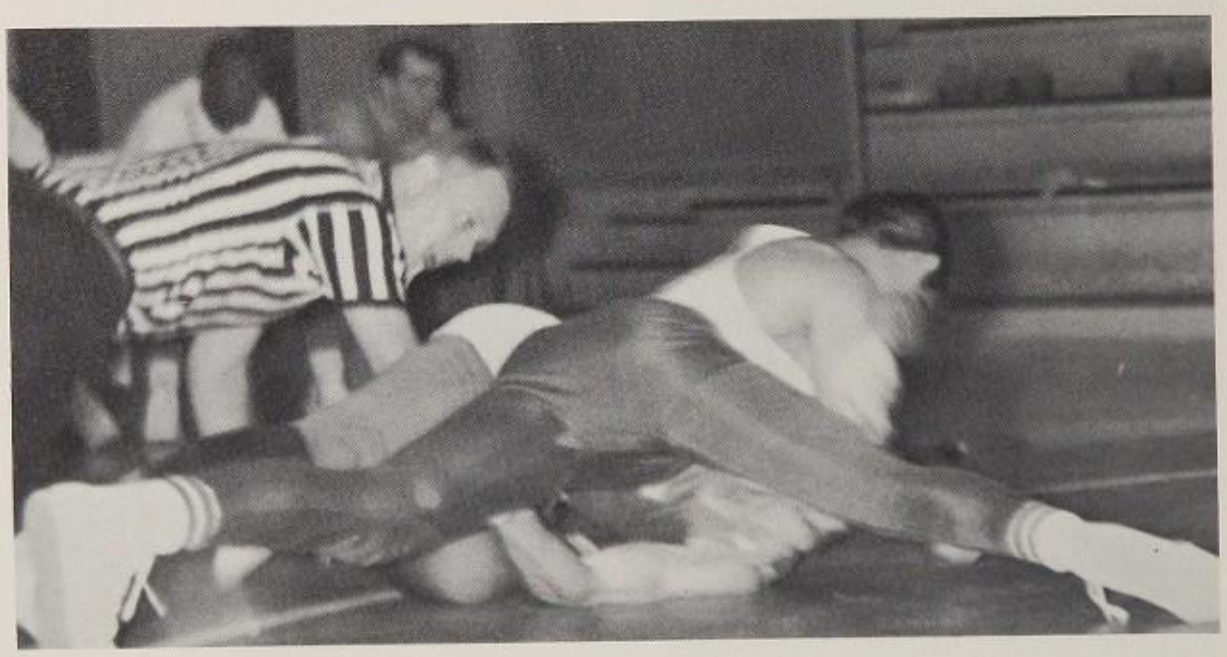
Dan Zoco escaped his opponent's ride.

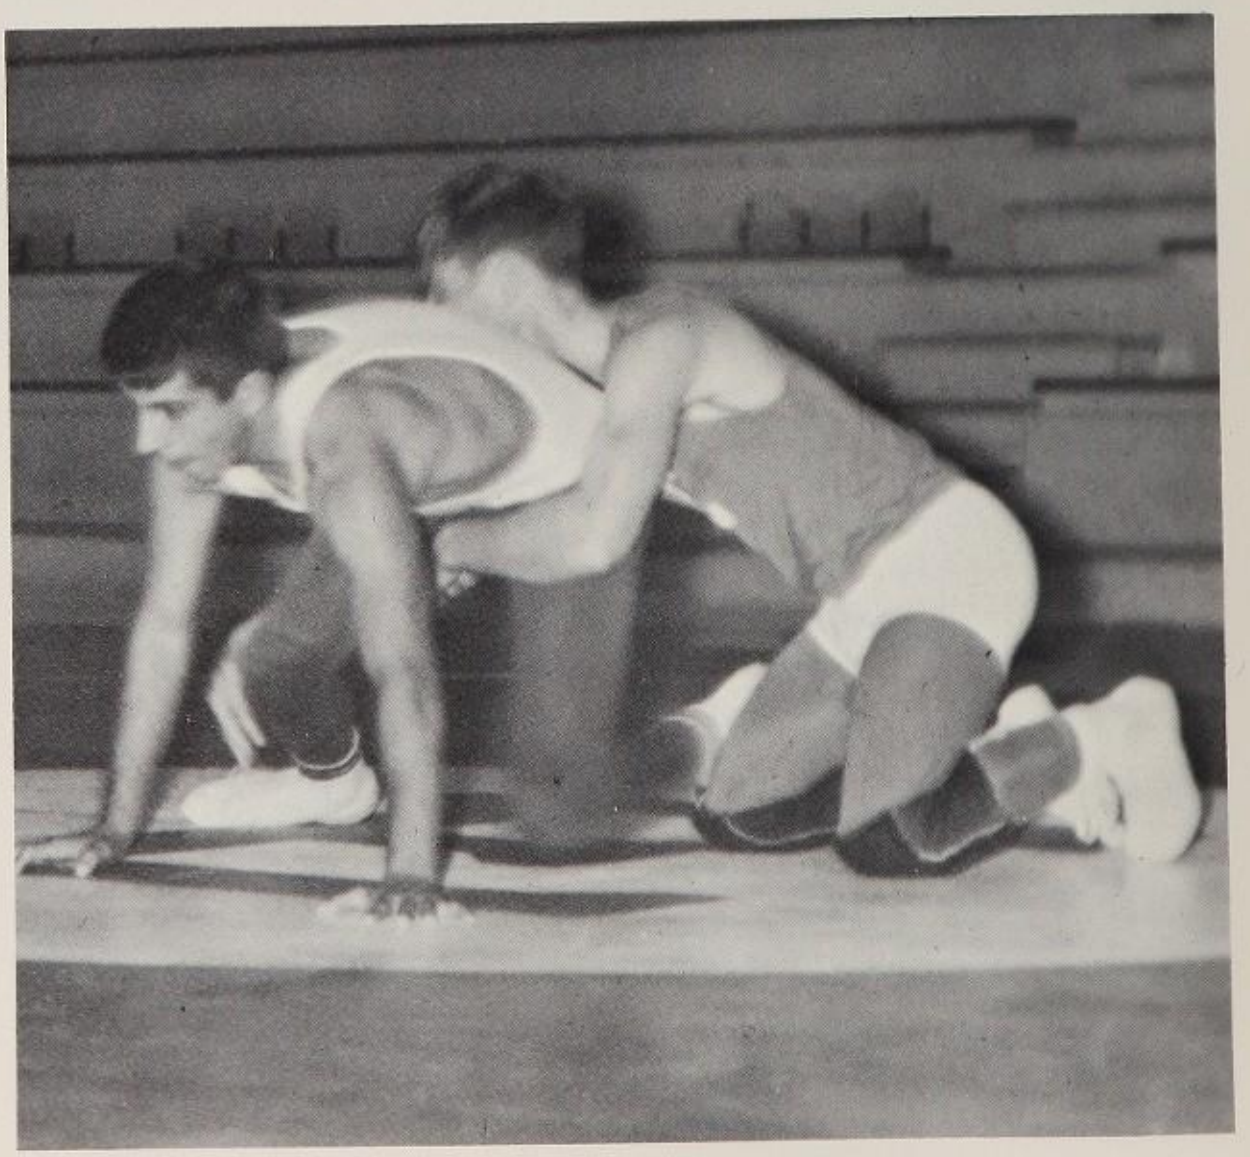
The Eagle matmen had the talent and desire, but were missing men in the 95, 103, 180 and unlimited weight divisions.

Andre Kardos, wrestling in the 123 pound division proved to be the best all around wrestler of the year. Andre pinned his opponents frequently.

Coach Floyd Holcomb instilled in each team member a knowledge of wrestling and a will to win. An undying team spirit followed the wrestling team through the entire season, despite the limited size of this years team.

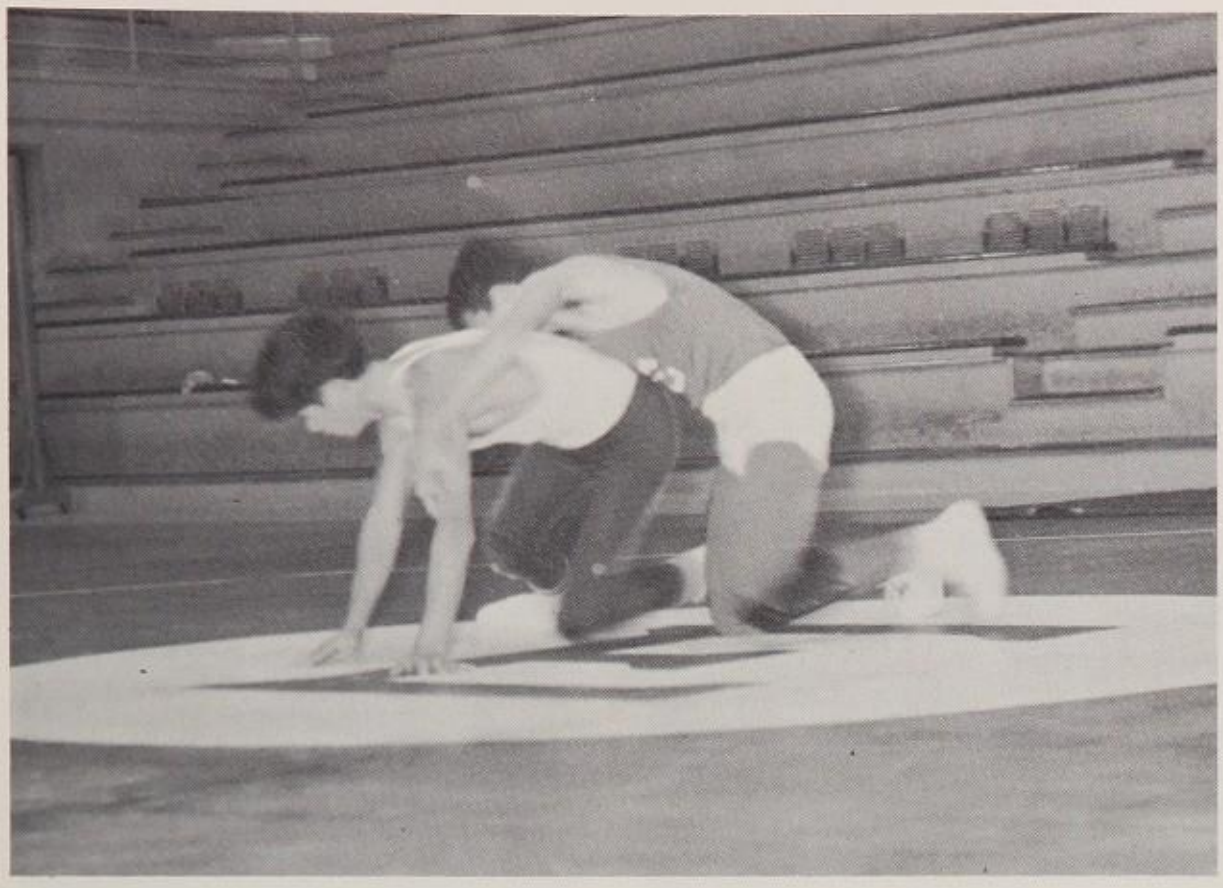
An Eagle matman received two points for a take-down, plus three points for a near-fall.

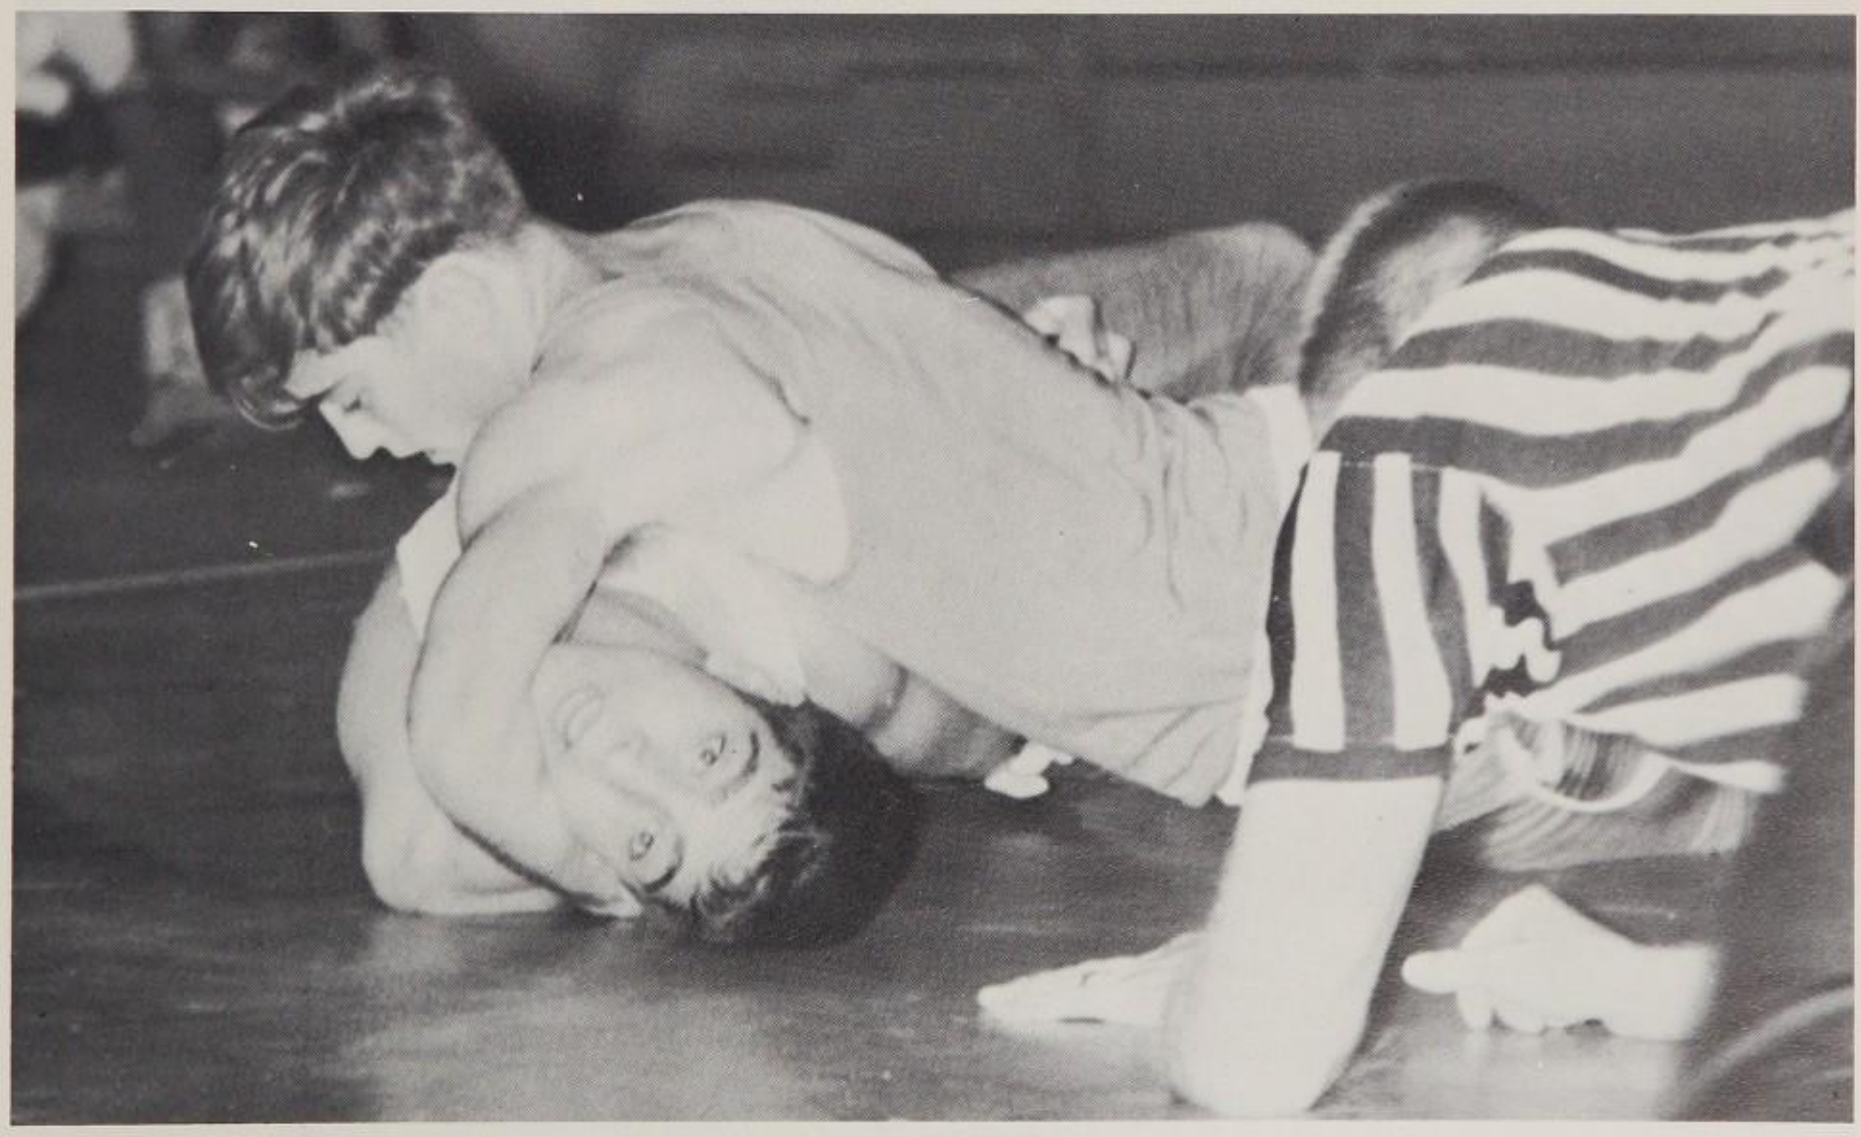




Andre Kardos, an outstanding wrestler, executed a sit-out and later pinned his opponent.

Gary Marino escaped from his opponent when he used a quick sit-out.





Although Andre Kardos, who wrestled in the 123 pound weight division, was in a predicament, he kept bridging.

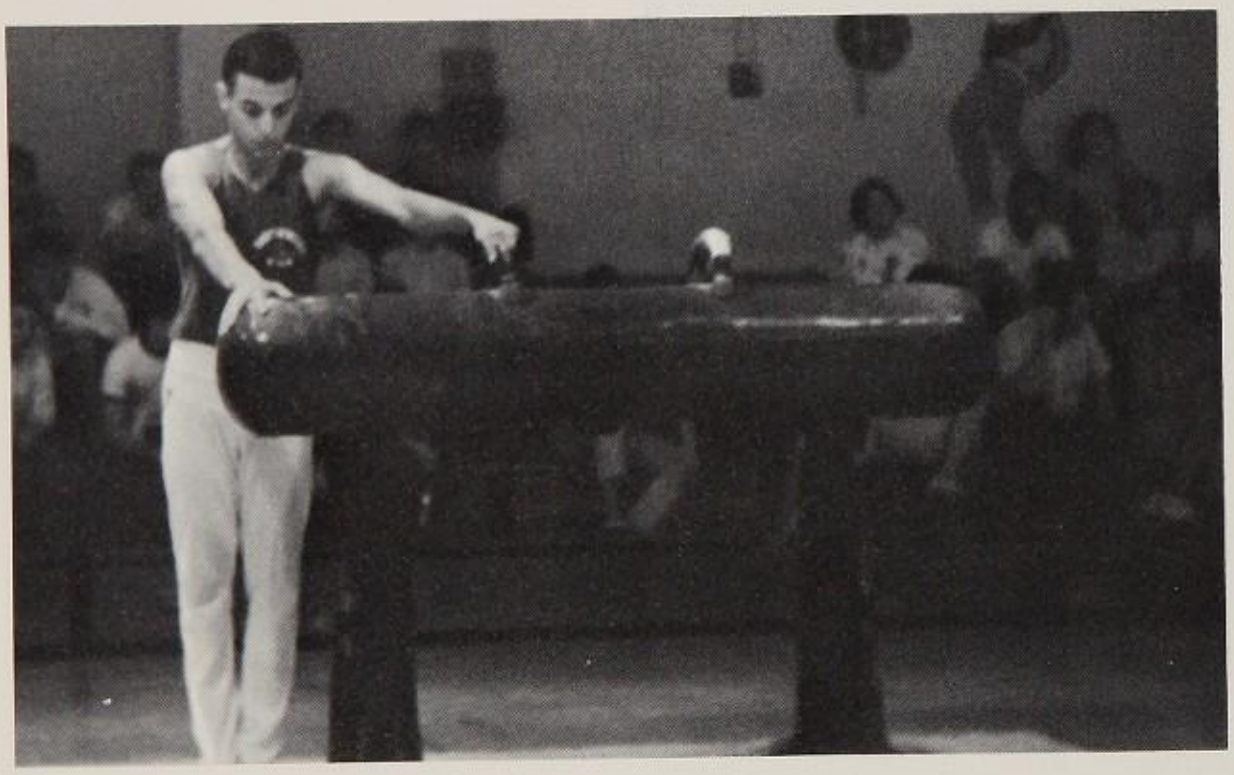
GYMNASTS WERE SPIRITED

Long hours of practice and a determined team spirit made the 1967 gymnastics team one of the best Southwest has ever had. Coach Ed Borkowski gave valuable instruction which resulted in a winning team for Southwest.

Outstanding gymnasts were Frank LeGrand, who performed on the side horse, vaulting horse, and parallel bars; Mike White, all-around; and David Augustine, who performed on the vaulting horse.

Gymnastics required all the efforts of its participants. This sport required more body control and grace than almost any other. The gymnast must build up his strength and endurance and develop his potential coordination.

Senior Danny Lliteras prepared to mount the side horse for one of his routines.



Mike White excelled in stunts which were performed on the side horse.

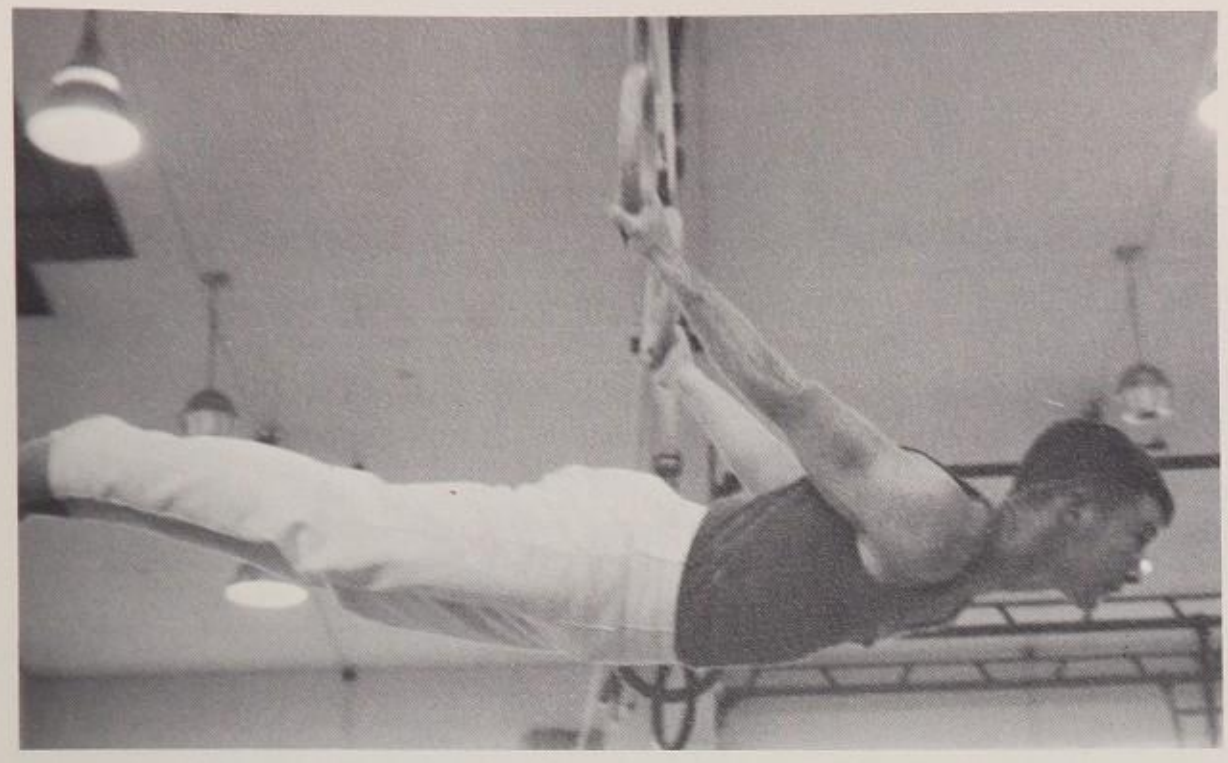
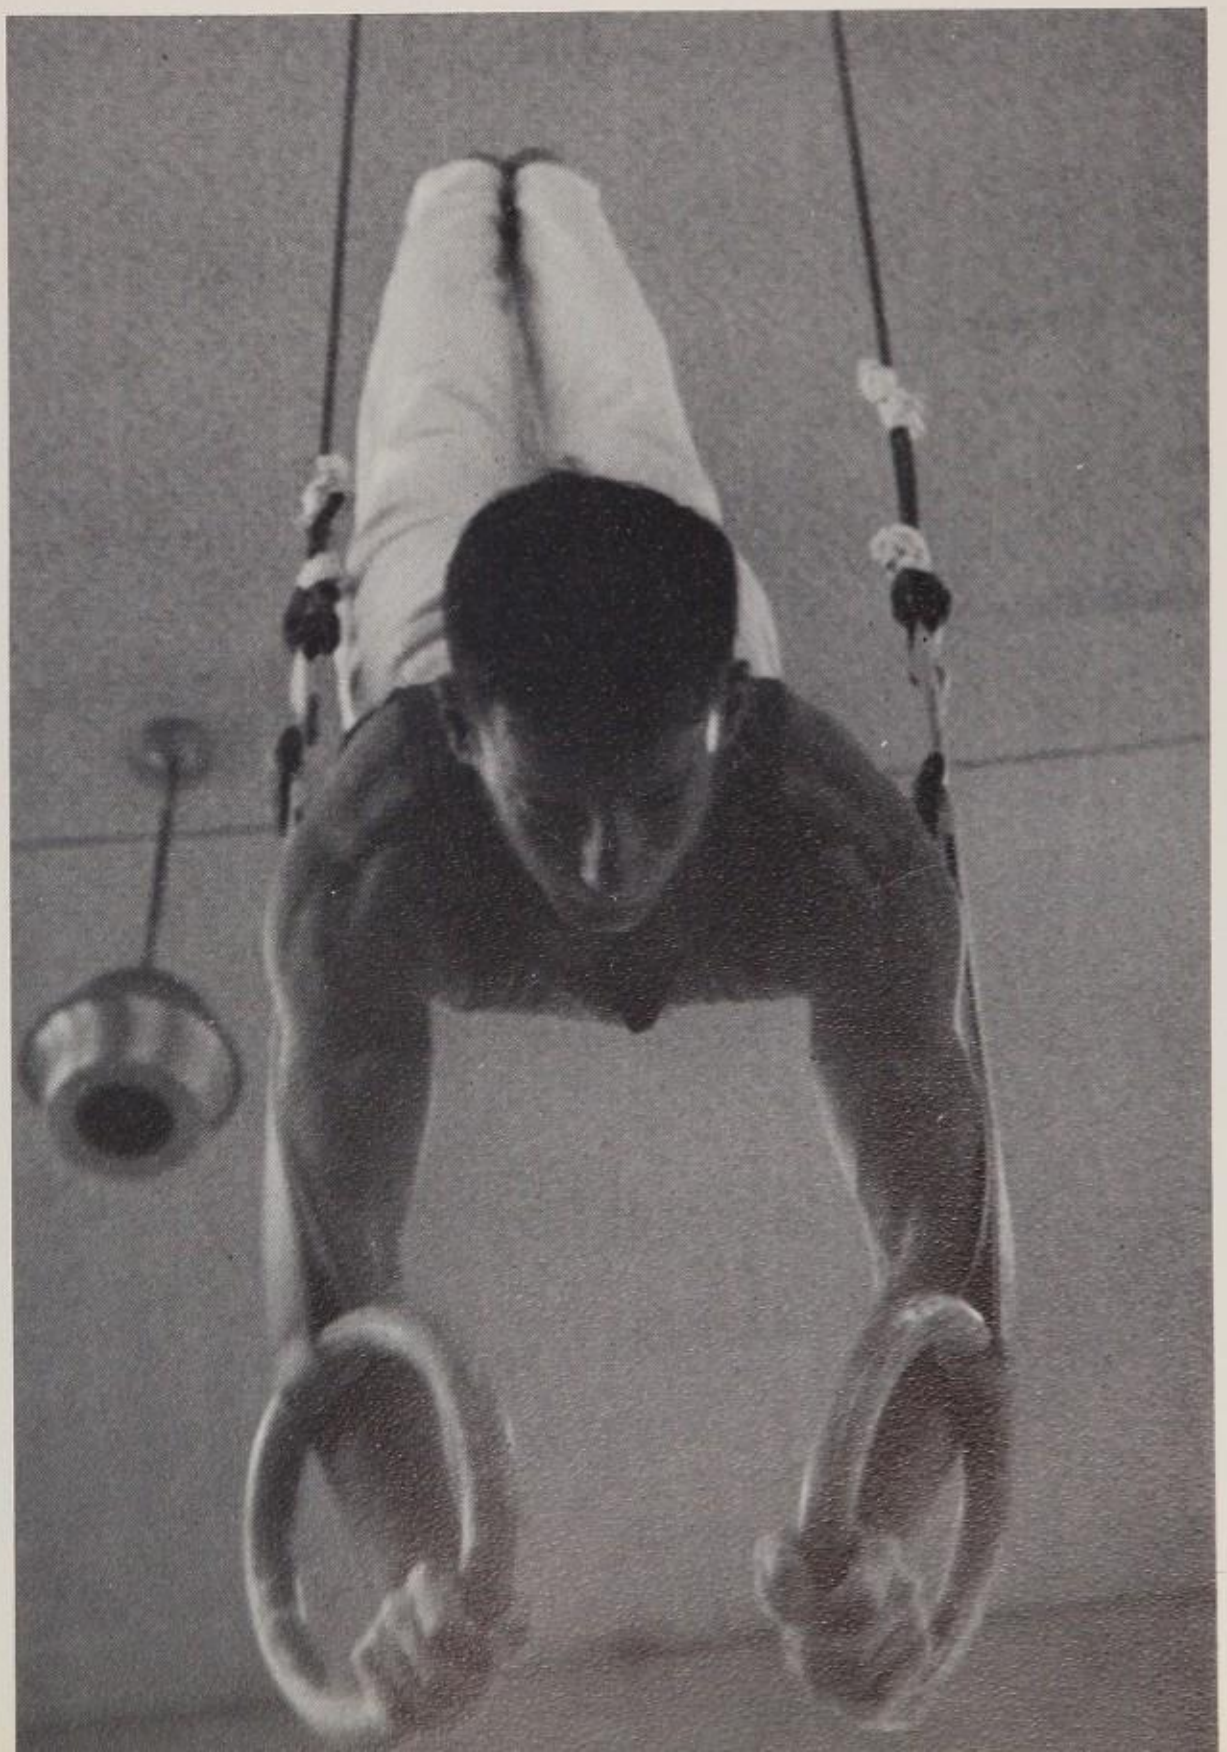
Art Glennon held an erect position while on the rings.



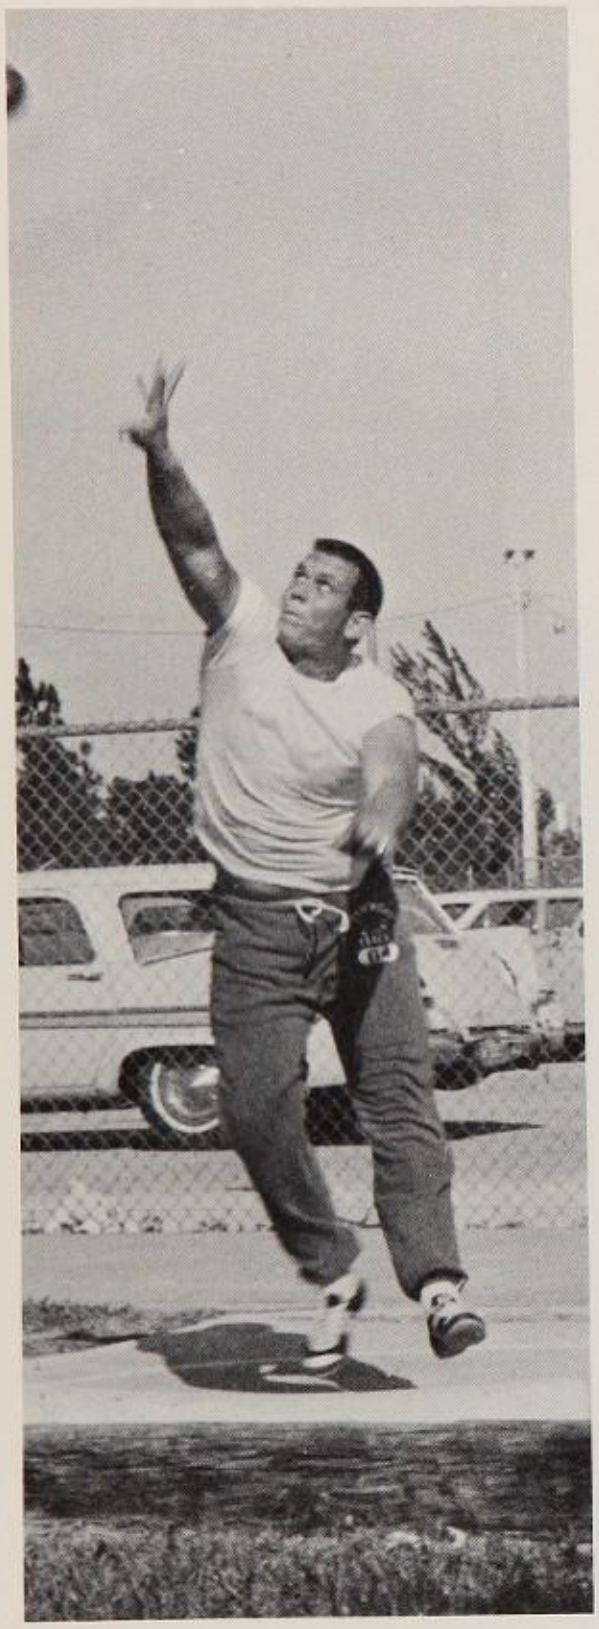
Art Glennon looked down at the world.

Performing on the parallel bars was a feat of great strength.



CINDERMEN RAN TO VICTORY

Eagle cindermen got off to a slow start due to numerous injuries. The 1967 track team was an exceptionally good, fast team with outstanding men in every event. Practice was held for Eagle cindermen every day. The shot and discus men lifted weights while distance men and sprinters conditioned by running distances and wind sprints. Many home meets were held because of Southwest's asphalt track. Outstanding athletes were Ron Rondeau, John Beckman, Danny Raider, Bill Talbot, Bill Wieand, Jay Dunnagan, Russell Aste, Bill Ward, Gary Platt, and Ron Tannenbaum. Coach Fred Ellis inspired the Eagle trackmen to a victorious season with the slogan, "No one has ever drowned in sweat."



Tom Ellis put the shot.

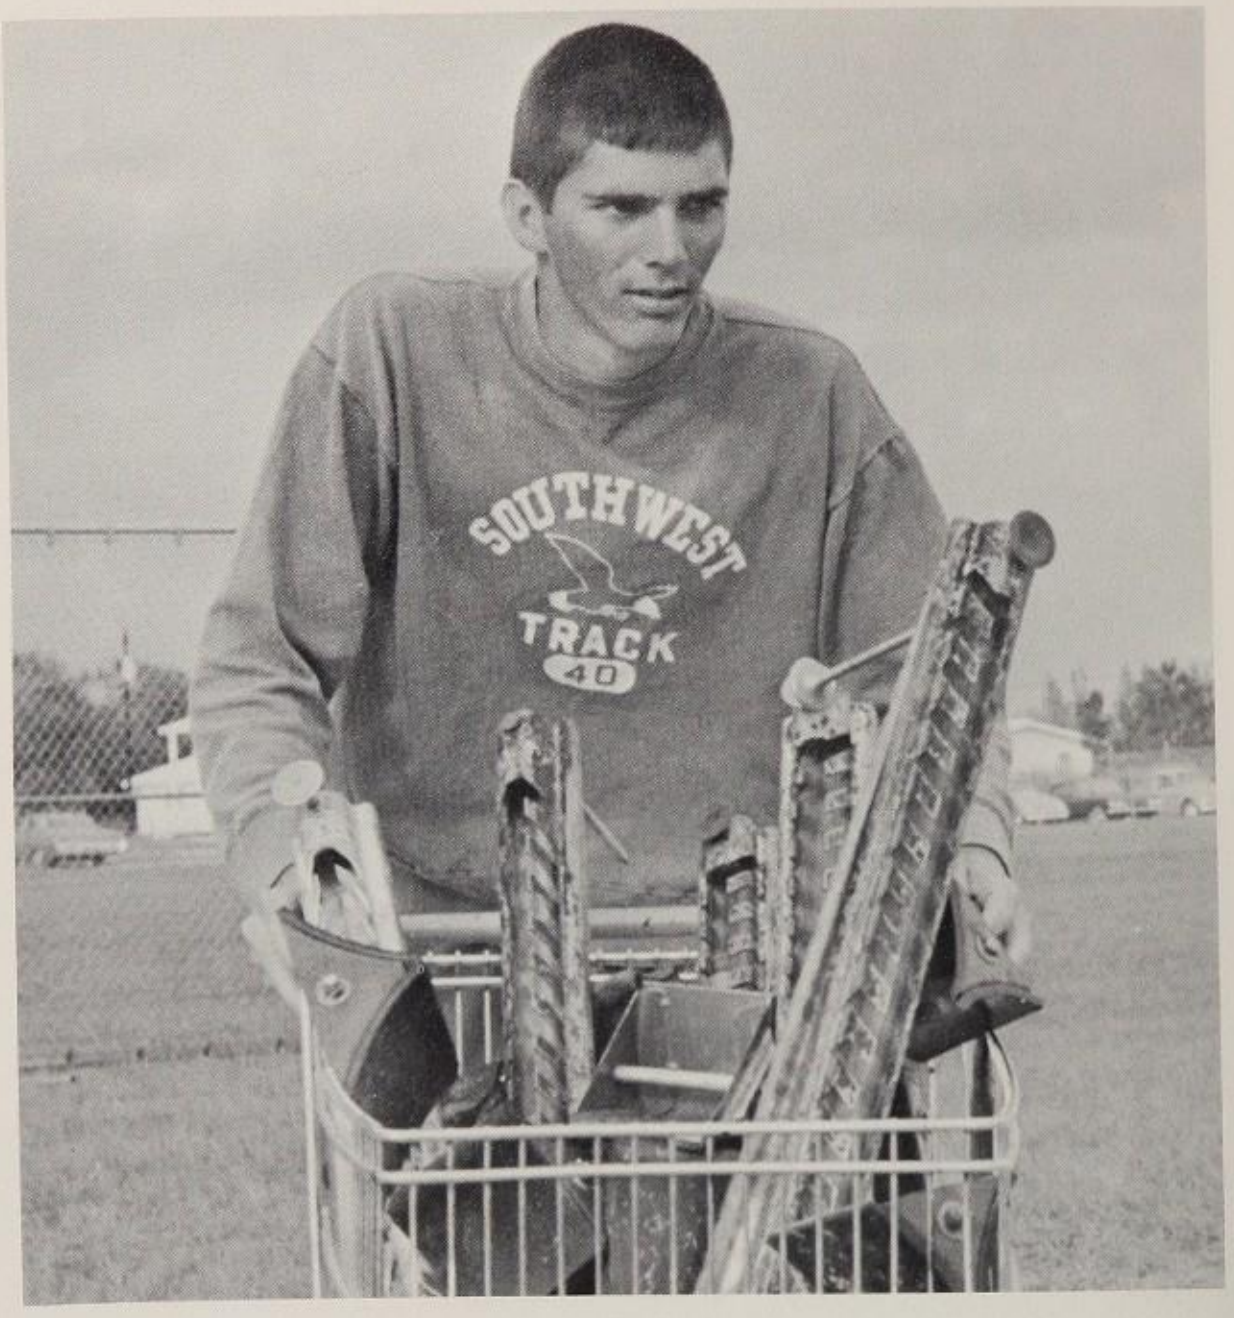
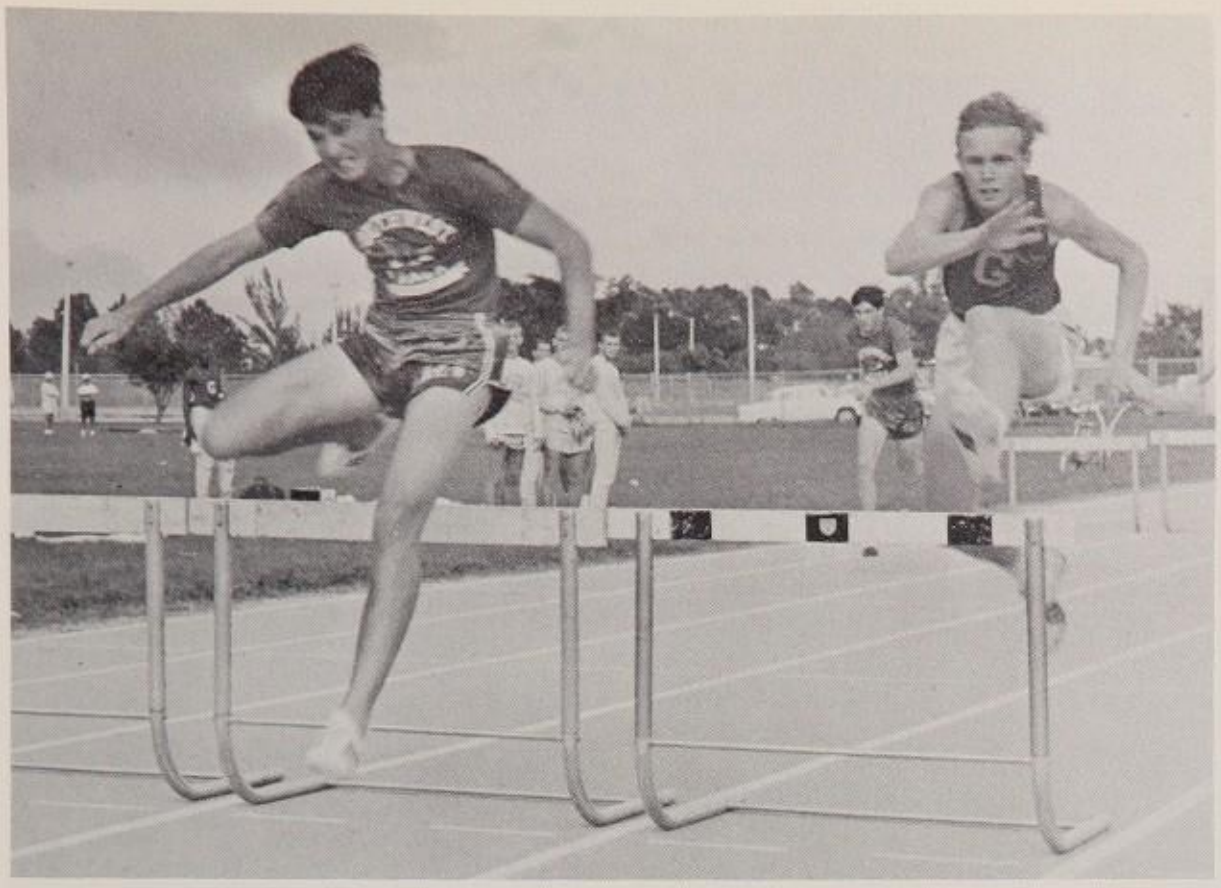
Cross-Country Team: BOTTOM ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Gary Platt, Mark Glantz, Jim Pierce. SECOND ROW: Steve Davis, George Romph, Bob Zachritz. THIRD ROW: Bill Talbot, Jim Cooper. TOP ROW: Ray Shelton, Ricky Buckman, George Raff.

Practice and endurance resulted in Ricky Buckman taking the lead.

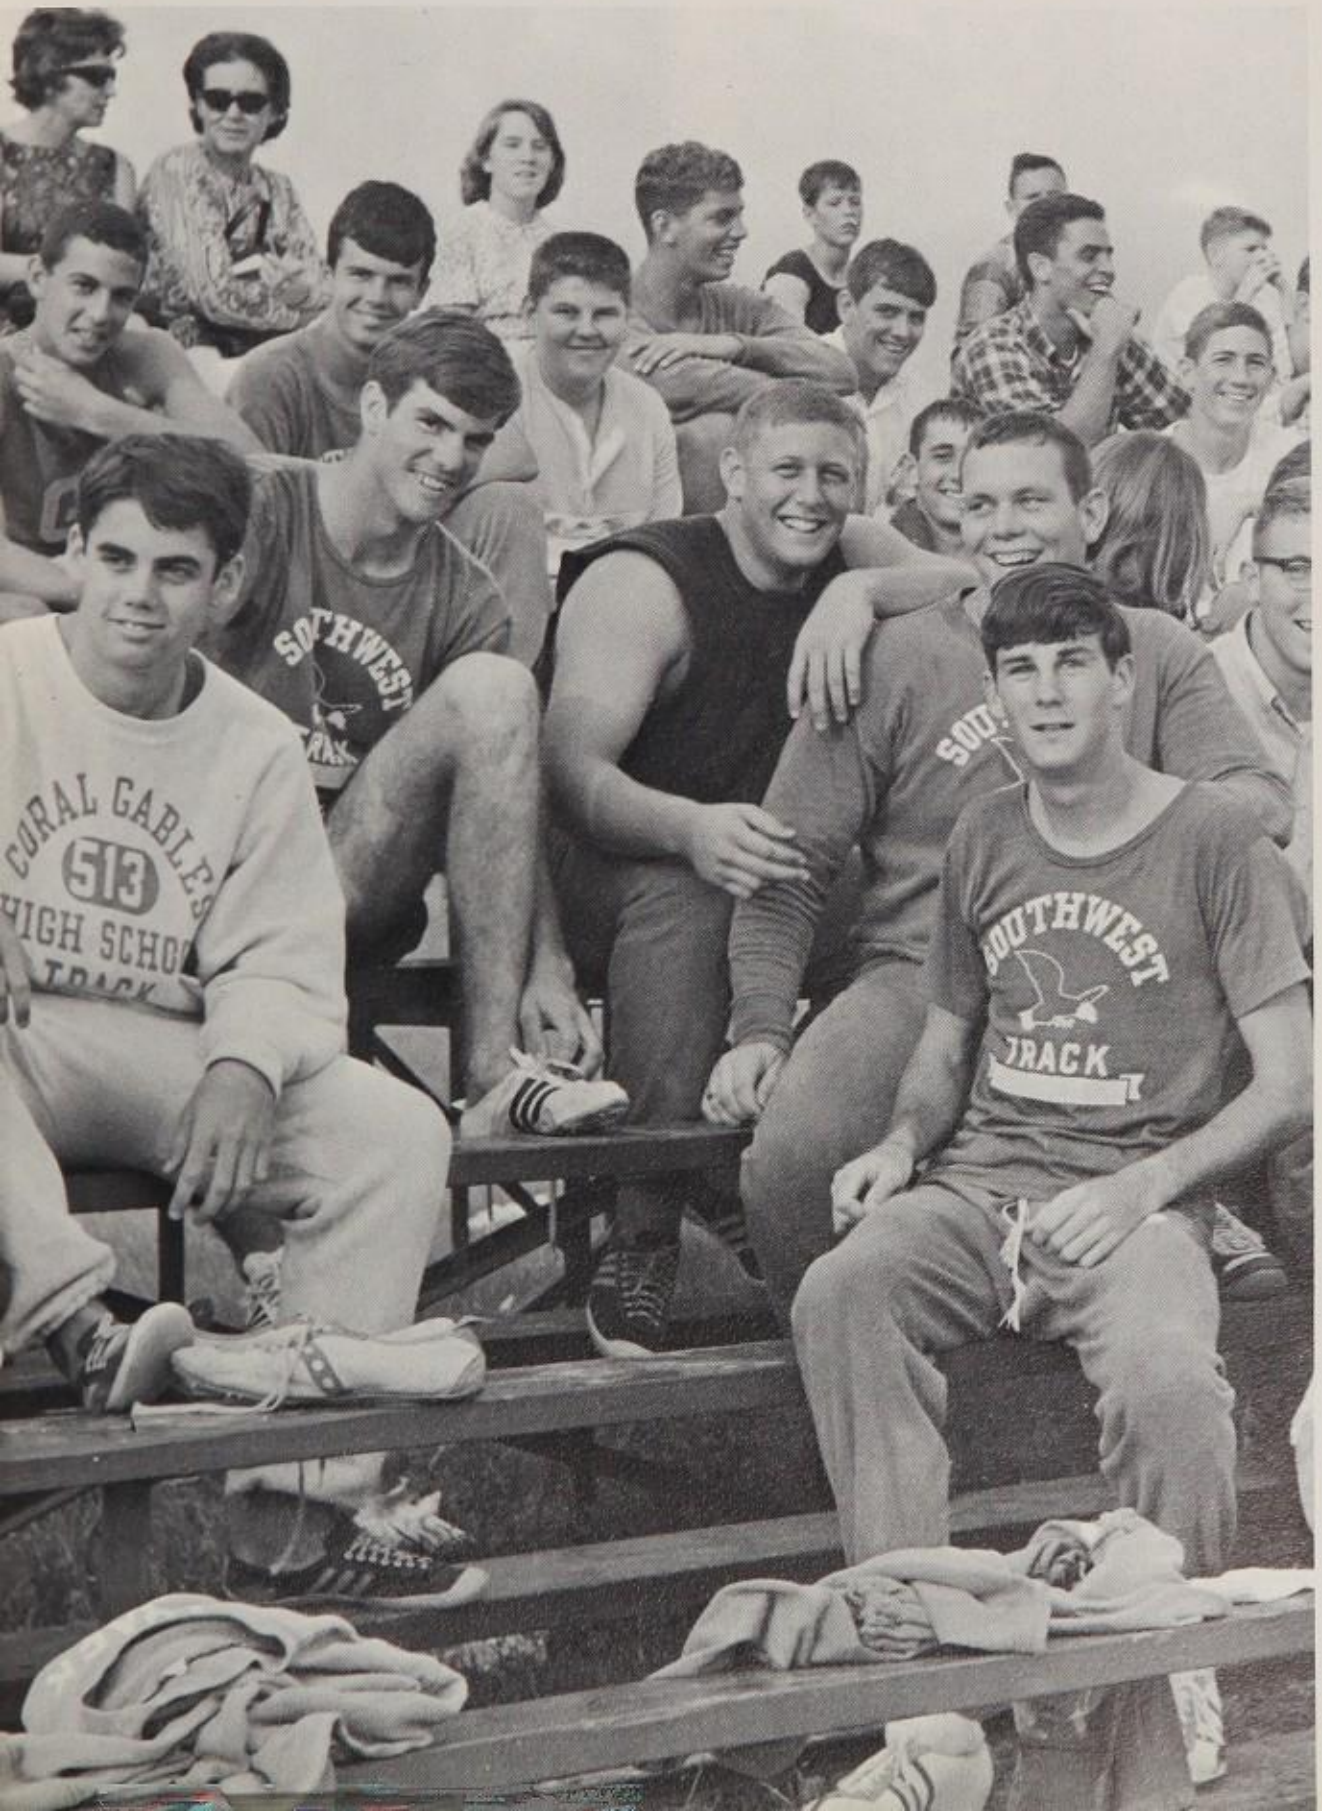
Jim Cooper carried the starting blocks out before the track meets.





Ron Rondeau showed his ability as a hurdler when he defeated a Gables' Cinderman.

Eagles flew high when broad jumping.



Team members mingled with spectators.

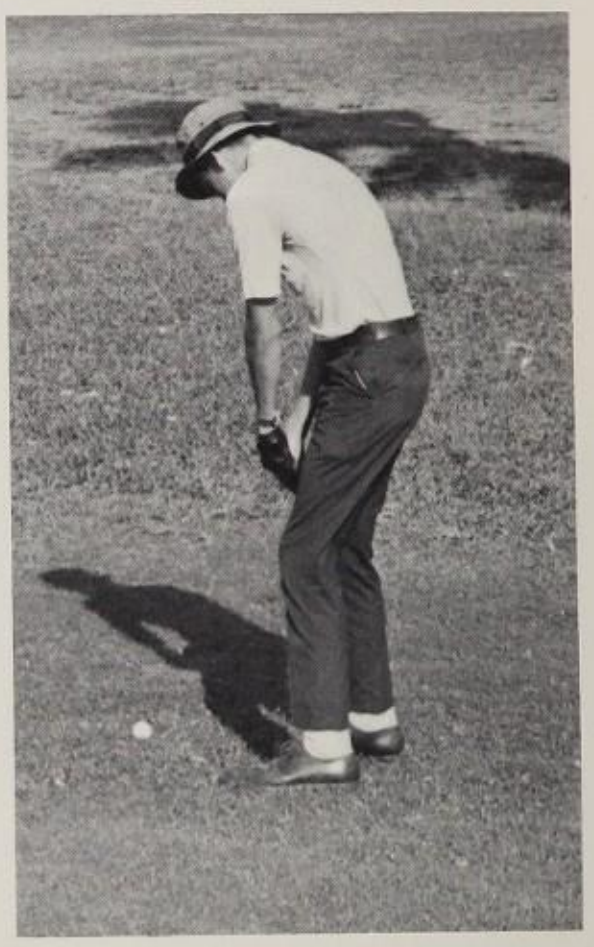
EAGLE GOLFERS TEED-OFF

The golf course was crowded with tourists, allowing team members only two days a week to practice. Coached by Rodger Griffin, Southwest golfers opened the season when they outplayed Coral Park at Miami Springs golf course, winning 4-1.

In the second game of the season Mark Stockwell, co-captain, led the golf team to victory over South Dade at Redland golf course when he shot a 39 against them. Captain of the team was John Hankins. The year was used primarily as a rebuilding year. Other outstanding golfers were Chuck McCormick and Tom Gordon.

Eagle golfers practiced on the Biltmore Golf Course and gained skill.

Eagle golfer Tom Gordon played well.



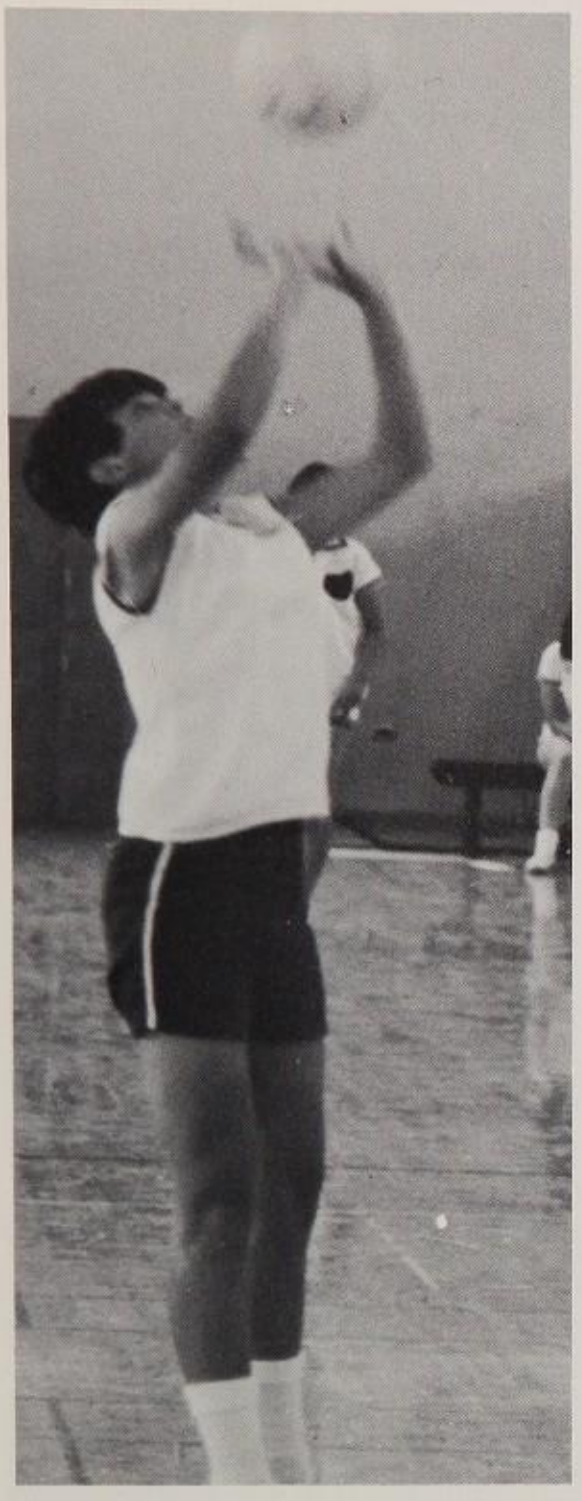
A GOLFER
IS LABELED BY HIS CONDUCT ON THE COURSE AND TOWARDS THE COURSE
HE ALWAYS
1. Shoots from behind the markers.
2. Levels footprints in the sand traps.
3. Replaces turf.
4. Lifts and levels ball hikes on the green.
5. Allows the following players to go thru if he is lost or is playing slower.
HE NEVER
1. Takes practice swings on the tee.
2. Talks or moves while a player is shooting.
3. Plays a shot before players ahead are out of range.
4. Practices from fairway or to green.
5. Leaves heel prints near cup.
6. Stands in players line beyond cup or behind player when he is putting.
Be a Golfer Not a Headache

Eagle golfers obeyed the rules.

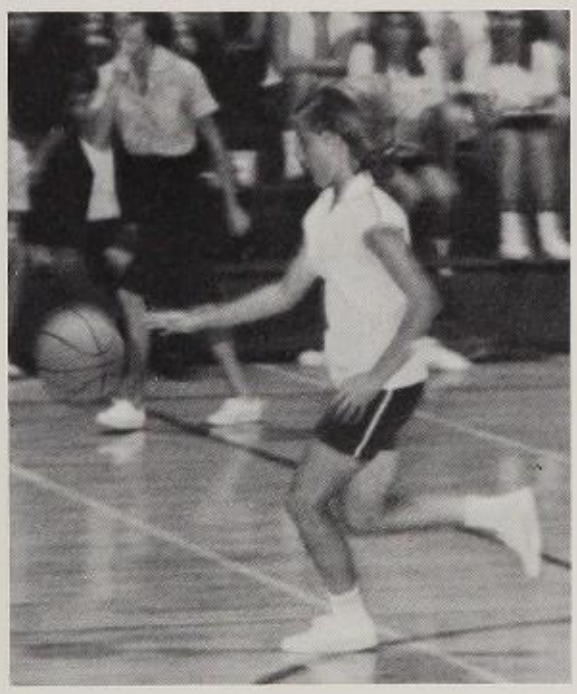
The Biltmore Golf Course was characterized by golf carts and tourists.

GIRLS SUPPORTED INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

Janet Middleton practiced volleying.



Volleyball's "B" team won the divisional plaque.



Girls at Southwest were given an opportunity to actively participate in various sports through the intramural program. Sponsors were Miss Sandra Lee and Miss Agnes Basset.

The Volleyball sportsday was held at Southwest and the "B" team won the divisional plaque. A basketball precedent was set when competition consisted of several games on different evenings ending with a play-off for championship.

Track and field and softball were the last activities of the year, and outstanding players throughout the program were Pat Nicholson and Janet Middleton.

Pat Nicholson was an outstanding player.

Leslie Saunders dodged a Coral Park guard.

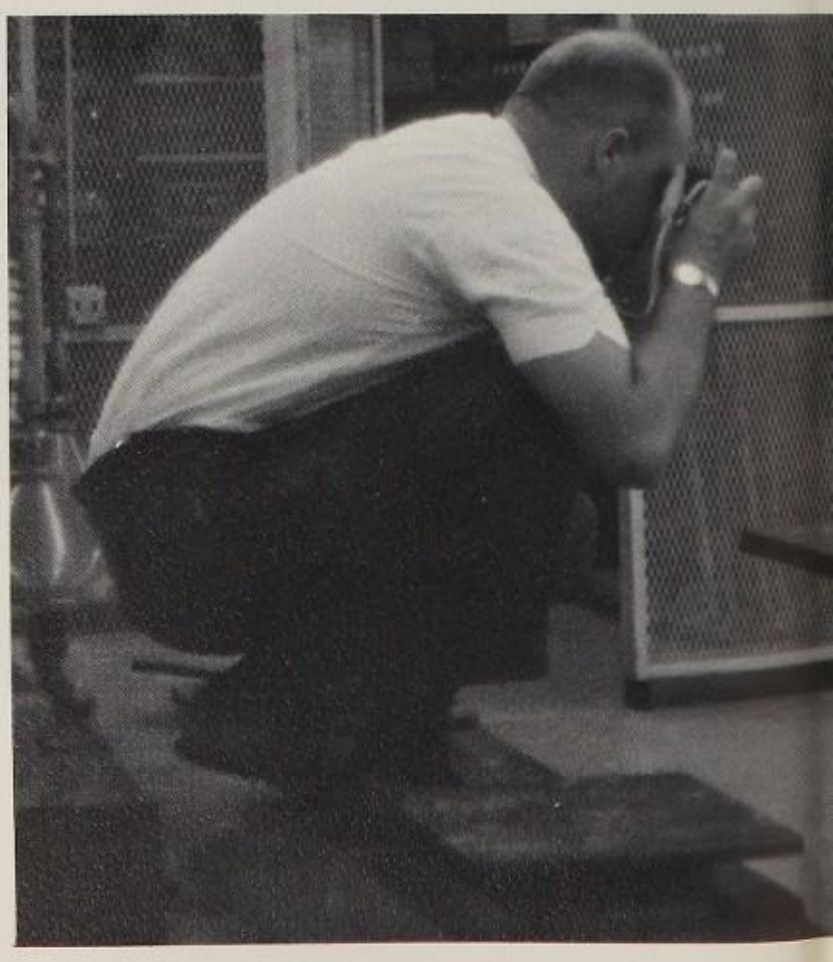
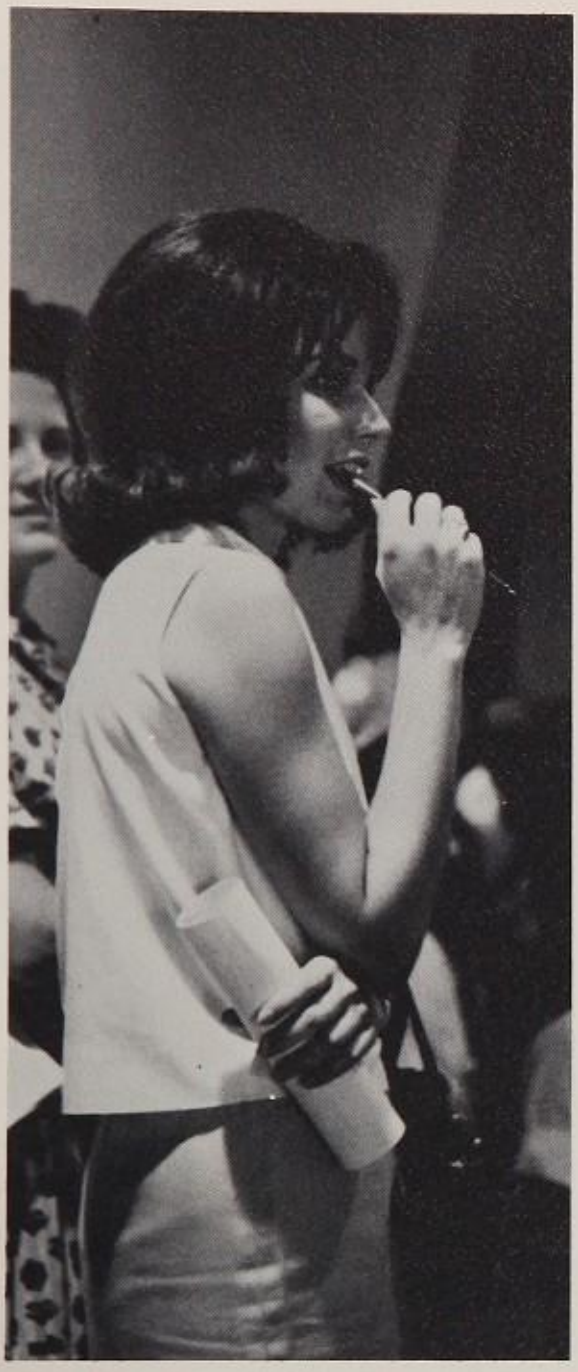
Mr. Cohan and Mr. Ferguson took a few moments out for quiet conversation.



Aquila picture taking was a unique experience for adviser Mr. Leo May.

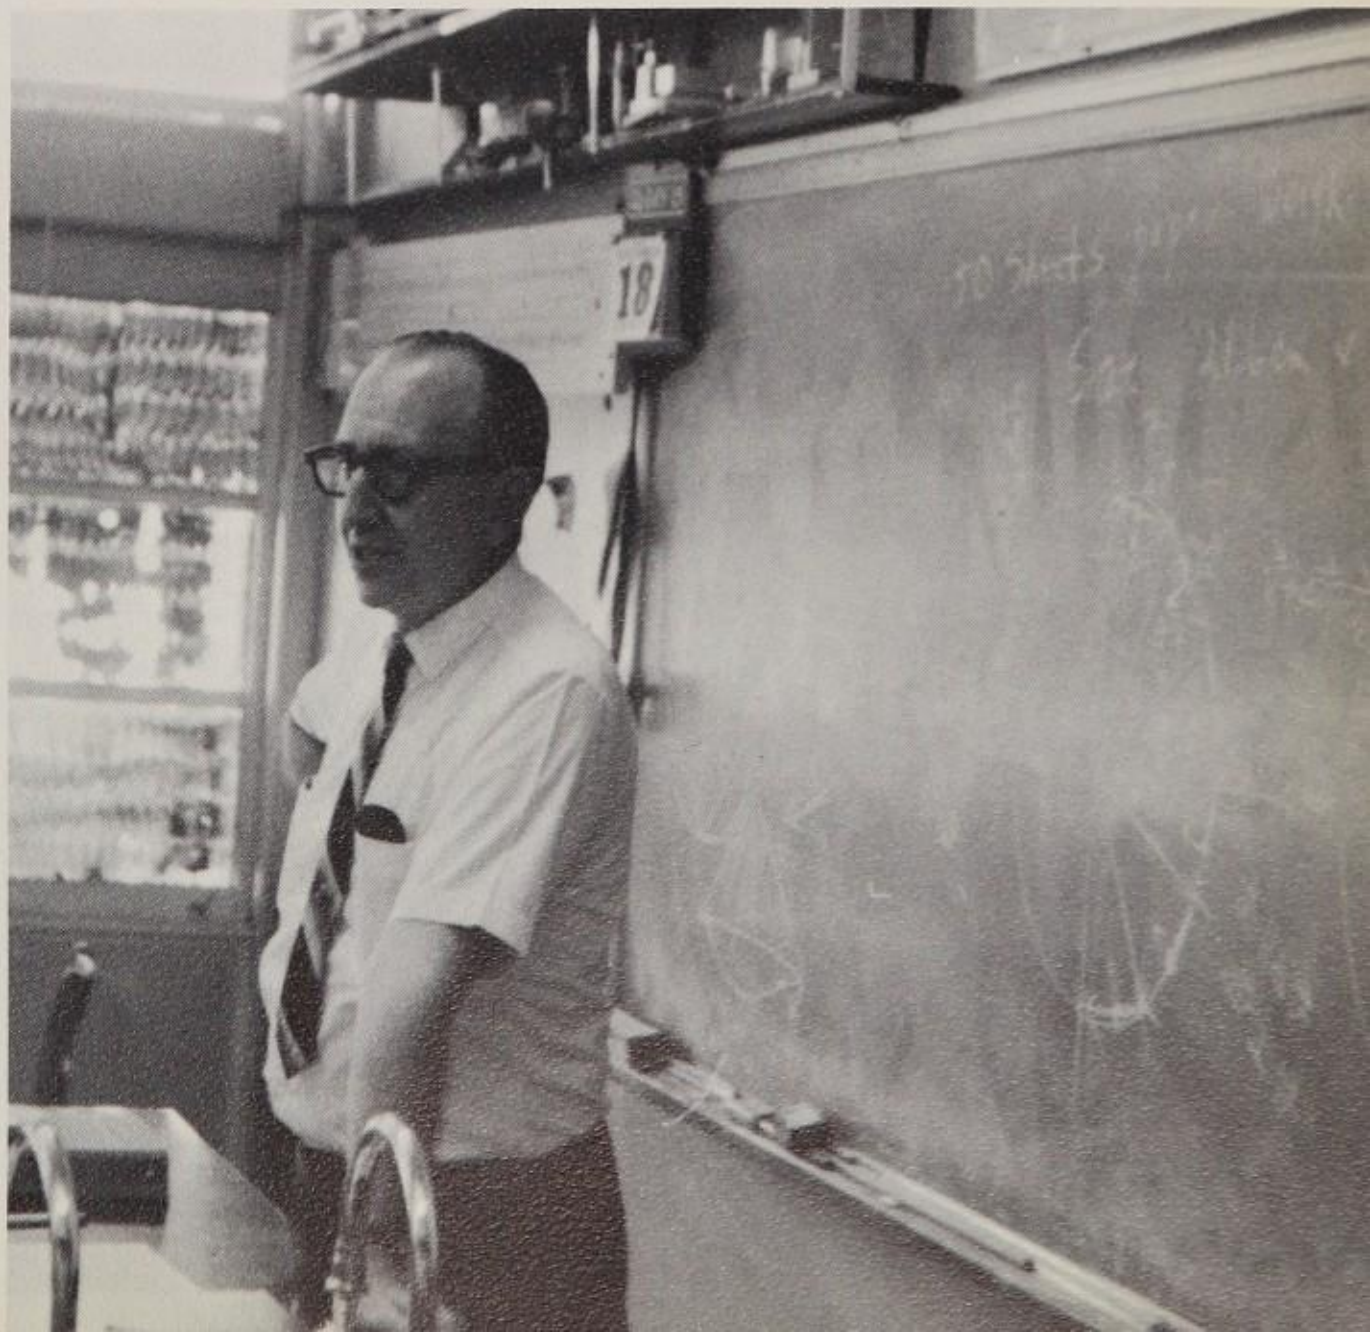
Would You Believe. .



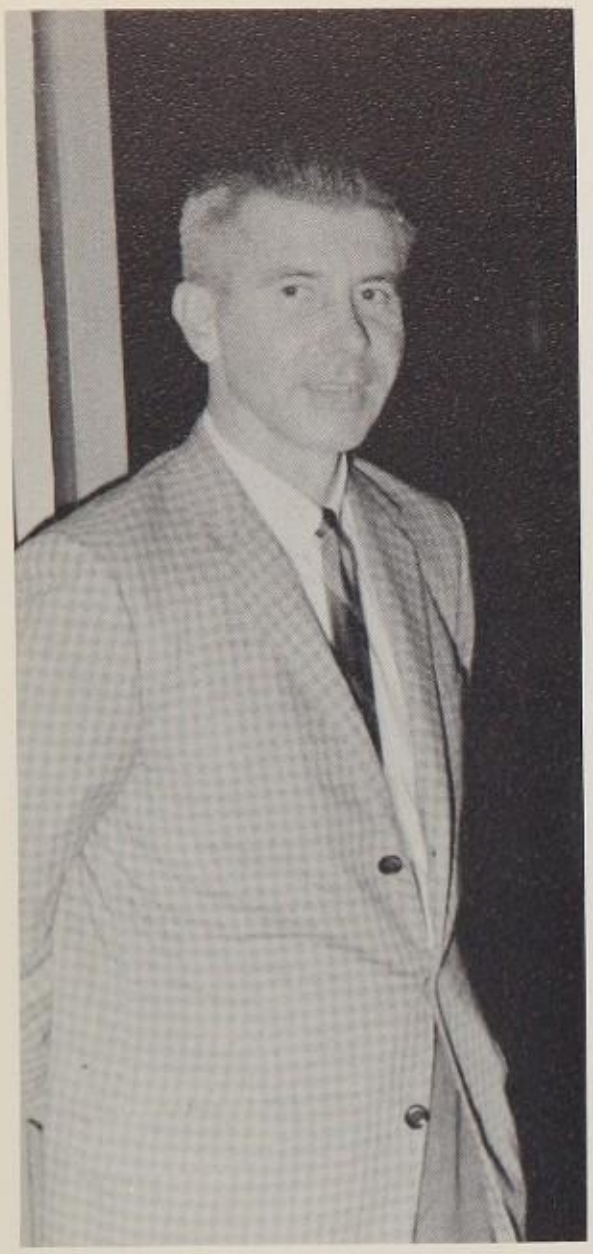
Even teachers chewed pencils.

Mrs. Ponzoli reflected on her classes.

Mr. Schmeisser explained vector acceleration to his class.



FBLA was an easy job for Mr. Debrei.



Mrs. DeLeon found her homeroom to be something of a challenge.

Miss Presnell and Miss Lee liked going to assemblies too.

Mr. Ferguson made a point in his sophomore English literature class.

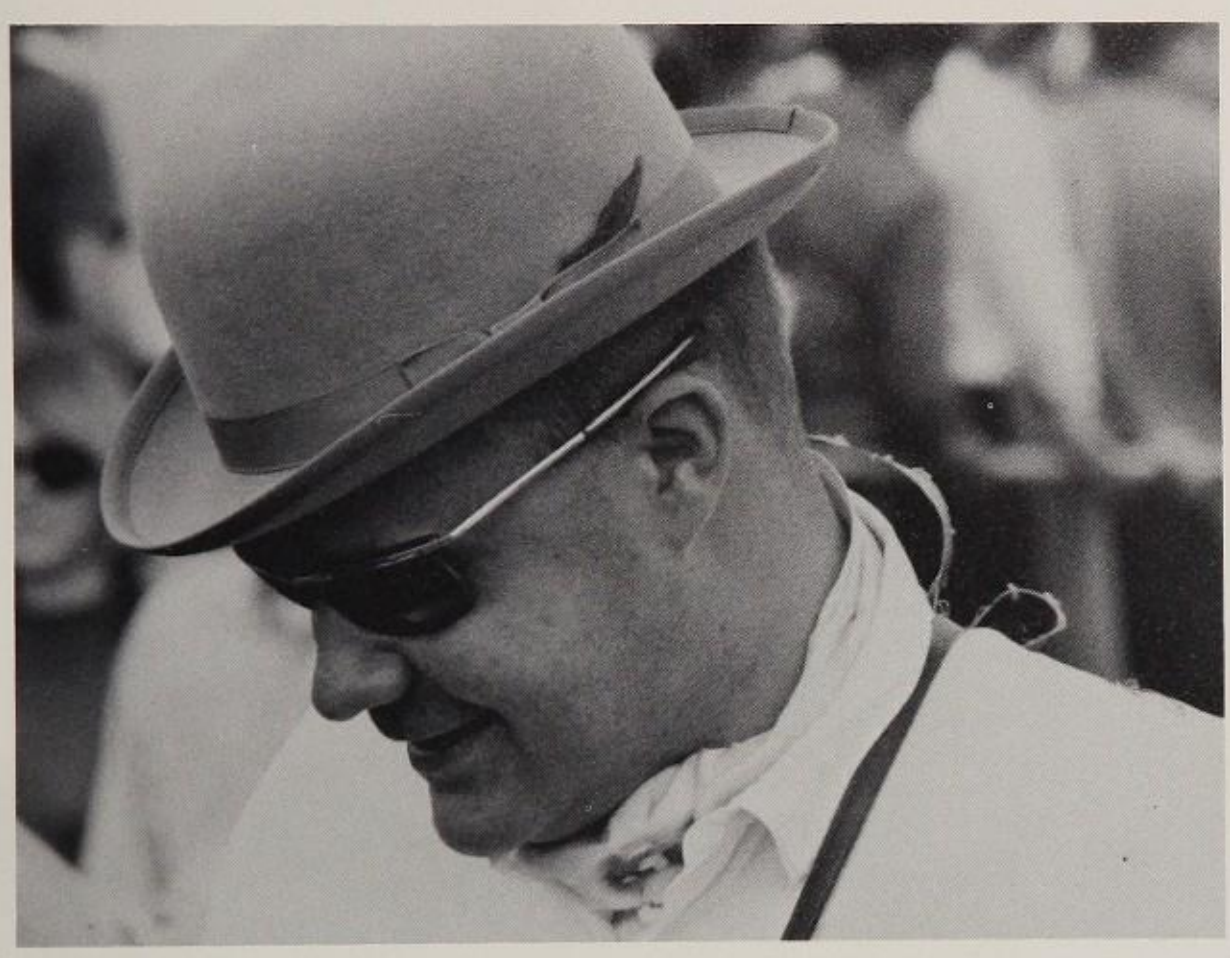
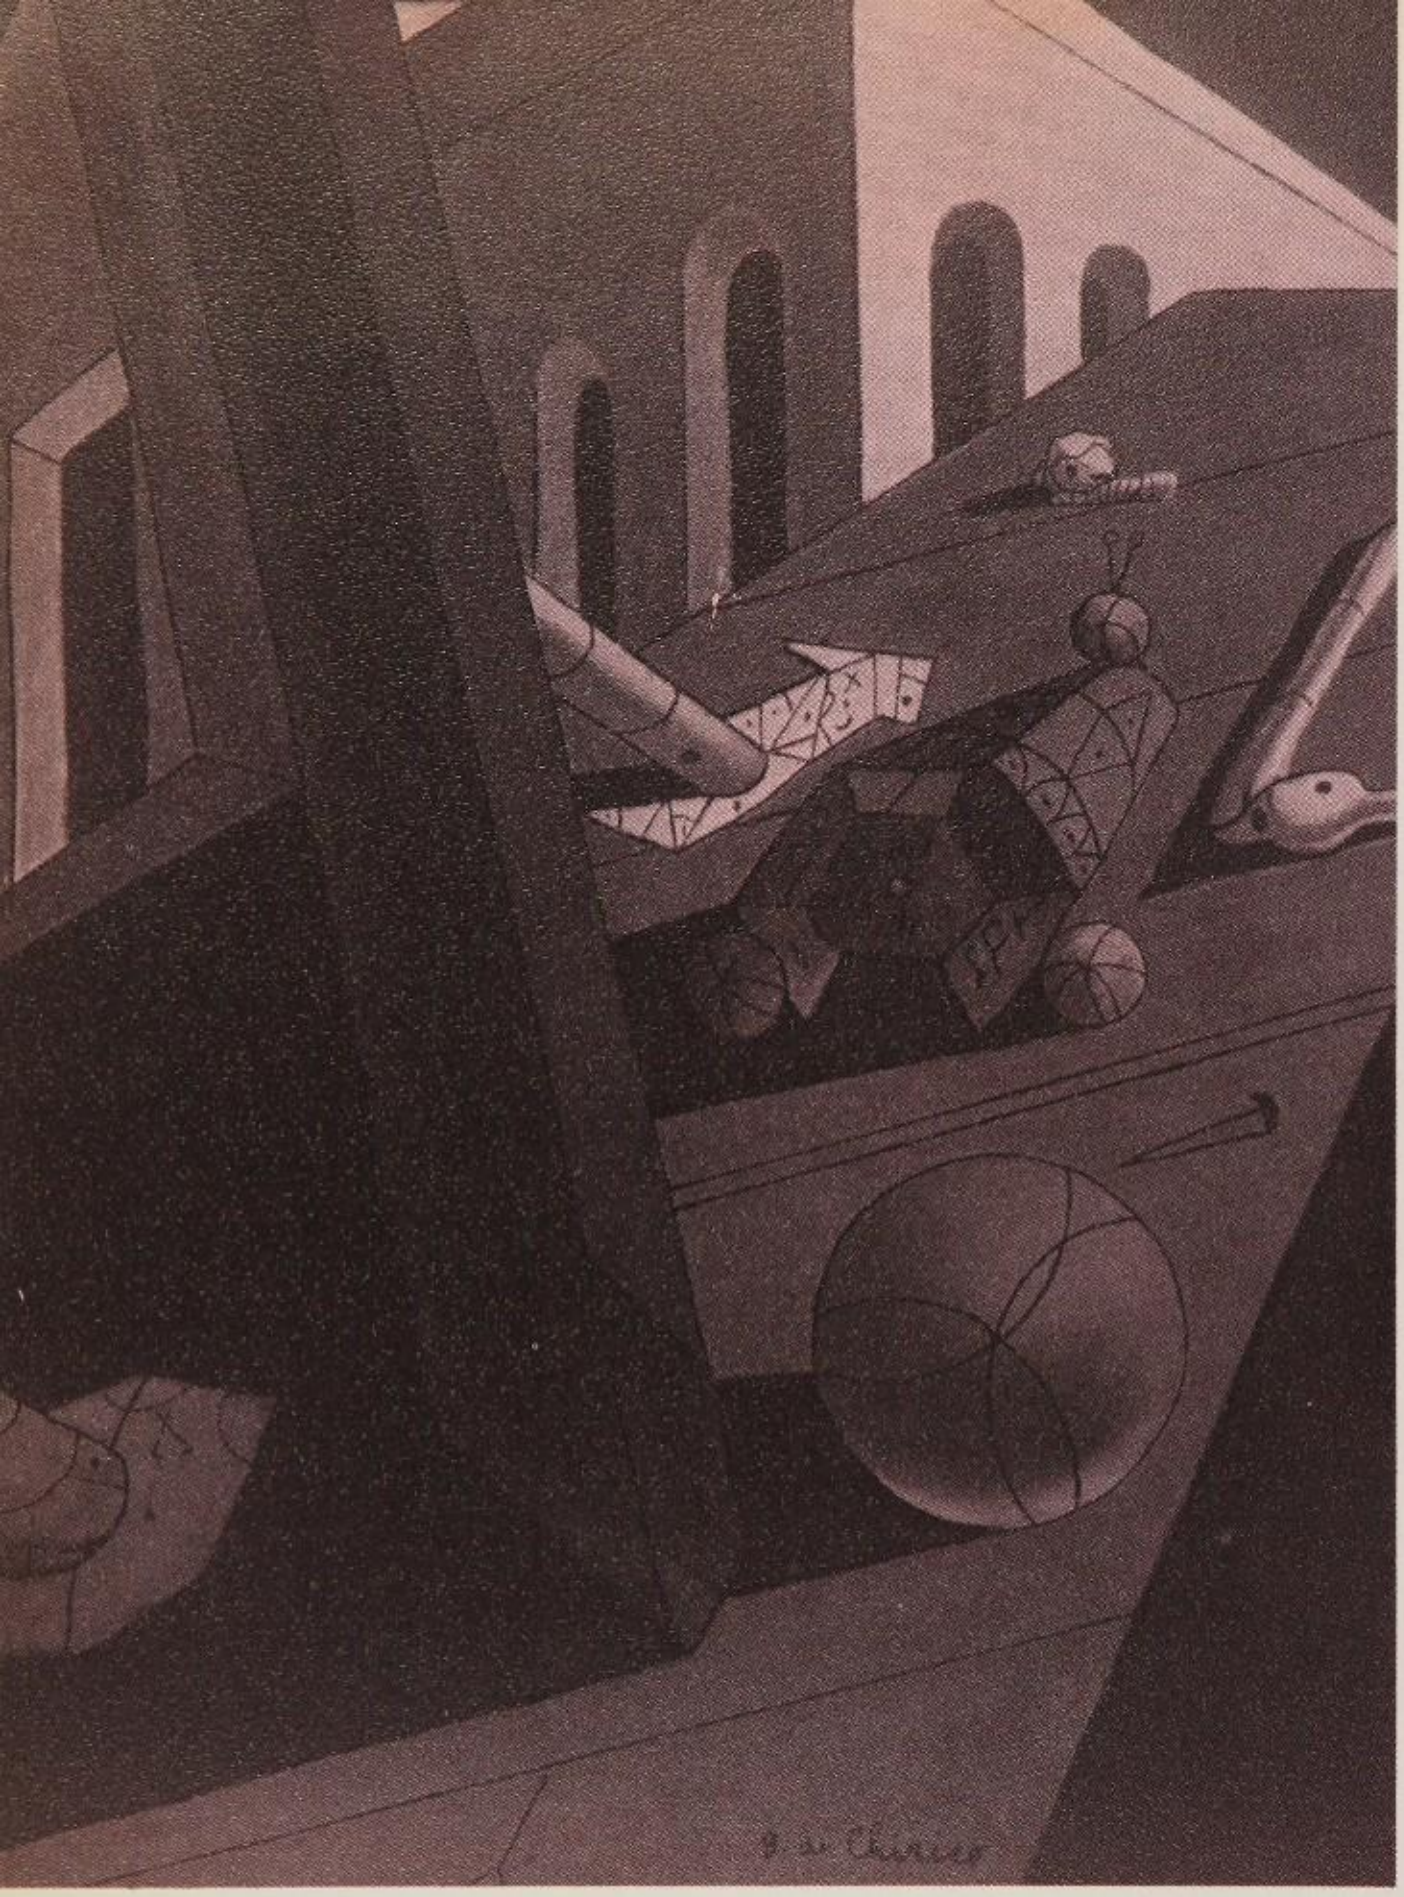
Mr. May's purple derby was a familiar sight at sporting events.



Mrs. Rosichan inspired curiosity in her classes.

The answer delighted Miss Blumenthal.



TOYS OF A PRINCE (EVIL GENIUS OF A KING)
de Chirico

The final realization that the year was over combined a variety of emotions. For some, June marked the beginning of the practical assay of their three years at Southwest, as over 800 Seniors marched down the aisle of Dade County Auditorium on June 12 to receive their diplomas. Many looked forward to the new experiences of college life. Others prepared for entrance into the working world. Without doubt, Southwest's halls were filled with haunting memories and delightful moments.

Various ambitions were still to be realized for high school was only the beginning of a series of different experiences. Undergraduates finished 1967 with the determination to make their class even more successful and their years at Southwest even more valuable.
